Counter Offensive on the Somme.

Haig's Line not Only Holding Firm, but His Men Take New Trenches.

Berlin on the Other Hand Reports Repulse of Allies in France.

BY ARTHUR S. DRAPER.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Sept. 29.—In an effort to stem the British push toward the Ancre and Bapaume the Germans opened a heavy counter-attack today in the Thiepval sector, but Haig's line held firm and his troops succeeded in extending their gains north of the Somme.

East of Lesboeufs, where their objective is Sailly and the positions on the Bethune road to the north, the British drove back the Kaiser's troops along a front of 500 yards. Earlier in the day they had captured a strongly-fortified farm a quarter of a mile from Le Sars, on the Bapaume-Albert road.

The heaviest fighting took place around Thiepval. Here the British, having won the Schwaben redoubt, hold positions which threaten the German line all the way to the Ancre, and, besides, the northern valley of the river. Unless they can be dislodged from this hold an advance that will bring them close to the western flank of Bapaume is possible.

From Beaumont and Miramount, lying beyond the Ancre, the Germans hurled tons of shell on the British positions around Thiepval, but Haig's troops were able to take refuge in the enemy's old dugouts and so clung to their ground.

Then the Kaiser's forces launched an infantry attack. The British had won an important sector of the strong Hessian trench, north of Thiepval. Before the fury of the German counter-drive they had to yield it, but soon returning to the attack, Haig's troops drove out the foe and then pushed beyond. In this action alone the British took more than 500 prisoners.

The British line is now practically straightened from the north of Thiepval to Guedecourt. On the left Haig is striving for the crossings of the Ancre; in the center he is pushing forward along the Bapaume-Albert road, while on the right the offensive in conjunction with the French aims to drive in a wedge eastward between Peronne and Bapaume.

On the left wing the heavy battle is still in progress, with the British slowly strengthening their positions north of Thiepval. In the center the capture of the fortified farm almost adjoining Baucourt l'Abbaye, surrounded by ravines and the juncture of six roads, is important as

SHOWS INCREASE OF MEAT PRICES.

Department of Agriculture Compares Figures with Past Years.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Prices of meat animals, hogs, cattle, sheep and chickens, increased 4.1 per cent. from August 15 to September 15, compared with an average increase of 0.9 per cent. in the same period the last six years. The Department of Agriculture announced today that the index figure price paid to producers for those meat animals was about 23.7 per cent. higher than last year, 10.5 per cent. higher than two years ago, and 22.5 per cent. higher than the average of the last six years on September 15.

THE GREAT WAR. The Situation to Date: Germans on the offensive against the British along the Somme.

Adjournment of the Reichstag.

Entente troops withstand Bulgarian attacks in Macedonia.

Intense fighting in the region of Korynitza.

COMMENTS ON THE SITUATION. Steadily the British troops are pushing forward toward the Peronne-Bapaume road, the main artery immediately behind the German lines north of Combles. After taking 500 yards of trenches southwest of Le Sars, Gen. Sir Douglas Haig's men made additional progress in the capture of 500 yards of German trenches east of Lesboeufs. The British occupancy of the territory between Thiepval and the Ancre is being contested strongly by the Germans. A German counter-attack after the entry of the British into a section of the Hessian trench resulted in the forcing out of the holders. The section was regained later, however, by the British, London says. Heavy fighting also has occurred around the Stuff redoubt. Rain is hampering operations on the remainder of the Anglo-French front north of the Somme.

NEW LOAN IS HINTED.

Morgan is Going to London.

Financier Books Passage on a Liner Leaving New York City Today.

Wall Street Said to be Eager to Pick up Additional Allies' Paper.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—J. P. Morgan has booked passage for Liverpool on the American line steamship New York, which sails at noon tomorrow. Although secrecy was maintained at Mr. Morgan's office as to his plans, it was whispered in financial circles that he is going to float another British loan, probably for $250,000,000, supported by collateral consisting mainly of American securities.

Henry P. Davison, Mr. Morgan's partner, sailed for Europe several weeks ago and he was subsequently joined by Mr. Anderson, head of the bond department. It is said that Mr. Davison went to Europe to arrange the preliminaries and that Mr. Anderson has been making an exhaustive examination and appraisement of the securities in the British treasury gathered under the mobilization plan, which became effective last January.

Mr. Morgan, it is said, will conclude the negotiations, which, however, may be protracted over several weeks. It is not expected that the announcement of the loan will be made before November.

Bankers questioned by a reporter today were confident that $250,000,000 British bonds, supported by high-grade American collateral, could be sold here within the next three months, notwithstanding that the public has taken within the last two months $50,000,000 Russian bonds, $100,000,000 French notes, $250,000,000 British collateral notes, and is ready to absorb $50,000,000 city of Paris notes to be offered at 99 next week.

Bond men pointed out that never in the history of the country has there been such a demand for bonds. As stated in the World today, bond houses have been completely cleaned out of high-grade securities. Still, the public appetite for investment has not been satiated.

BASES HIS SUIT ON WIFE'S NOVEL.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—Seeking to annul his marriage to his 19-year-old wife, Herman T. Asche, millionaire importer of Riverside drive, cites a document said to have been written by the bride and called her novelette confession. In it, according to documents filed with the Supreme Court, she revealed that her marriage to Asche was part of a plot to get his money so she might return to the young artist she really loved. According to the papers, Mrs. Asche, daughter of Andrew O'Connor, famous Irish-American sculptor, was secretly married when 18 to a young man of Bushnellville, N. Y., and lived with him two days. This marriage was annulled, although Asche says he knew nothing of it at the time he was courting her. Asche's father is a former Postmaster-General of Norway, and his brother Harold is now Chief Justice of Norway.

NEBRASKA ROADS SPURN HEARING.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Sept. 29.—The railroads of Nebraska refused to appear before the State Railroad Commission at its hearing today on the cancellation of tariffs which the roads assert are in conflict with the Interstate Commerce Commission's ruling. A brief was filed denying authority of the State commission as far as 85 per cent. of the Nebraska rates are concerned, alleging that the Interstate Commerce Commission has set rates in all but 15 per cent. of the cases.

CHEMICALS LIFE PERIL OF MUNITIONS MAKERS.

Poison from Gases Causes not Only Skin Affections, but More Serious Ailments, Including Acute Degeneration of the Liver—Museum of Safety, to be Established in Washington, Recommended.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Dangers aside from accidents that menace the health of munitions workers in the manufacture of high explosives were recognized officially at the annual meeting of the American Chemical Society here today, during discussion of occupational diseases in the chemical trade. It was shown that poisoning from gases causes not only skin affections, but leads to more serious ailments.

A committee recommended that a museum of safety be established in Washington, where national, State and municipal officials and representatives of selected lines of chemical activity might co-operate in an effort to minimize the risk.

Dr. Alice Hamilton of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Chicago, said it had been found that gases very poisonous in character are evolved in large quantities in the manufacture of guncotton, nitroglycerine, picric acid and the new explosive, trinitrotoluene.

"These products themselves are often poisonous," Dr. Hamilton said, "causing distressing skin affections on those handling them, and when absorbed more disastrous disturbances are alterations in the blood or acute degeneration of the liver.

"The number of cases of fairly serious industrial poisoning which have occurred in this country since the outbreak of the European war is far from negligible."

Dr. W. A. Lynott of the Bureau of Mines, Washington, said that the death rate from tuberculosis in the mining district of Joplin, Mo., is 200.8 per 100,000 population, while the average of the country is less than 150 per 100,000.

"The general opinion seems to be that flint dust from drilling and other operations in the lead and zinc mines of the district is largely resulting from this condition," he said. "Tuberculosis among coal miners is uncommon, many mine surgeons being under the impression that coal or coal dust acts as a preventive."

Creditor of Unionite Newspaper Takes Step to Wind it up and Get Back the Money Which He Advanced to Aid New Orleans Agitators.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29.—E. H. Merrick, Washington, D. C., newspaper man and former publisher of the New Orleans American, a paper started by the striking members of the typographical union, today joined James J. Costello in asking for a receiver for the company, which is now being run under the direction of Hugh O'Donnell, newspaper man of Philadelphia. Merrick shows that he is a creditor of the company for money advanced in the amount of $20,264.18, evidenced by two promissory notes, indorsed by the company and C. O'Malley and secured by 1225 shares of the capital stock of the corporation. Merrick contends that while the notes are not yet due, he is the largest legitimate creditor and is entitled to a hearing and to relief. Unless a receiver is appointed, he says, the present management will totally destroy any prospect which he, or any other creditor, has of being paid. The petition charges that the whole control of the corporation is in the hands of H. D. Brown, who, he says, is "a notorious race track promoter," and that the open and conspicuous domination of the corporation by Brown has resulted in disastrous consequences to whatever future the New Orleans American may ever have had.

New Jersey Authorities Seeking Tramp who Spreads Paralysis.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Health authorities in New Jersey are searching for a tramp believed to have been a carrier of infantile paralysis germs on the theory that his case provides the best evidence available that the disease is spread by adult human carriers. It is believed the man transmitted the disease to three children of a farmer near Patricks Corner, N. J.

The most rigid quarantine was established by the farmer on his premises at the beginning of the plague. The tramp, however, was given employment. He slept in the barn, but ate his meals in the house. He remained only a few days, and soon after he left three children were stricken with the disease.

Fisherman Reports He Saw Submarine Making for New London.

PORTLAND (Me.) Sept. 29.—A life preserver marked "Bremen," the name of the German submarine freighter which has been generally expected to arrive at some Atlantic Coast port for the past week or more, was picked up on the oceanside of Cape Elizabeth today.

The name "Bremen" was stenciled in black letters two inches high on both sides of the buoy. On one side of the canvas covering was printed a small crown. Over this were the words "Shutz-Marke," meaning patented, or trade-mark. Beneath are the words, "V. Epping, Hoven Wilhelmshafen." This indicated, apparently, the name of the maker.

The preserver seemed to be new and apparently had not been in the water a great length of time. It was stained with oil. An officer of the coast guard cutter service who examined the buoy said that if the preserver had been thrown overboard by some one who thought to play a practical joke, he had done a very good job.

The preserver was well made, and the lettering and the were of the best quality.

The buoy was picked up at a small place known as Maide Cove, by a ten-year-old lad, Frederick L. Lakeman, of Westbrook. A number of other persons were near by at the time and saw the boy pick up the object from the beach near the water's edge. The buoy later was taken to a newspaper office, where it was photographed and examined by many seafaring men.

WESTERLY (R. I.) Sept. 29.—A fisherman at Pleasant View, near Watch Hill, overlooking Long Island Sound, reported tonight that he had seen with his marine glasses a large submarine proceeding in the direction of New London, where the German submarine Bremen has been expected for more than a week. She then was twenty-five miles east of New London and showed on her mast a bright white light above a green light.

These lights, according to the observer, were the ones he had been told by Capt. Robinson of the tug Westerly would be carried by the German submarine, which the tug some days ago had been ordered to look for.

The submarine was unaccompanied and displayed no flag. The observer, who professed to be familiar with the appearance of American submarines, which have their base at New London, said that she was of a different type from any he had seen. The boat was about two miles off shore and was going at a moderate rate of speed. The sea was choppy.

NO SUBMARINE SEEN.

NEW LONDON (Ct.) Sept. 29.—No submarine has been seen in the waters adjacent to New London at a late hour tonight. Officials of the Eastern Forwarding Company and the T. A. Scott Wrecking Company, agents in this country of the German line of undersea merchantmen, claimed they had no knowledge of the early approach of a German submarine.

GERMAN SHIP MOVEMENTS.

OLD POINT COMFORT (Va.) Sept. 29.—Convoyed by twelve United States battleships the German auxiliary cruisers Prinz Eitel Friederich and Kronprinz Wilhelm, which sought haven in Hampton Roads early last year and were interned, tonight were well on their way up the Atlantic Coast for the Philadelphia navy yard. The Wilhelm is in tow of five navy tugs, while the Eitel is proceeding under her own steam.

The two cruisers left the Norfolk navy yard early today and were met at the Virginia Capes about noon by the battleship fleet. The fourteen vessels immediately headed up the coast, proceeding outside the three-mile limit. They are due at Philadelphia tomorrow. They were taken from the Norfolk yard because of lack of room.

IMPOSSIBLE, SAYS HINSCH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW LONDON (Ct.) Sept. 29.—Officials of the Eastern Forwarding Company, American agents of the German line of submarine merchantmen, were undisturbed tonight over the report that a life preserver marked "Bremen" had been picked up off the Maine coast. When asked if the preserver might have belonged to the long-expected submarine Capt. F. Hinsch said, "Impossible." He added that it was unlikely that the Bremen's preservers would be marked in the manner of the one found.

Peace Talk.

MEDIATION BID HEARD IN HOLLWEG'S SPEECH.

London Believes Chancellor Sees Chance for Germany to Gain Capital in Eyes of Neutrals — Hoped that Lloyd George Interview will Forestall Any Intention Wilson may Have to Offer Services.

BY ARTHUR S. DRAPER.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—In many quarters Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg's speech is considered essentially a bid for mediation by America or some other neutral power. Outwardly, his review seems intended to arouse and invigorate the drooping spirits of the German people, who have grown especially war weary since the success of the Somme offensive, but it is prompted fundamentally by the belief the time is opportune to wave the peace flag. Undoubtedly, the sentiments expressed by Lloyd George came as no surprise to the Chancellor. He sees a chance for Germany to gain capital in the eyes of neutrals if he could induce America to offer mediation and have it spurned by the allies, as it would be. Then he would cry "greed" to the neutral world and tell the Germans they had to choose between absolute ruin and defense to the last. Thus, he might embarrass the allies and strengthen his own creaking machine.

WILSON WAITS GERARD.

When Ambassador Gerard reaches Washington he can give the President first hand information about the whole German situation, Wilson having already learned through Ambassador Page of the sentiment among the allies. Mr. Gerard should reach New York by the middle of the month. Then the President can decide whether it is wiser to confine his pre-election remarks to the question of a league of nations, which would cause no excitement among the allies though it would command their respectful attention, or broach the dangerous subject of mediation. It is hoped here the Lloyd George interview will forestall the reported plan of the President, but the earnestness of the people in their tremendous job makes them fearful of well intentioned but misguided interference.

LONDON COMMENT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Sept. 29, 11:15 p.m.—The evening newspapers publish lengthy reports of Chancellor Von Bethman-Hollweg's speech, contrasting it with his earlier utterances and drawing the conclusion that Germany fears defeat and is anxious for peace. The Standard says:

"The Chancellor makes it clear that peace must be, on the whole, a German peace, but there is now no talk of vast indemnities, great territorial acquisitions and so forth. . . . The Chancellor labors to make the world believe that conflict was forced on his country by England. How came it, then, that England, France and Russia were indifferently prepared for war two years

"Germany will not Think of Peace while Her House is Burning" Imperial Chancellor Says.

Checkmate.

"ALLIES ARE STALLED," HOLLWEG DECLARES.

"They Can Never Break Through on the East or West," He Proclaims.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 28 (via Sayville, Sept. 29.)—The allies cannot break through the German lines on the Somme, Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg told the Reichstag yesterday, according to an account of his speech cabled to Reuter's by way of Amsterdam. The German Prime Minister made a similar statement in regard to the eastern front. Concluding his speech, the Chancellor exclaimed:

"Germany will not be permitted to think of peace while her house is burning. She must first extinguish the fire."

After the Chancellor had concluded the Reichstag adjourned until October 5.

GERMANY'S POSITION.

Germany's position, Hollweg said, was satisfactory in every respect. He mentioned the arrival of the merchant submarines Deutschland and Bremen in the United States.

[A news dispatch to Berlin to the effect that a tug had gone out from New London, Ct., presumably to meet the Bremen gave rise to the erroneous report, generally accepted in Germany, that the Bremen had reached the United States.]

The Chancellor read telegrams exchanged with the Emperor on the occasion of the beginning of the second year of the war, and with the president of the Hungarian Parliament at the time of the fall of the Rumanian fortress of Turtukad. The speech was much applauded.

The Chancellor protested against reports that for any reason whatever all means of warfare were not being used as fully as possible. He declined to enter into public discussion which recently has arisen on this subject, saying the times were grave.

ECONOMICS.

The Chancellor then briefly reviewed the economic situation. He said that the English starvation blockade had failed and that the provisionment of the German nation had been improved by recent harvests.

Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg acknowledged the "heroism with which the German nation bears its burdens of war, and especially the heroism with which our sons and brothers on the front withstand the furious attacks of an enemy force far superior in numbers and projectiles. Never in the world history has man seen anything like this."

Continuing, the Chancellor said:

"What gives us force to stand in this struggle against almost the entire world if not love for the land of our fathers which unites all its sons with an unseverable bond; if not the uncorrupted force of arms and hearts which lives at the rock bottom of our national life and from which new generations rise?

"Nothing of this which has stood the fire test can be missed in peace times. What has turned out to be true in war must live in peace. 'Unmeasured work awaits me,' wrote Frederick the Great when the Seven Years' War drew to an end. Unmeasured work was for us the result of all the struggles in which Prussia and Germany for 150 years have had to defend their existence. This was for our good fortune and will be so again.

GREAT TASKS.

"Great tasks which await us in all domains of state and of social, economic and political life need all the vital solid forces of our nation. It is necessary for the state in order to conquer all obstacles that we must find these forces and use them for the common weal. Let us clear the road for all that are fit. Let us follow this watchword in openminded spirit and our empire will advance towards the future in which the best of the nation from all ranks and classes gladly will participate in the works of peace just as is done now in this sanguinary struggle."

"The English and French, it is true," he said, "have achieved advantages. Our first line has been pressed back some kilometers, and we have also to deplore heavy losses in men and material. That was inevitable in an offensive on such a mighty scale. But what our enemies hoped to accomplish, namely, to break through on a grand scale and roll up our positions, has not been attained. The battle of the Somme will cost further sacrifices. Still another trench and another village may be lost, but they will not get through."

In regard to the eastern front where, the Chancellor said, the Russians had renewed their offensive with heavy attacks, he predicted the same result. "Here, too, the battle is proceeding," he said, "but just as surely shall we hold our own."

Referring to Rumania, the Chancellor said that the old King of Rumania had died "as the result of mental excitement caused by the consciousness that Rumania had betrayed her allies." The speaker said that the Entente confidently hoped that Rumania's entrance into the war would bring in its trail the secession of Turkey and Bulgaria. "But Turkey and Bulgaria were not Rumania and Italy," he concluded.

"Since the beginning of July," he said, "English and French attacks on the Somme have raged almost without interruption. The common offensive of the Entente enemies wanted to break through the front of the hated Germans, free France and Belgium and carry the war across the Rhine into Germany.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED.

"But what has happened? The French and English have gained advantages and have pushed back our first lines some kilometers. We deplore the heavy losses in men and material. This, however, is unavoidable in the face of an offensive planned on such a broad scale. But what our enemies hoped and attempted did not succeed. Our front was not broken nor rolled up, but stands firm and unshaken. Heavy and violent is the fighting there on the Somme and the end is not yet in view. Further sacrifices are necessary. This or that trench, and this or that village may be lost. But they will not push through our lines, it is assured by our commanders and by the incomparable bravery of the troops from all parts of Germany.

"On the eastern front the great Russian attempt to break through was stopped by the troops of Archduke Charles and Gen. Von Linsingen. Attacks west of Lutsk, on the Narayuvka River and in the Carpathians then followed, but also broke down.

"There, also, the fighting will continue. There, also, it is absolutely certain that the line will be maintained by the heroism of our armies.

"In the Balkans, the Entente powers planned to split our alliance, to interrupt communication between Germany and the near east to crush Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria-Hungary one after the other and then to throw all their forces against isolated Germany."

The Chancellor at this point asked what had been gained by the army of Gen. Sarrail (the French commander at Saloniki) and by Rumania's "treason," and answered the question as follows:

"The situation of our faithful, brave allies is unshaken. Austria-Hungary stands together with us on the eastern front from Lake Narocz and Transylvania. The Turks are fighting in Galicia. German, Bulgarian and Turkish trops have defeated the Rumanians in Dobrudja. Bulgarian, German and Turkish troops have fought their way to Macedonia.

"The plan of the Entente powers to force a decision in Dobrudja and Macedonia has been frustrated as soon as it began. The Saloniki army has been able to make only feeble advances. The Germans, Bulgarians and Turks in Dobrudja marched to the northward while our enemies hoped that the Russians and Rumanians would march to the southward.

"To sum up: On the Somme front there have been isolated hostile successes, which, however, do not change the general situation. Otherwise a successful defense has been made against all hostile attacks and thus the enemy attempts have been thwarted. In the Balkans the hostile plan failed. Thus the enormous war goes on.

"The aims proclaimed by our enemies are becoming increasingly clear and admit of no misunderstanding. They are lust of conquest and annihilation. I have spoken in this house repeatedly about them. It is proposed to give Constantinople to Russia, Alsace-Lorraine to France, the Trentino and Trieste to Italy and Transylvania to Rumania."

ATTACKS BRITAIN.

In his attack upon Great Britain he declared that the country was breaking one international law after another and was, above all, Germany's "most egotistical, fiercest and most obstinate enemy."

"A German statesman," he said, "who would hesitate to use against this enemy every available instrument of battle that would really shorten this war—such a statesman should be hanged." The Chancellor declared his contempt for those circulating reports that all Germany's means of fighting were not being employed to the fullest possible extent. He added that in order to disappoint the enemy "who is on watch for every breach of our inner determination," he would not give details.

"When in August, 1914," he went on, "we had to draw the sword we knew we had to protect our hearths and homes against a mighty and almost overwhelming coalition. Ardent, and until then unknown and often ignored, patriotism flamed up in all hearts defying death and certain of victory. Today, after two years of fighting, struggling, suffering and dying, we know more than ever before that there is only one watchword, namely, persevere and win. We will win. Last winter there was pusillanimous anxiety as to whether our foodstuffs would suffice. They have sufficed. This year's harvest makes us much more secure than was the case last year."

The Chancellor said that he realized the troubles of the people coincident with the war and that he shared the deep sorrow for the fallen and mutilated. "I bow my head," he went on, "before the heroism with which women and men without distinction of rank or class bear their sacrifices, united in an ardent love for the Fatherland. Still more sublime and still greater is the defiance of death with which our sons and brothers in the field withstand the violent assaults of the enemy, who, superior in numbers, are fighting with the utmost bravery. World history—human history— has never before seen the like."

MAY QUARANTINE JOHN D. ESTATE

[DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TARRYTOWN (N. Y.) Sept. 29.—John D. Rockefeller's estate will probably be placed under quarantine because of the discovery of a case of infantile paralysis. The 3-year-old daughter of Carl Nelson came down with the disease today and there are three other children in the house. Mr. Rockefeller has been taking every precaution to keep the disease from the children on his estate and they were not allowed to leave it and no children were allowed to enter. The discovery of the case will not alone keep Mr. Rockefeller in Cleveland, but will keep John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and his family away probably for the rest of the year. They have been at Seal Harbor, Me., since the epidemic broke out.

The Chancellor declared that the German people again had an opportunity to show their appreciation of the heroism of the army by subscribing to the new war loan. He asserted that the nation firmly believed in the assurance of victory and was ready for any sacrifice. "I know we can also rely on the fighters behind the front," he said, "to give all their available money to support the gigantic work of our fighters in the field. With clenched fists but open hearts we will stand behind them, one man and one people."

RUMANIAN INTRIGUE.

The Chancellor alluded to the intrigues of Rumania and that country's declaration of war, saying:

"Our relations with Rumania before the war were based on the treaty of alliance first concluded between Austria-Hungary and Rumania, and then enlarged by the accession of Germany and Italy. The contracting parties engaged under the treaty to assist each other in case of unprovoked attack by a third party.

"When war broke out King Carlos with all his energy stood up for the idea that Rumania owed to the central powers thirty years of political security and wonderful economic development and that therefore Rumania must support the central powers, not only on account of the provisions of the treaty but also for the sake of the country's honor. The late King regarded as sophistry the objection that Rumania had not been informed in regard to the Austro-Hungarian demarche in regard to Serbia and had not been consulted about it.

"But when the deciding session of the Crown Council was held the aged King did not succeed as against the government whose Prime Minister, notwithstanding treaty obligations, sympathized with the Entente powers. A short time later the King died in consequence of the emotions caused by realization that Rumania was a traitor to her allies.

"The Rumanian policy was now guided by Primier Bratiano, who attempted to gain riches without making great sacrifices at the expense of the party suffering defeat in the war. The main point was to discover in time which party was about to win final victory, in order not to be too late. Nevertheless during the first year of the war, probably after the fall of Lemberg, Premier Bratiano, leaving his sovereign in ignorance, concluded a treaty of neutrality with Russia. After the fall of Przemysl he thought the time had come to reach an understanding in regard to pay for Judas-like treason, but the negotiations failed. Russia desired to increase her own vast territory by taking Bukowina, while Rumania not only wished this same Bokowina but also all Hungarian territory as far as the Theiss."

The Chancellor added that in spite of this failure Rumania's policy of neutrality favored the Entente more and more. He said Rumania attempted to collaborate with the British efforts to establish a blockade of Germany by withholding grain purchased by Germany until the grain was obtained by means of energetic pressure. The Premier again hesitated when the central powers, initiating the offensive in Galicia in the spring of last year, broke through the Russian line at Corlice, and was in doubt whether he had placed his wager on the right horse. Negotiations with the Entente were almost suspended.

RUSSIA.

"The Russian offensive this spring," the Chancellor continued, "made Premier Bratiano believe he saw the breaking down of the central powers. Accordingly he decided to obtain a share when the robbery of the dead body began. Furthermore the Entente powers had a freer hand in conducting negotiations than others.

"In the middle of August, Bratiano came to terms with our enemies. He reserved for himself however, the decision as to the time actual hostilities were to be inaugurated and attempted to make it dependent on military conditions. The King of Rumania up to that time had repeatedly given the most binding assurance that under all circumstances he would remain neutral. Finally the Rumanian minister in Berlin, on the order of the King, gave to me a formal declaration that the King desired to maintain Rumania's neutrality and that the government was in a position to do so. Premier Bratiano declared to the German Minister at Bucharest, Baron von Bussche-Haddenhausen, that he fully endorsed the declaration of the King.

"However, we were not deceived. We were informed continuously in regard to Bratiano's negotiations during August and constantly directed the King's attention to the secret intrigues of his Prime Minister. The King declared several times the Bratiano was (not) bound or

CECIL'S REPLY TO HOLLWEG.

British Minister Discusses the Chancellor's Speech.

Failure to Mention Belgium Thought Significant.

No Peace While Germany is Ruled by Militarism.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The address of the German Imperial Chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, in the Reichstag, is more remarkable for what it omitted than for what it said, according to Lord Robert Cecil, Minister of War Trade, who, in discussing the speech with the Associated Press today, declared the most significant fact in connection with the Chancellor's utterance was his failure to mention Belgium.

Lord Robert said:

"There is a very definite change in the tone of the speech over the previous efforts of the Chancellor. The talk of a complete German victory is entirely absent. Another remarkable thing was that there was not a word about Belgium. The significance of this is probably that he was unable to say anything about Belgium, as his listeners can be assumed to be the whole world and he was bound to offend a section of it if Belgium was mentioned. And, equally, he would offend his own people if he expressed a determination to give up that country.

CALLED OLD TRICK.

"Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg's denunciation of England contained nothing really new. It was merely the old trick of attempting to convince our allies that we are trading on their efforts and bleeding them to death in the process, but recent events on the Somme ought to convince him of his error. The idea that we want world supremacy is fantastic."

Discussing this phase of the Chancellor's speech Lord Robert declared:

"You will note that in this race for commercial supremacy England is the chief opponent to be feared, the United States being left out altogether."

"I note in the portion of the speech devoted to efforts for peace that my name is used, but I cannot understand his complaint. That Germany was once ready for peace means nothing, as, naturally, everybody is always ready for peace on his own terms. The Germans are ready, not for peace, but for a truce to enable them to prepare to enforce their own terms on the world. There will be no peace so long as Germany is content to be ruled by a military caste."

Discussing the reference in the Chancellor's speech to the death of the King of Rumania, the Minister of War Trade said:

"Of course, it is quite possible that the strain imposed by the war may have caused his death, as the King was an old man, but it is also quite possible that that theory of the cause of death may be based on Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg's imagination."

Lord Robert stated that he believed the German Imperial Chancellor was sincere in his declaration that Germany was waging war with every possible instrument. Continuing, he said:

"The lull in submarine warfare is due to a shortage in submarines. The only change I note is that no British passenger liner has been sunk since the Sussex.

"The number of submarine victims has been increased steadily in the last three months and our allies and neutrals have suffered virtually as much as we have."

RETIRE MILLIONS IN BONDS.

International Mercantile Marine Receivers May be Discharged.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The way was paved today for the discharge of the receivers for the International Mercantile Marine Company and the return of its management to security holders. Common and preferred stockholders approved at a special meeting in Hoboken, N. J., a reorganization plan which provides, among other important features, for the taking of $27,500,000 cash from the company's treasury to retire half the outstanding bonds, with new 6 per cent. bonds to replace the other half. The company has been in receivership since April, 1915.

During the receivership stock control of the company has been acquired by bankers connected with the National City Bank, who are believed to have bought a dominant interest in other large shipping properties, including the Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies and United Fruit companies.

Earnings of the International Mercantile Marine since the war have been enormous—so large as to wipe out virtually all obligations and leave a handsome surplus.

The new board of directors includes several representatives of the old-time Morgan and foreign interests, but these are in the minority as against the other members, who include Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank, and members of other large American financial institutions.

CLAFLIN REORGANIZATION.

Plan of Last December Declared Effective in New York.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Reorganization of the United Dry Goods Company and the Associated Merchants Company, of which John Claflin was president prior to the receivership of the H. B. Claflin Co., in June, 1914, was declared effective here today under the plan and agreement of December 28, 1915. More than 99 per cent. of all classes of stock of both companies has been deposited under the reorganization plan, it was announced. The Associated Dry Goods Corporation, a new company, which has acquired all the properties of the United Dry Goods Companies and the Associated Merchants' Company, has been formed under the laws of the State of Virginia, the two old companies having been dissolved under the laws of Delaware and Connecticut.

The failure of the H. B. Claflin Company resulted from the inability of the firm to meet maturing notes of its numerous subsidiaries, estimated at more than $30,000,000.

GOTHAM FERRYBOATS TIED UP BY A STRIKE.

Latest Union Labor Trouble has no Connection with the Traction Situation—Possibility of General Sympathetic Walkout Lessened by Report that the Brewery Workers Decide to Return to Jobs.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Ferryboats of the New York Central Railroad Company, plying between Manhattan and New Jersey, were tied up during the rush hours late today by a strike of 150 employees on the boats. The latest labor difficulty in this city resulted from the men's demand for shorter hours and higher pay. The strike has no connection, it was said, with the traction situation.

Thousands of commuters gathered at the two Manhattan ferry stations of the company, the crowds overflowing the ferry-houses into the streets, where a heavy rain was falling. Not until police reserves were called out did the commuters abandon their demand for boats. They left the city for their homes in New Jersey over roundabout routes.

Probability of a general sympathetic strike in aid of the traction employees who quit their places on September 6 lessened tonight with the announcement that a local brewery workers' union, whose 900 members struck in response to the call of the conference of labor leaders, had voted to return to work. Officials of the union issued a statement in which it was said developments proved that organized labor "will not act in concert in behalf of the car men."

Organization of subway and elevated road motormen will continue, according to a statement made today by L. G. Griffing, third assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, in charge of the work in this city.

Sixteen persons were injured, one seriously, in a rear end collision between two surface cars in the Bronx this afternoon. The motorman of the rear car jumped from his post, it is said, and disappeared.

Marked improvement in surface car traffic was reported today.

RUPPRECHT CONFIDENT DESPITE SOMME FIGHT.

Declares Germans are Prepared for Anything that may Ensue — Admits Entente Allies Have Gained Some Ground, but Predicts a Winter Campaign is Certain to Follow.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept 28, 11:30 a.m., (via London,) Sept. 29 (Delayed.)—The latest fighting on the Somme evidently has not shaken the confidence of German military leaders in their ability to prevent the breach of their line. The Berliner Tageblatt's special war correspondent interviewed Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, commander of the German forces on the Somme, Tuesday.

The Crown Prince is quoted as having said that since the offensive began the Entente allies had gained some ground, but there could be no thought of this decisively changing the situation.

"It is impossible to predict how things will go hereafter," said Prince Rupprecht, "but one thing is certain, namely, that we have everything so thoroughly prepared that we are able to keep the situation with equanimity, whatever comes. The offensive will certainly not reach an early end.

"We can reckon upon an offensive of great persistence and with heavy attacks, accompanied by an enormous expenditure of ammunition. But we have taken precautions. Our artillery has been reinforced and likewise our areoplane corps and our fliers have had fine successes in the last few days, although they have had hard fighting against increased numbers. Our artillery derives advantages from the successful work of the aeroplanes, after having formerly been much exposed to observation by hostile aviators.

"Our troops have been striking with the utmost strength and the enemy has found the nut too hard to crack. It is my distinct opinion that the enemy is trying to force a decision at this spot and during this year, and he has not yet succeeded. He will have to put up with a winter campaign and continue his fighting next year."

SUSPEND WORK FOR UNION VOTE

Coal Miners in Washington will Hold Referendum.

Operators' Counter Proposal will be Considered.

Firemen, Pumpmen, Others to Run Machinery.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Sept. 29.—Suspension of work tomorrow night by all coal miners in Washington belonging to the United Mine Workers of America, was ordered today by the district convention. The suspension was ordered to permit a referendum vote of the counter-proposition submitted by the operators to the miners' demand for a 5 per cent. flat wage increase.

Officials of district No. 10, which consists of the State of Washington, said 4700 miners and all of the coal mines except those at Renton and Bain, which are nonunion, would be affected by the order. Twenty coal companies are involved.

The referendum will be completed by 5 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon. If the miners vote to accept the operators' counter-proposal work will be resumed as soon as the vote is announced, which probably will be Thursday. If the proposal is rejected the men will remain out and a strike will be declared.

Instead of granting a flat increase of 5 per cent. as demanded by the United Mine Workers, the Washington Coal Operators' Association offered as a compromise increase equivalent to 5 per cent. for all miners working on day wages and 3 per cent. for mining coal on tonnage or measurement basis and for dead work.

During the suspension, firemen, pumpmen and such other workmen needed for the safe keeping of the mines will remain at work.

MRS. EDITH BEVERLY GUILTY OF MURDER.

WELLINGTON (Kan.) Sept. 29.—Mrs. Edith Effie Beverly, 24 years old, was found guilty in the District Court here today for the murder of her husband and her two children, Hazel, 6 years old, and Hobart, [illegible] years old, in Milan, Kan. The children were shot while asleep. Insanity was the defense offered.

Mrs. Beverly had been divorced from her husband.

SERBIANS RETAIN HIGHEST PEAK.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

SALONIKI, Sept. 29 (via London.)—Despite violent attacks by the Bulgarians, the Serbians still hold the highest peak of the Kaimakcalan ridge, says an official statement issued today by the Serbian War Office. The statement follows:

"On the night of September 27 the Bulgarians undertook four fierce attacks on the Serbian Drina division. All were repulsed with heavy losses. The highest peak of Kaimakcalan is still in Serbian hands.

"Serbian soldiers testify that the Bulgarians slaughtered all Serbian wounded taken by them in the Kaimakcalan battle."

NO TRADE WAR, SAYS JAPANESE.

Alarm Over Paris Conference is Deprecated.

Baron Sakatani is Honored in Washington.

Says Allies Most Friendly Toward America.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Baron Yoshira Sakatani, former Japanese Minister of Finance, who had charge of Japan's financial reconstruction after the Russian war, was formally presented to Secretary Lansing at the State Department this afternoon after a luncheon tendered him by Dr. James Brown Scott, secretary of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Tonight he was given a formal dinner by Tokichi Tanaka, the Japanese charge, who also invited several government officials particularly interested in financial matters. The baron will remain here over Sunday.

Baron Sakatani is en route to Japan from the recent economic conference at Paris looking to a commercial campaign after the war.

Baron Sakatani deprecated the alarm expressed by some American newspapers over the Paris economic conference, declaring the United States was regarded by the allies in a most friendly way and that no move would be made by them after the war which would be injurious to American trade. Any action taken, he said, would be entirely against the proposed German Middle Europe trade alliance.

The baron would not indicate what he expected Japan's attitude would be toward German trade in China after the war except to say that unfair German competition through imitations of Japanese goods would not be allowed.

FOR FRIENDLY RELATIONS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The appointment by the President or Congress of a commission to study the relations of America with Japan and China is advocated by a group of thirty American missionaries from China and Japan as the result of a conference held here. The meeting was arranged by the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship through the churches and by the Federal Council of Churches.

WILSON DEFENDS CHILD-LABOR LAW.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Secretary Wilson, a member of the board of three Cabinet members designated to draft regulations putting the new child labor law into effect, issued a statement tonight replying to assertions that the law could be evaded easily by holding products in storage for thirty days after their manufacture. Those who attacked the law, he said, failed to distinguish between producing plants and warehouses, which might be located under the same roof and still be distinct under the meaning of the provision barring from interstate commerce any product removed from a plant in which child labor had been employed within the thirty days previous.

He declared that any removal therefore of a commodity from the point where it was produced by child labor, even though it were stored a [illegible] away for thirty days or any other period, would make it forever unacceptable in interstate commerce.

"If the slaughter of the youth of France and Russia really affects Germany to tears, it is curious that she never though of ending the carnage when she was in a position of undoubted advantage."

The Standard concludes with the remark that neutrals must now be told with the utmost politeness, or course, that terms of peace are no concern of theirs.

The Westminster Gazette says: "There is nothing for it but continuance of the war until Germany is definitely and decisively defeated."

DISCUSSION DENIED.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 10:42 p.m.—After the speech of the German Imperial Chancellor in the Reichstag Thursday, says a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam, George Ledebour, leader of the Socialist minority, strongly urged an immediate discussion of his utterances. The motion, however, was rejected.

Herr Ledebour, the dispatch adds, protested that a delay would cause the policy of the government to be judged still more unfavorably by the public and would give the impression that the Chancellor's words had been dictated by embarrassment and that he had been unable to say what was necessary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. — So many contributions for relief of European war sufferers have become known since the Carnegie peace foundation last week reported the total American contributions at nearly $29,000,000 that the Red Cross has ordered a new compilation, which will be made immediately. It would create no surprise here if the total should be found to be double that reported by the Carnegie foundation, which included no funds contributed since March 1.

MAY DENY ADMISSION TO BRITISH SPIRITS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—American importers of spirits from Great Britain were notified today by the Department of Agriculture that after December shipments offered for entry to this country will be refused admission unless accompanied by a certificate from the British excise authorities that the goods meet the requirements of the English immature spirits (restriction) act of 1915. This act provides that no British or foreign spirits shall be delivered for home consumption unless they have been warehoused for a period of at least three years.

The new regulations, authority for which is given by the Pure Food and Drug Act, make an exception of spirits imported from Geneva, perfumed spirits, foreign liquors and spirits intended for use by scientists, manufacturing chemists and perfumers.

Arrangements for granting of certificates resulted from negotiations between the State Department and the British Foreign Office.

WOMEN ASK AN EMBARGO ON WHEAT AND FLOUR.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Resolutions asking an embargo on wheat and flour were adopted today at a meeting of club women, most of whom defended bakers here for raising the price of bread. The increase, they declared, was justified by war exports, crop shortage and added manufacturing expenses due to improved sanitary conditions.

Federal officials who are inquiring whether there was any illegal agreement among the bakers to raise prices, call attention to the fact that bread from American flour is selling cheaper in London, Trieste, Lyons, Havre and other cities than in the United States. That refutes the assertions that the war demand has justified higher prices, Joseph Fleming, assistant United States district attorney, said.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER NOW A BILLIONAIRE.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—John D. Rockefeller has become the world's first billionaire.

When the Supreme Court of the United States, May 15, 1911, ordered the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey to dissolve, the stock of that corporation, which included thirty-three other companies, sold at $675. Yesterday Standard Oil of New Jersey, separated from all its subsidiaries for four years by that court decree, sold at $567 a share. Taken together with one share each of the thirty-three companies from which it was separated, a collection of shares representing one share of the old Standard Oil of New Jersey was rated at yesterday's curb prices at $2014.

Mr. Rockefeller's S. O. stock alone without holdings in railroad and bank shares and in national, State and municipal bonds, including $10,000,000 of the 1915 Anglo-French loan, stands him in $498,864,036.44 and in addition to this he is understood to own a large part of the stock of the United States Steel Corporation. Financial authorities have no hesitation in saying that Standard Oil's latest rise has put him easily into the billionaire class.

MINT MELTING ALLIES' GOLD.

Four Hundred Millions may Come to United States.

P. W. Goebel is President of Bankers' Association.

Fight Started on Plan for Branch Institutions.

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Sept. 29.—Gold imports from Europe and Canada that yet may be expected to come into the United States were placed at $400,000,000 by F. J. H. von Engelken, director of the mint at Washington, who spoke here today at the closing session of the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association.

"We are melting up and turning into American money millions of dollars of English sovereigns and French 20-franc pieces," the director declared.

Minting of small pieces of money, he said, had more than doubled within the last year. This was said to indicate the increased spending capacity of the country.

GOEBEL ELECTED.

The annual election of officers resulted in the election of P. W. Goebel of Kansas City, Kan., from the vice-presidency to the presidency, succeeding James K. Lynch of San Francisco. C. A. Hinsch of Cincinnati was named vice-president. Oliver J. Sands of Richmond, Va., was re-elected chairman of the Insurance Committee and Frederick E. Farnsworth of New York and E. M. Wing of La Cross, Wis., were re-elected general secretary and treasurer of the Executive Committee.

The final general conference of the association was marked by the passage of a resolution for the reduction of reserves of country banks from 12 to 10 per cent. of their capital. The subject of Congressional authorization of branch domestic banks brought the first real fight of the convention. Resolutions were adopted against the branch bank plan.

AGAINST BRANCH BANK.

"The branch bank means the death knell of the individual bank," ex-Gov. J. W. Bailey of Kansas declared. James K. Lynch of San Francisco said, after the vote had been taken, that the action went "directly against good, sound banking principles."

The resolution presented by George E. Webb of San Angelo, Tex., asking Congressional inquiry of the live-stock industry was withdrawn without action.

Agricultural development of the United States, designed to inculcate ideas of crop diversification, road construction, county farm demonstration work and the upbuilding of rural communities was discussed.

Speakers urged the banker visitors to aid in the better farming campaign and plans were made to continue the work in which the association's agricultural commission has been engaged for five years.

"Agricultural development means not only more profits for the farmer, the banker and the business man," B. F. Harris of Champaign, Ill., said. "It means, as well, arousing and inspiring a militant citizenship."

SCORES WILSON.

The speaker was resigning the chairmanship of the agricultural commission and continued his talk on militant citizenship with an attack upon the methods by which the recent threatened railroad strike was averted. The actions of Congress and President Wilson were characterized as "appalling cowardice."

The 1917 convention of the American Bankers' Association will be held at Atlantic City, N. J., if the Executive Committee of the association adopts the recommendation made here today by the general convention.

"Heavy exports of gold from this country to Europe may follow the close of the European war," said Paul M. Warburg, vice-governor of the Federal Reserve Board.

"Foreign loans in the Old and New World may attract our capital at interest rates far in excess of our own," he said. "Our exports will have to meet the keen competition of other nations, while the purchasing power of many nations will be found materially reduced, even though in the beginning there will be a strong demand for certain of our raw materials.

MAY CAUSE EXPORTS.

"These conditions, in the long run, may be the cause of heavy gold exports from the United States, and if we remain unprepared, may prove a serious check. If, on the other hand, we forearm, we will be given the opportunity of taking our place as the strongest of the world's backers and furnished the basis of a solid expansion of our business."

Mr. Warburg appealed to the bankers to "forearm" by increasing their balances with the Federal reserve banks and releasing some of the gold in their vaults.

RAILWAY TARIFFS ARE SUSPENDED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Tariffs of railroads in the Middle West and East proposing increases of 7 and 8 cents per hundred pounds on iron and steel articles from Chicago, Pittsburgh and other points to the Atlantic seaboard and to Gulf ports for export, were suspended today by the Interstate Commerce Commission until January 29, pending investigation.

SALVAGE WORK ON THE MEMPHIS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The transport Hancock will leave Santo Domingo Sunday for the United States with about 300 members of the crew of the wrecked cruiser Memphis, officers of the Court of Inquiry, who have investigated the disaster, with guns and other valuable equipment which have been salvaged. Salvage work is continuing.

Spring.

Spring is looked upon by many as the most delightful season of the year, but this cannot be said of the rheumatic. The cold and damp weather brings on rheumatic pains which are anything but pleasant. They can be relieved, however, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment.—[Advertisement.

Allies are Stalled.

binding himself to the Entente. As late as three days before the declaration of war, the King said to our minister that he knew the overwhelming majority of the Rumanian nation did not desire war. To an intimate friend the King declared on the same day in the most categorical fashion that he would not sign an order for mobilization.

"On August 26, the day preceding Rumania's declaration of war, the King said to the Austro-Hungarian Minister that he did not wish war. I add in passing that Bratiano at the same time assured the Austro-Hungarian representative that he had decided to maintain neutraliay and that the outcome of the session of the Crown Council, which had been called for the following day, would prove the truth of his words.

"As late as August 23 the Entente powers had not decided at what moment Rumania ought to declare war. We knew this from a most reliable source. The Rumanian army still lacked preparedness and particularly lacked munitions, as was proved later at the time of the fall of Turtukui and Silistria.

"Then events were precipitated. From information which may be considered reliable, it appears that Russia suddenly presented an ultimatum that she would cross the unprotected Rumanian frontier if Rumania did not begin war before August 28. Whether this ultimatum was a piece of comedy, prearranged with Bratiano, in order to influence the hesitating King, I leave undecided, but the die was cast.

"M. Briand (Premier of France) in his latest discourse, praised the beauty and loveliness of Rumania's procedure. Political conditions of such a nature that orders of kings and ministers amount to nothing show the doubleful value of those ideals of liberty, justice and civilization for which the Entente pretends that it fights. Since the beginning of the world war, Rumania has followed a policy of piracy, depending upon the general war situation. Rumania's military capitulation will prove as mistaken as her political capitulation to her Entente friends, which already has been proved to have been wrong. They must have hoped earnestly that Rumania's participation in the war would cause the defection of Bulgaria and Turkey, but Turkey and Bulgaria are not the same as Rumania and Italy. Firm and inviolable stands their faithfulness as allies and they have won glorious victories in Dobrudja."

QUESTION OF DEFENSE.

The Chancellor insisted that from the beginning the war had been for Germany, "nothing but defense of our right to life and liberty," and said that therefore, Germany, the first and only one of all the belligerents, had declared the readiness for peace negotiations on December 9, 1915, and on several occasions subsequently.

"We did our duty," he continued. "Does any one dare ask that today we make proposals to our enemies, in as much as M. Briand, a short time ago, said that consideration of peace now would be a humiliation and a disgrace to the memory of the dead?

"They continue the war because they hope to attain their Utopian aims. Their lust of conquest persists, if the mountains of corpses tower higher every day.

"The French Prime Minister said in one of his latest speeches that France is fighting for a firm and lasting peace in which the dreedom of nationalities will be protected by international agreements against all attacks. We, too, desire this. We wish to protect Germany forever against every attack. But does M. Briand—united with our enemies even before the war in an alliance of French thirst for revenge, Russian lust of conquest and the British policy of isolating Germany and dominating the whole world, an alliance that desires to annihilate attempts to boycott and shapes its entire policy, not only for the period of the war but for the time after the war—does M. Briand believe that this prepares soil from which could grow international agreements granting to nations liberty, honor, dignity and peaceful collaboration for the sake of humanity and progress?"

The Chancellor then protested against reports that the German Emperor in the past had used his influence with the Russian Emperor in order to impede Russia's evolution toward liberty.

"This report is untrue, as I state publicly in this place," he said. "What we desire from other nations, no matter whether they live in this or that form of state, is that German rights and interests shall be inviolable."

AUSTRIANS ACTIVE IN ADIGE VALLEY.

ROME, Sept. 29 (via London.)—"In the Adige Valley the activity of the enemy's artillery and infantry detachments is increasing," says the statement from the War Office today.

"Yesterday afternoon enemy forces attempted a strong surprise attack against our advanced position north of the Gardinal, at the head of the Vanoi Cismon Valley. They were driven back, as was an attack by Kaiserjaeger detachments against our positions at Punta del Forame."

DENIED GERARD COMES TO TALK SUBMARINES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LONG BRANCH (N. J.) Sept. 29. In connection with international questions, an authoritative denial was made here today to statements that James W. Gerard, American Ambassador to Germany, is coming here to discuss reports that Germany is about to renew submarine attacks on merchant vessels. It was said here that Mr. Gerard was returning to the United States only because he greatly needed a rest.

RUSSIAN CRUISER BOMBARDS MANGALIA

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

SOFIA, Thursday, Sept. 28 (via London, Sept. 29.)—The following official statement was issued today:

"Along the Danube there was calm. At Orchowe we shot down an enemy aeroplane.

"On the Black Sea a Russian cruiser bombarded Mangalia for eighty minutes. There were no casualties.

"Our aeroplanes successfully attacked two enemy destroyers at Tulza and at Tuzladschakoi."

WIZARD FORT BUILDER DUE.

Capt. Archer Coming Here to Work at Harbor.

Record at Fort Rosecrans is Marvel of Army.

Two-year Job is Finished in Eight Months.

BY HARRY CARR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 29.—Having achieved a wonderful record in fort building at San Diego, Capt. A. H. Acher of the Corps of Engineers of the army will leave Sunday for San Pedro to take charge of the construction work at Fort McArthur, under Maj. Pillsbury.

His work in constructing the new mortar batteries at Fort Rosecrans probably never has been exceeded for speed of execution. Starting with a rough hillside near Point Loma eight months ago, Capt. Acher is leaving behind him a complete concrete fort with gun pits for eight mortars. About two years would have been a reasonable time allowed for the construction of the new fort.

Although a man in the early thirties, this is the twenty-third fort that Capt. Acher has built. Twenty-one of them are at Panama.

On account of his thorough training, he will be a great help to Maj. Pillsbury on the works at San Pedro. Before going into the army, Capt. Acher worked his way through college and, during his vacation, wielded pick and shovel. Consequently, he knows whether the men on government jobs are doing their best.

AWAITING MORTARS.

The mortars for the new battery at Fort Rosecrans have not yet arrived but are expected any day. They will practically complete the defenses of San Diego bay.

In addition to these mortars, Fort Rosecrans has a battery of four ten-inch disappearing guns. At the time of their installation, ten years ago, they were adequate. They ought to be replaced now with guns of higher range. Modern warships outshoot them by several miles. Later, there are to be constructed several water batteries on Point Loma for the protection of the sloping shoreline near the light house. These guns are intended as a protection against parties landing by night. There also will be an increase in the battery of rapid-fire guns which protect the mine fields at the entrance to the bay.

SHOULD CLOSE DRIVE.

The chief improvement now needed in the defenses of San Diego bay is an order closing to civilians the famous Point Loma drive. The existence of this road is a peril. From it, one can look down onto all the batteries and detect the location of the fire-control stations which are the heart of the defenses. Some time ago, a foreigner with a camera was discovered taking photographs of the defenses from this road. The army officers have been pleading for a long time with the government to close the road but political pressure has been too strong the other way.

The new fort will be no protection to the city of San Diego—only to the harbor anchorage. It would not prevent an enemy's taking San Diego from the landside.

RAILWAY MANAGER, CALLED NEGRO, SUES.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29.—Frank H. Joubert, general manager of the Municipal Public Belt Railroad, today filed criminal libel charges against forty-three employees of the road who recently petitioned city officials to remove Joubert, alleging he was of negro ancestry.

The action follows Joubert's criminal libel proceedings yesterday against former employees of the road who had filed mandamus suit to compel removal of Joubert's name from the rolls of white voters and against the recorder of births.

AEROPLANES BATTLE ON RUSSIAN FRONT.

PETROGRAD (via London) Sept. 29, 3:40 p.m.—An official statement issued today by the Russian War Department says:

"In the region of Boruny and Krevo, southwest of Smorgon, our aviators made a raid on points in the rear of the enemy's lines.

"During the raid an aerial fight took place, as the result of which four German aeroplanes were brought down. We lost two aeroplanes."

DOBRUDJA OUTRAGES ARE INVESTIGATED.

BERLIN, Sept. 29 (via Sayville.)—"According to the Bulgarian telegraphic agency," says an Overseas News Agency announcement today, "the United States charge d'affaires, William Marfield accompanied by several foreign correspondents, has made an investigation into the reported Rumanian atrocities in Dobrudja."

EXCHEQUER BONDS PROSPECTUS ISSUED.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Sept. 29, 4:35 p.m.—The prospectus of the new 6 per cent. exchequer bonds to be sold at par and redeemable in February, 1920, was issued tonight. Except for the higher rate of interest, which is payable every six months, the conditions are the same as those of previous issues.

The bonds and their interest are exempt from British taxation if held by persons neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom or Ireland.

The chief criticism of the new bonds comes from holders of the old stock, on which the yield is lower.

Germans Attack.

preparing the way for further progress. Although this position offered serious resistance, it did not present the difficulties of taking a fortified village. On the right wing the advance east of Les Boeufs today brings the British within striking distance of the Bethune road, where it passes through Sailly. Once the front here is advanced, the British will be on a line with the French around Rancourt, and the concerted drive can be resumed.

Bad weather set in again tonight and this may hamper operations for awhile. The French, after making progress between Fregicourt and Morval, were unable because of the mud to resume operations today, but the continued heavy artillery fire suggests that Foch will soon renew the attack.

BERLIN REPORTS.

BERLIN, Sept. 29 (via London, 5:05 p.m.)—The repulse of a strong British attack on the Somme front is reported in today's official announcement, which follows:

"After the sanguinary repulse of the enemy's attacks on Wednesday the battle of the Somme slackened considerably yesterday. A strong British attack between the Ancre and Courcelette was repulsed on the western wing in hand-to-hand fighting, with the loss of a small trench section. Northwest and north of Courcelette the attack broke down under our fire.

"A weak attack near Baucourt l'Abbaye also failed."

LONDON COMMUNICATION.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Sept. 29, 11:34 p.m.—East of Lesboeufs, on the Somme front, British troops have occupied 500 yards of German trenches, says the official statement issued by the British War Office tonight. There was heavy fighting near Thiepval.

The British were forced from a section of the "Hessian trench," but regained it later. The statement adds that more than 500 prisoners were taken in this fighting. The statement reads:

"Rain fell heavily today and, except for intermittent shelling, there was little activity on our center and right wing on the battle front. On the Somme progress was made east of Lesboeufs, where we occupied 500 yards of enemy trenches.

"In the Thiepval area there was heavy fighting around the Stuff redoubt. Having taken an important section of the Hessian trench we were forced out of it by a counter-attack, but regained it later in the day.

"In this section during the last twenty-four hours we have taken prisoner eight officers and 521 men.

"In spite of the weather our aeroplanes have done useful work, attacking the enemy's reinforcements on the Meuse. Yesterday enemy aircraft patrolled actively behind their own lines, but showed little enterprise. One enemy machine was destroyed. One of our machines has not returned."

THE WEATHER ELSEWHERE.

Middle West Cold, but East Continues Warm Despite Rains.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—Chicago's temperature dropped to 39 deg. last night, but warmed up to 51 deg. today. The cold wave was noticed over all the Middle West and the Ohio Valley, but the East, with two exceptions, continues warm, despite general rains. Frost did considerable damage in some Middle Western States and ice formed at a number of points. Eastern Canada continues warm, but western provinces report as low as 18 deg. Southern States were ten degrees colder than yesterday.

Temperatures elsewhere, as officially reported by the United States Weather Bureau, were as follows:

LE DUC COMMENDED.

Action in Upholding Wife's Honor Subject of Telegrams.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Joseph C. Le Duc of Chicago, wounded in the triple shooting at a hotel here Wednesday, was reported improved today.

Joseph C. Le Duc, the woman's husband, said he had received many telegrams commending him for the stand he had taken in upholding the honor of his wife.

Relatives of Mrs. Harry Belzer of New York, who shot Mrs. Le Duc, killed J. C. Graveur, also of New York, and then committed suicide, are still making efforts to prove that Mrs. Belzer was a woman of honor.

THREE ARE SHOT IN HOTEL FIGHT

Youth Runs Amuck at Noon Hour in Chicago.

Fashionables in Peacock Alley Witness Encounter.

Policeman and Detectives are Among the Wounded.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—Three men were shot and two injured today in a gun fight which started in the kitchen of the Congress Hotel, continued during a chase in an alley back of Michigan boulevard and ended in mid-air six stories above the ground on an open stairway on the Bosch Building, No. 533 South Wabash avenue.

Nearly fifty shots were fired. The affray took place when the boulevard was crowded. The shots were heard by many in the hotel lobby and in Peacock Alley and many rushed out and witnessed the end of the battle.

The wounded are: Angelo Karnellas, formerly a bus boy. He ran amuck and wounded the others.

William Sotoris, a bus boy. His skull was fractured when Karnellas hit him with a coffee urn.

Policeman Anthony Carlisle, mounted squad.

John Brock, Jr., house detective of the Congress.

Lawrence Patrick, fell while pursuing Karnellas.

ASKS REINSTATEMENT.

Karnellas was discharged from the hotel by Joseph Kopolorus two days ago and during the noon hour rush applied for reinstatement. It was refused and Sotoris, who was passing at the time, said something to Karnellas. Karnellas seized a heavy coffee urn and felled Sotoris, fracturing his skull by a blow with the urn. House Detective Brock was called and when Karnellas saw him approach he drew his revolver and dashed from the kitchen into the boiler-room, firing as he ran. One of the bullets struck Brock in the abdomen and he was forced to abandon the chase but he emptied his revolver at Karnellas, as the latter dashed into the alley between South Wabash avenue and South Michigan boulevard.

The sound of the shots summoned Carlisle, and Mounted Policeman James Garrett. They took up the chase, pursuing Karnellas to the Bosch Building. Patrick fell during the chase and fractured two ribs.

On reaching the rear of the building the fugitive dashed up an open stairway, reloading his revolver despite the fact that bullets from the policemen's automatics whizzed about his head and imbedded themselves in the staircase. The attacking party was reinforced by Policemen James Pyne and Frank Donovan and the shots sounded in more rapid succession. Karnellas continued his mad dash up the stairway, firing his revolver as he ran.

CARLISLE DROPS.

Carlisle dropped, one of the bullets striking him in the hip. He rolled down a few stairs and was caught by Policeman Pyne. Carlisle continued to fire, however, and a volley from the revolvers of the other policemen silenced Karnellas.

The policemen found him on the landing of the sixth floor with four bullet wounds in his face and abdomen.

LOCATES MAN BY A FAKE MESSAGE.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—A messenger boy with a telegram which he refused to give her today caused Mrs. Frank A. Warde to reveal the whereabouts of her husband, and he was arrested in Marshalltown, Iowa, charged with embezzling $1000 from his former employers here. Warde disappeared from Chicago September 18. The police sent a messenger to his home here today with instructions not to deliver the message, and when the boy came back he had learned that Warde was employed in Marshalltown.

George B. Kerr, the Chicago agent of the firm by whom Warde was employed, said the amount missing was more than $15,000.

CINCO CIGARS

Now Five Cents Straight.

Owing to the increased cost of production, the manufacturers of CINCO Cigars, OTTO EISENLOHR & BROS., INCORPORATED, have advanced their selling price to the dealers, and, in future, this cigar will be sold to the consumer absolutely at five cents straight, instead of six for a quarter, as heretofore.

The CINCO Cigar has attained a national reputation, and, through the maintenance of a high standard of quality, has become the largest seller in the world, and the manufacturers deemed it advisable to advance the price rather than sacrifice its long-established high quality.

Newspaper Writer Pleads not Guilty on Advice of Attorney and Case Remains More or Less of a Mystery—Editor Also is Held.

THOMPSON FALLS (Mont.) Sept. 29.—The preliminary hearing of Miss Edith Colby, a newspaper woman, who fatally shot A. C. Thomas, chairman of the Republican Central Committee of Sanders county, yesterday, was continued until October 5, when she was taken into court late today. Thomas died in a hospital at Missoula after lingering almost twenty-four hours in such a condition that he could not make a statement.

An attorney from Spokane arrived here to defend Miss Colby, who pleaded not guilty when taken into court. She did not ask to be released on bail and was returned to jail. Thomas's body will be returned here from Missoula tomorrow for burial.

Miss Colby has stated that Thomas had made remarks that reflected on her character. J. Manire, editor of the newspaper that employed Miss Colby, also pleaded not guilty. The Sheriff said he was told by Miss Colby that Manire had advised her to kill Thomas, who was opposed politically to Manire.

Senator Edward Donlan of Missoula, a close friend of Thomas, said the affair is the result of a long political fight. According to Donlan, Thomas refused to introduce Miss Colby to a friend Wednesday night, saying she had lied about him. Yesterday she met Thomas on the street, according to Donlan, and demanded an apology. When he walked away she fired four shots from a revolver she had borrowed at a restaurant.

PHILADELPHIA (Miss.) Sept. 29.—When the jury trying Mrs. Ethel Winstead for complicity in the murder of her husband, a wealthy farmer and mill owner, returned a verdict of guilty today after forty-eight hours' deliberation, it told the court it could not agree on the punishment but wanted "the defendant to have all the favors the law will admit."

Informed by the court that in the absence of a jury recommendation life imprisonment was the minimum sentence the court could impose, two jurors stated they would not have agreed on a verdict had they been aware of that fact.

The prosecutor recommended letting the jury go back to agree on a penalty and attorneys for Mrs. Winstead filed motions for the annulment of the verdict.

MILLIONAIRE'S WIDOW ADMITS MARRYING.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Mathilda E. Wright, admitted today she was the wife of Martin C. Wright, son of William J. Wright, Tammany leader, a fact she heretofore had stoutly denied. Mrs. Wright, who was the widow of George H. Huber, nationally known as a dime museum owner, who left about $11,000,000, also admitted that her present husband was not able to provide for her in the manner to which she had been accustomed as Mrs. Huber.

Mrs. Wright applied to the Surrogate's Court today for an allowance of $150 a week out of the estate of her late husband. Surrogate Cohalan allowed her $100 a week.

Mrs. Wright is not quite 30. Mr. Huber was 70 when he died last June. About a month later Mrs. Huber left the city and then came news of her marriage to Wright and her denial.

George Huber Thomson, a foster son of Huber and a nephew of the present Mrs. Wright, is contesting a will made by Huber a week before his death, leaving most of his estate to his wife.

SACRAMENTO MAN HELD ON SUSPICION.

POLICE INVESTIGATE CAUSE OF AUNT'S DEATH.

Woman Succumbed to Poisoning and Considerable Sum of Money Known to Have been in Her Possession is Found on Her Nephew.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

QUINCY (Ill.) Sept. 29.—Henry M. Van Alstine of Sacramento, Cal., is being held by the police pending an investigation into the cause of the death here today of his aunt, Mrs. Mamie A. Van Alstine. Mrs. Emma L. Schoendienst of Chicago, a sister of the dead woman, also was held, but later released.

Van Alstine is being held on a charge of theft, as a considerable amount of money his aunt had with her when she died was said to have been found in his possession. Mrs. Van Alstine died of poisoning. Immediately after her death was found a note in which was written:

"My sister and nephew are good to me and this is all my doings."

Mrs. Vera Quinn, a daughter, says the note is not the handwriting of her mother and further claims that Mrs. Schoendienst and Van Alstine tried to make her believe that she was not the daughter of the dead woman but had been taken from a foundlings' home when a baby.

The police have been unable to obtain any evidence that Mrs. Van Alstine did not commit suicide.

VAN ALSTINE'S RECORD.

SACRAMENTO (Cal.) Sept. 29.—Henry M. Van Alstine, who is being held by the Quincy (Ill.) police on a charge of theft, is the son of C. P. Van Alstine, who lives in North Sacramento, but the young man has lived in Portland, Or., for some years with a sister.

"Mrs. Mamie Van Alstine," said the father tonight, "was the widow of my brother, who died in the spring of this year. She grieved deeply over his loss and decided to leave Quincy and make her home in this city. She sent the transportation to my son, who left Portland for Quincy with the intention of accompanying her on her way to Sacramento.

"A letter received from him dated September 21 stated that his aunt felt much more cheerful. The next word I received from him was a telegram telling of her suicide. Since that no message has been received.

"As for her money being found on his person, nothing could be more natural, as he would make all the arrangements for her journey to Sacramento."

Van Alstine scouts the theory of foul play.

SOFT PEDAL ENTENTE OF TAFT, ROOSEVELT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—No campaign buttons collectively bearing pictures of Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft and Charles E. Hughes will be worn by guests at the Union League Club reception in honor of the Republican Presidential candidate next Tuesday evening, it was learned tonight.

Friends of Mr. Roosevelt have intimated to Chairman W. R. Willcox that undue emphasis has been placed upon the fact that the colonel and Mr. Taft will meet at the reception for the first time in the field of politics since the Progressive party was born in 1912.

The suggestion has been made to the committee arranging the reception that the real purpose of the gathering is to permit Republicans to pay their respects to the party's standard bearer in the present campaign and not to provide occasion for a reconciliation between Col. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft.

The colonel is an honorary member of the Union League Club and accepted the invitation to the reception because it is to be given in honor of Mr. Hughes, it was explained. While he will shake hands with Mr. Taft, it will be the same manner of greeting as was extended when the two met a year ago at the funeral of Prof. Lounsberry at New Haven.

Mr. Roosevelt declared today that "five-sixths of the Progressives are for Hughes" and predicted the election of the Republican candidate.

BELIEVE ROBBER OF ANGELENO CAPTURED.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—A chase on crowded South State street today followed a time of excitement in the lobby of the Great Northern Hotel. The capture of a fleeing man by a detective, and the hustling of the captured man to detective headquarters, created a furore and revealed for the first time the story of a daring hold-up Wednesday night in the Loop district.

The man who was chased and captured today gave the name of Frank Tobin. He is believed to be one of two men who held up and beat Philo R. Greene, Los Angeles business man and inventor, in an alley Wednesday night. Greene was on his way to Detroit with a new patent for an automobile. He was robbed of $265 and badly kicked.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A formal offer by Jacob Henkel to marry Miss Anna Kuhnel, who has brought a $50,000 breach-of-promise suit against him, is believed to be the first document of its kind ever recorded in New York county. Henkel is a consulting engineer for a publishing concern, and Miss Kuhnel was his housekeeper.

WILSON SPURNS "DISLOYAL" VOTE.

DENOUNCES PRESIDENT OF TRUTH SOCIETY.

Jeremiah A. O'Leary is Told Executive Wants Nothing from the Ilk He Represents and Hopes He will Spread Information Among His Co-laborers.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LONG BRANCH (N. J.) Sept. 29.—President Wilson made it plain tonight that he wants no "disloyal" American to vote for him. He expressed indignation over a telegram from Jeremiah A. O'Leary of New York, president of the American Truth Society, accusing him of being pro-British and saying he had failed to obtain compliance with American rights.

The President sent Mr. O'Leary a short telegram which officials indicated Mr. Wilson had desired to put in stronger language. His message follows:

"Your telegram received. I would feel deeply mortified to have you or anybody like you vote for me. Since you have access to many disloyal Americans, and I have not, I will ask you to convey this message to them."

O'LEARY'S TELEGRAM.

Mr. O'Leary's telegram, given out tonight by the President, follows:

"Again we greet you with a popular disapproval of your pro-British policies. Last year from the Twenty-third New York Congress District, and now from your own State and from the voters of your party, Senator Martine won because the voters of New Jersey do not want any truckling to the British empire, nor do they approve of dictatorship over Congress.

"Your foreign policies, your failure to secure compliance with all American rights, your leniency with the British empire, your approval of war loans, the ammunition traffic, are issues in this campaign. Do you know that William S. Bennet, a Republican Congressman, ran in the Democratic primaries in the Twenty-third New York Congress District and polled 36 per cent. of the total Democratic vote against his regular Democratic opponent? Anglomaniacs and British interest may control newspapers, but they don't control votes. The people may be readers, but they are not followers of the newspapers.

"When, sir, will you respond to these evidences of popular disapproval of your policies by action? The Martine election and Bennet vote prove you have lost support among Democrats.

"Every vote for Martine was a vote against you, as was every Democratic vote that went for Mr. Bennet in the Democratic primaries in the Twenty-third Congress District."

WILSON CAMPAIGN PLAN.

The President's attitude toward the campaign and toward some of the issues before the country was made known here today. It was learned that in his speech at Shadow Lawn tomorrow and in subsequent addresses he intends to state definitely why he seeks another term.

Following is an authoritative summary of his campaign attitude:

The President will adhere strictly to his determination not to enter into personalities or into a political controversy with Charles E. Hughes. All the speeches he will make away from Shadow Lawn will be delivered to nonpartisan organizations and will be devoted entirely to a discussion of public questions. By inference they will have a political effect.

His speeches here, however, will be more political in tone. Tomorrow he will tell why he thinks young men should vote the Democratic ticket.

ITALY FAVORS A GERMAN-AMERICAN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Italian government has consented, after much delay and negotiation, to guarantee safe conduct and residence in Rome during the remainder of the war to Carl P. Jennewein, a naturalized American who was born in Stuttgart, Germany. Jennewein is a member of the Seventh Regiment of the New York National Guard. Before he went to the Mexican border with his regiment he received notice that he had won a $3000 scholarship from the American Academy in Rome for a piece of sculpture in a competition at the National Academy of Design in this city.

COAL PRICES WILL GO UP INSTEAD OF DOWN.

WILKESBARRE (Pa.) Sept. 29.—Anthacite operators, testifying before the State commission created by the Pennsylvania Legislature to investigate the cause of higher cost of coal to consumers, declared today that instead of preparing to lower the prices they expect there soon will be a substantial increase.

Witnesses agreed that the wage contract entered into by the mine workers and operators last spring, and the workmen's compensation law, which went into effect this year in Pennsylvania, are the principal causes for the increased cost of coal.

I.W.W. LEADERS FREED AT SCRANTON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SCRANTON (Pa.) Sept. 29.—Thirteen alleged leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World, the last of the 267 caught in the raid at Old Forge two weeks ago, were released today after Dist.-Atty. Maxey had informed the court that there was no evidence to hold them on charges of rioting or unlawful assembly. All were held in $1000 bail each, but released on their own recognizance.

Nomination.

GIVES BENEDICT A CERTIFICATE.

Court Holds He Can Run on Progressive Ticket.

Supreme Judges' Opinion is Practically Unanimous.

Important Ruling Affects Los Angeles Man.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—By a practically unanimous opinion of the State Supreme Court, rendered today in the case of Henry Stanley Benedict, it was held that Benedict, who was defeated as a candidate for nomination of the Republican party as Congressman from the Tenth Congressional district, is entitled to a certificate of nomination as Progressive candidate. Benedict's Progressive friends wrote his name as nominee on their ballots.

The matter came before the court on a petition for a writ of mandate filed by David C. Narver. Narver asked that the writ direct the Secretary of State to omit the name of a Progressive candidate in the Tenth District from his list of those entitled to certificate of nomination for the coming general election.

CLAIM OF PETITION.

The petition claimed that by virtue of certain provisions of the primary act of 1913, Benedict was ineligible to be the Progressive nominee. The point relied upon in the petition was that the fact that he was defeated for the Republican nomination brought him squarely within the language of subdivision No. 8, of section No. 5 of the primary act, which states "nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the independent nomination of candidates as provided by Section No. 1188 of the Political Code except that a candidate who has filed nomination papers as one of the candidates for nomination to any office in the ballots of any political party at a primary election held under the provisions of this act, and who is defeated for such party nomination at such primary election shall be ineligible for nomination to the same office at the ensuing general election, either as an independent candidate or as the candidate of any other party."

The court holds that everything hinges on the word, "except." If the words commencing with "except" be construed as an independent provision, the petitioner would have won. But the court holds that these words are merely an exception to and a limitation of the preceding language guaranteeing the right, for otherwise, the court says a nominee of four political parties who fails to get sufficient votes in one, although nominated by the other three, still would be ineligible to run as nominee of the three that nominated him.

FROM THE OPINION.

The court holds to the opinion that the words referred to were simply copied into the act of 1913 from the old law without consideration of any question of their necessity, in view of the changes otherwise made.

"In other words," says the opinion, "the provision, as a whole, is simply a declaration that nothing in the act shall be construed as prohibiting the independent nomination of candidates subsequent to or in lieu of any primary election as provided in section No. 1188 of the Political Code except that no candidate defeated for a party nomination for such office at the primary may be so nominated."

The opinion was written by Chief Justice Angellotti and was concurred in by all the other justices except Associate Justice Sloss, who did not participate because he did not hear the argument.

ROWELL TO BOSS STATE CAMPAIGN.

FRESNO MAN TO BE CHAIRMAN OF CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Executive Body of Fifty Members, Thirty for North and Twenty for South, to be Named. Raymond Benjamin, the Chief Deputy Attorney-General, Head.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—Chester H. Rowell of Fresno will be chairman of the new Republican State Central Committee as the result of a conference held tonight at the Monadnock Building among the leaders who have taken control since the Republican State convention at Sacramento. The important post of chairman of the Executive Committee, to be composed of fifty members, will fall to Raymond Benjamin, chief deputy Attorney-General. This committee will be divided into two parts, one of thirty members to handle the State north of the Tehachepi and the other of twenty members to take charge of the campaign in the southern tier of counties.

General direction of the national and the State campaigns through the Executive Committee will fall to Benjamin.

The new State Central Committee will meet at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at the St. Francis Hotel to organize and prepare for the contest.

The conference tonight was for the purpose of getting a general outline of the work, so that there may be no delay.

It was announced that there would be concerted action between the State Republican headquarters and those of Gov. Johnson in an effort to pile up a large vote for Hughes and Fairbanks and the Republican ticket generally.

In this connection the organization of Republican clubs will be forwarded throughout the State.

UKIAH BELLE WEDS MILLIONAIRE TODAY.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—Coming as a complete surprise to San Francisco society is the announcement of the wedding of W. P. Fuller, millionaire head of the paint firm that bears his name, and Miss Ora Hargis of Ukiah.

Miss Hargis, accompanied by her mother, came to this city recently, intending to sail for the Orient next Monday, but when she saw Fuller and listened to his earnest plea she could no longer withhold and consented to become his wife.

The marriage will take place tomorrow at 5 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. James E. Morton. The Rev. William Wagner of Los Angeles will perform the ceremony.

Miss Hargis is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Hargis of Ukiah. Fuller, who is almost twice the senior of Miss Hargis, was divorced from his wife in 1909.

Their son, W. P. Fuller, Jr., in 1911 married Miss Adelene Wright of Pasadena.

WIFE COST JOB, SAYS MUSICIAN.

OREGON CITY (Or.) Sept. 29.—From leader of the choir at the great Metropolitan Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., and conductor of a conservatory of music in the same city, to a man who cannot keep a position, is the retrogression of J. D. McFall in a short ten years, according to evidence brought out here before Circuit Judge Bagley in McFall's suit for divorce from Flora H. McFall.

Mr. McFall took the stand in his own behalf and testified that he had lost his important church position and the musical conservatory through the activities of his wife, and when he signed a contract with a Chautauqua company she wrote anonymous letters to the management and he was discharged.

The couple separated in 1905 and she went to Cleveland, O. He came west to Wallace, Idaho, and filed suit for divorce. The case was dismissed and he came to Oregon.

Judge Bagley took the case under advisement.

FREIGHT EMBARGO FROM PACIFIC.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—An embargo on all commodities except copper bullion sent from Pacific Coast points to New York by rail and water through Galveston, Tex., will become effective on Southern Pacific lines tonight at midnight, according to an announcement from the railroad offices here today. Congestion of freight on Galveston and New York docks was given as the reason.

SAFEGUARD LIVES OF EMPLOYEES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Fifty-eight orders were issued by the State Railroad Commission here today directing practically every light, power and telephone company in California to follow the statutes and standardize their transmission systems to safeguard the lives and limbs of their employees.

Approximately $750,000 must be spent to comply with the ruling, power company officials estimated. The work must be completed by June 3, 1919.

MAN ACQUITTED OF DELINQUENCY.

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 29.—Robert H. Hambley, prominent local undertaker, who, with Rev. Amvi Curtis Wright of Ramona, was charged with wronging Barbara Beardsley, aged 14, was acquitted this evening by the jury on the first ballot. The jury was out but fourteen minutes. Hambley denied that he was at the home of Mrs. Helen Edwards on July 10, the day fixed by the girl for the occurance at the Edwards residence.

Mrs. Hambley testified that her husband was on the way with her from Los Angeles to San Diego on that date. As an alibi for Hambley on July 15, the second date given, he and other witnesses testified he was at the Edwards home but twenty minutes and that he attended the meeting of the New York State Society on that date.

E. Hackett, a teacher, testified that the reputation of Barbara for veracity was bad among the roomers at the Selbert apartments.

A. J. Morganstern was attorney for the defense and District Attorney S. C. Marsh conducted the case for the people. Rev. Mr. Wright will be tried in November.

CHESS PLAYER CANNOT BE FOUND.

SLAYERS OF TADDY TIN ACQUITTED AT PRESCOTT.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Sept. 29.—A verdict of not guilty was returned tonight by a jury in the United States District Court here in the murder trial of Ashley Wilson, E. Nash and D. M. Robertson, employees of the Western Navajo Indian Reservation, in northeastern Arizona, for the shooting last January of Taddy Tin on the reservation. The shooting almost caused an uprising of the Navajos.

The defense introduced evidence to show that Tin drew a revolver and resisted when the three men went to serve a warrant for his arrest on a charge of stealing horses from the Hopi Indians. During the strug with the Indian, three shots fired, the third bullet killing

VILLA BANDITS ARE DESPERATE

Over Hundred Killed, Says Gen. Ramos's Report.

Mowed Down by Machine Guns at Cusihuiriachic.

Troops Ordered to Prevent Escape of Outlaws.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHIHUAHUA CITY (Mex.) Sept. [illegible] (via El Paso Junction, Sept. 29) —Additional details of the battle of Cusihuiriachic between the Carranza forces under Gen. Matias Ramos and Villa bandits has been received here from Gen. Ramos in the form of an official report of the fight.

The battle was in reality two engagements, one taking place on the outskirts of Cusihuiriachic and the other at a mountain settlement known as La Bufa. After fighting for five hours on the outskirts of Cusihuiriachic during which more than eighty Villistas were killed by rifle and machine gun fire, the bandits retreated to La Bufa, where, at dusk, they made another desperate stand against the de facto forces, according to the report of Gen. Ramos, who was wounded, to Gen. Trevino. At least twenty more Villa soldiers were killed there, the report states.

This report made by the Carranza commander reads:

"I arrived at Santa Isabel on the day following the fight which the Villistas had with Gen. Cavazos. Learning at Santa Isabel that the bandits were on the road to atack the mining camp of Cusihuiriachic, I started in pursuit of the bandits and at Canetas, my scouts received further information regarding the presence of the Villistas at Cusihuiriachic.

"Arriving on the outskirts of Cusihuiriachic, I was placing my men to advantage for an attack when the Villistas suddenly attempted a surprise attack upon our forces, charging our troops from the rocky hills surrounding the mining camp. I opened upon the charging columns with machine guns which did splendid execution. As fast as these guns would mow down the enemy, fresh troops would appear until the ground was covered with dead and wounded. We fought for five hours, finally dislodging the enemy from their rocky positions. As the bandits retreated we took up the pursuit, counting more than eighty dead on the ground as we passed over it.

"Reaching La Bufa, which is almost inaccessible, the bandits renewed the fight just as night was coming on. The fighting continued until after dark. I was wounded, and because of the nature of the country and the inability to continue the pursuit further into the night, I decided to return to my base at Santa Isabel.

"Our losses were comparatively light. One major, six minor officers and eight soldiers were killed and a number of my men were wounded, none of them seriously, however."

A number of prisoners were taken by the Carranzistas, according to the earlier reports of the fighting. One was Baudelio Uribe, a Villa leader who is charged with having started the practice of cutting off the ears of all Carranza prisoners captured.

Official reports do not give the date of the engagements.

GONZALES IS BACK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Sept. 29.—Gen. Francisco Gonzales, commander of the Carranza forces in Northern Mexico returned late last night from Casas Grandes, where he has been on an inspection trip. While there he despatched troops in all directions to prevent bandits from advancing northward toward the American expeditionary force.

Reports from the Galeana district brought to the border by Mexicans say the troops at Galeana, fifty miles southeast of Casas Grandes, had revolted and gone to join Villa. This garrison is said to be in command of Manuel Gutierrez, a former follower of Jose Ynez Salazar, an Orozco general who recently joined Villa at Chihuahua City. Felipe Perez, another commander in the Galeana district, is also reported to have taken a small force to join Villa. These reports are denied by Gen. Gonzales.

Lieut.-Col. W. C. Porterfield, of the First Infantry, New Mexico National Guard, was placed on trial before a court martial here today on a charge of illegal enlistment of men alleged to have been former jail prisoners. Lieut.-Col. Porterfield is defending himself on the ground that the men enlisted had previously been pardoned by Gov. W. C. McDonald and he only recommended them for enlistment subject to the action of the mustering officers.

TRIBUTE OF MRS. HUERTA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Sept. 29.—When Mrs. Victoriano Huerta goes to El Paso in a few days to place a wreath on the grave of her late husband, who died in exile, she will take steps to obtain $20,000 which was provided by the former President of Mexico as bail when he was in custody there, friends here said tonight. The charge of complicity to violate the neutrality of the United States brought against Huerta has been dismissed but no steps were taken to have bail returned. It is said to be in an El Paso bank.

BLANCO IS SENTENCED.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 29.—Gen. Lucio Blanco has been sentenced to five years and nine months imprisonment on a technical charge of disobedience of military orders and usurpation of authority.

Gen. Blanco at one time was alleged to have the support of certain interests in Texas as a candidate for the provisional Presidency of Mexico. He joined the Villa forces early in 1915 and was captured by Gen. Obregon in September of that year.

SKIRMISH AT YSLETA.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Gen. Funston advised the War Department today that a band of thirty armed Mexicans crossed into American territory yesterday near Ysleta, Tex., but retreated across the Rio Grande without firing, immediately their presence was discovered. The Mexicans belonged to the command of Col. Revel, a Carranza officer who with other de facto officials has assured Gen. Bell that the incident will not be repeated. The Mexicans all retreated across the river so hurriedly that one left a Mauser carbine with a gun sling marked "K, Tenth Cavalry," the command attacked by Carranza troops at Carrizal.

HUGHES IN EMPIRE STATE SPEAKS IN FOUR CITIES.

Repeats His Views on Protective Tariff and American Rights — Calder and Bacon Accompany Him on His Trip—Aims to Promote the Just Interests of the Laboring Classes.

CORNELL (N. Y.) Sept. 29.—Charles E. Hughes went through the southern tier of counties in New York State today over his political battle ground of ten years ago. He spoke in four cities and greeted with handshakes or a few words, ten other audiences in small towns.

Mr. Hughes repeated his views on the protective tariff, the maintenance of American rights and other issues of the campaign. In his speech at Binghamton and again at Elmira and Corning, the nominee went further than he had gone before in making known his views on the eight-hour day.

"I am not opposed to the principle of the eight-hour day," Mr. Hughes said. "I favor the general principle of the eight-hour day. I should like to see an eight-hour work day."

The nominee was accompanied by William M. Calder and Robert Bacon, successful and defeated candidates for the Republican Senatorial nomination.

Mr. Hughes was fatigued by the trip. He reached Cornell so tired of body and voice that he had a local speaker address the audience in the operahouse here tonight in his place. The hominee spoke a few words only after his substitute had closed.

The second campaign trip will end at Buffalo tomorrow.

"Continuously during my terms of executive responsibility in this State," Mr. Hughes said in his address here tonight, "I thought to promote the just interests of labor, and recommended every practicable measure to that end. It is true I did not always agree with the measures that were proposed, I will admit that cheerfully, and I may state further that what I did in connection with my duty as Governor, involved a principle which I should continue to apply if I were invested with executive responsibility. As Governor, I examined the proposals that were made as clearly as I knew how, and what I thought was right I favored and when I believed a measure was wrong, I did not attempt to gain votes by indorsing it."

AT BINGHAMTON.

BINGHAMTON (N. Y.) Sept. 29.—Charles E. Hughes motored over muddy streets to address an audience in the Operahouse here today.

The strenuous programme laid before him by the national chairman was vetoed by the nominee himself, who merely appeared on the rear platform of his car, so that the crowds might see him at stations between Saratoga and Binghamton. It had been arranged to have him speak at these stations, but at the last moment it was decided to have local speakers take his place so that he might conserve his voice.

Mr. Hughes spoke on the protective tariff. "I tell you, fellow citiens," he said, "we are facing a critical period. It is no time to be talking of a tariff for revenue only. We need protection to our industries and there is no man in the country today who can tell you where the Democratic party stands with respect to protection of American interests."

VILLA MORE MERCIFUL; HORSEWHIPS CAPTIVES.

EL PASO (Tex.) Sept. 29.—A message from a man employed at one of the mines near Cusihuiriachic, received at the local offices of the company, saying that he had left the mine, is interpreted here as meaning that Villa still retains control of the Cusihuiriachic district after his battle with the forces of Gen. Ramos. The man had strict instructions from his company not to leave the properties so long as protected by Carranza troops.

A story reached the border which gives Villa credit for tempering his treatment with mercy. Instead of killing them outright, as on former occasions, or cutting off their ears, he is said after the recent fight to have given his Carranza prisoners a sound horsewhipping and then turned them loose.

THIRTEEN VESSELS SUNK BY GERMAN SUBMARINE.

BERLIN, Sept. 29 (by wireless to Tuckerton, N. J.)—The following semi-official announcement was made here today:

"Eleven British fishing steamships were sunk by a German submarine in the North Sea, September 23. Four Belgian lighters were sunk in one day at the entrance to the English channel by another submarine.

"On September 27 a naval airship successfully attacked the aerial station at Lebara (on the Gulf of Riga) and the defense batteries on Oesel Island. Although the airship was shelled heavily it returned undamaged."

OTHER VESSELS LOST.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 1:49 p.m.—Lloyd's announces that the steamer Roddam has been sunk and that eleven members of the crew have been landed at Valencia.

The Norwegian steamer Vindeggen has been sunk by an Austrian submarine, according to a Reuter dispatch from Madrid. Twenty-four of the crew of the vessel have been landed at Las Dalmas, Canary Islands. The steamer Vindeggen measured 1628 tons net. She was last reported as leaving Spezta on August 31 for Tyne.

FORCES OF RUMANIANS HEADED FOR FRONTIER.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 29 (via London.)—Rumanian forces in the Hermannstadt sector of Transylvania have been driven back toward the Rumanian frontier the War Office announced today. On the Russian and Galician fronts there was no change of importance. The statement follows:

"The number of Russians captured Wednesday near Korytniza has increased to forty-one officers and more than 3000 men, while the amount of booty taken has increased to two cannon and thirty-three machine guns.

"Transylvanian front: The resistance of the enemy in the Hermannstadt sector has become weaker. Rumanian forces were driven back toward the mountains."

PROHIBITION ARGUED AS AN ECONOMIC ISSUE.

DENVER, Sept. 29.—A rousing meeting, bringing to an end the Prohibition State campaign, tonight closed the far western invasion of the dry campaigners who left Chicago two weeks ago for the Pacific Coast. The train will enter Kansas tomorrow and after a week's campaigning in the Middle West arrive in Chicago next Saturday night. Meetings were held today in Rawlins, Laramie and Cheyenne, Wyo., and Greeley and Denver.

Greeley, which was founded by the late Horace Greeley, and which had a dry provision written into its charter, and still carries a similar provision in all deeds to real estate, gave the speakers one of the best receptions of the present tour.

J. Frank Hanly, the Presidential candidate, argued for prohibition today as a great economic issue.

"If for no other reason than the fact that prohibition would mean money saving for this country, it would be a good thing," he said at Greeley. "It cost $1,600,000,000 to run the government last year, and during that time more than $2,000,000,000 was spent for liquor in the United States.

NEW YORK CERTAIN TO GO FOR HUGHES.

STATE CONVENTION'S OUTCOME GRATIFIES LEADERS.

Regulars and Progressives United on National and Senatorial Candidates While Democrats are in Danger of Disruption by Factional Differences.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 29.—Chairman Willcox and all members of the Republican National and State committees here are gratified at the outcome of the New York Republican State convention, the results, in their opinion, practically making the State certain for Republican national, State and Congressional tickets. The convention completed the process of harmonizing the Progressives and the Regulars by an equitable division of places on the electoral ticket. It gave Hughes an ovation which in enthusiasm equaled, if it did not surpass, the many enthusiastic meetings of his campaign tour, and gave him an opportunity to demolish the attack made upon him by ex-Secretary of State Olney.

The Republicans and Progressives of the State are united in their support of their candidates on all tickets. The Democrats, on the other hand, are not harmonious on either their national or Senatorial tickets. Tammany is lukewarm, if not hostile, toward Wilson, while the Wilson forces are lukewarm, if not hostile, toward McCombs for the Senate.

These conditions in New York are paralleled in New Jersey; and, in the opinion of the Republican managers, the votes of both States are sure for Hughes and the election of two Republican United States Senators to succeed two Democrats.

The lack of harmony among the New York Democrats is emphasized by the sudden postponement of the meeting of the State Committee to select candidates for Presidential electors. The postponement was so unexpected and was determined so hastily that several members of the committee missed their notification and are unwillingly held in New York over the week-end.

It developes that one of the reasons for the postponement was a difference between Judge Seabury, the nominee for Governor, and some of the campaign managers as to the naming of Progressives on the electoral ticket. Judge Seabury is reported to have been somewhat liberal in promises of this sort and to be in difficulty now about making the word good. Since he was defeated for the gubernatorial nomination in the Progressive primary by Gov. Whitman there is strong opposition in the Democratic State Committee to recognizing any of his promises to Progressives.

WILSON IS RELEASED; ORDERED FROM MEXICO

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Burton Wilson, an American citizen, president of the Foreign Citizens' Committee and the American Club, Mexico City, who recently was imprisoned on charges of "pernicious activity" by Mexican government officials, has been released and ordered to leave the country. Consul Canada at Vera Cruz cabled the State Department today of Mr. Wilson's arrival at that port en route to the United States.

Mr. Wilson has been taken aboard the battleship Nebraska and will remain there until transportation home can be arranged. No details of the charges against him have been received in Washington.

LONG FIGHT IS NEAR ITS END.

Irrigation Tangle in Imperial Valley Section.

J. Arthur McBride Performs Complete Somersault.

Resigns, then Takes it Back, to Surprise of All.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

EL CENTRO (Cal.) Sept. 29.—With the end of the long drawn out irrigation district fight within sight J. Arthur McBride, a rancher and director from the Imperial district, late this afternoon performed an eleventh hour flop, bolted a harmony programme and split his own faction into two camps. As a result the political affairs of the district are chaotic as before, although there is a strong probability that all difficulties will be composed on next Tuesday, when the district board meets again. At that time it is predicted that the resignation of McBride and the four other directors of the district will be filed. but the directors, employees and ful in the history of the valley's water affairs. Early this morning ranchers began arriving to attend the meeting of the district board. The meeting on Tuesday had been attended by several noisy demonstrations. At the district offices today the sheriff refused entrance to all but the directors employees and newspapermen. A short time later a committee led by Judge T. P. Banta, which has been pressing a recall campaign against Walter O. Hamilton, director from the El Centro district, was admitted. The agitation against Hamilton was based largely upon his support of Chief Engineer Rockwood and Chief Council William Conkling. Mr. Conkling's resignation was accepted by the board this morning.

It was announced that a meeting had been held last evening at Calexico attended by many influential men of the valley and that the fight might be ended as a slate had been up. The board members suggested were J. D. Edmonds, president of the First National Bank of Calexico, Lory Holt, president of the First National Bank of El Centro, Roy McPherrin, an attorney of Imperial, J. S. Nickerson, a rancher of Brawley; and C. D. Manning, former Supervisor of Los Angeles county and now a rancher of Holtville.

Judge Banta said the resignation of the entire directorate, in favor of the compromise slate, which would be appointed by the Supervisors, would be acceptable. The plan was accepted by Directors Brockman and Bennett, who with President Hamilton compose the majority. McBride of the minority which has been supported by the recallers agreed and only Porter Ferguson, of Holtville demurred. He declared his willingness to resign but only in favor of a director acceptable to his constituents.

A mass meeting to determine a Holtville director was held in the afternoon at Davis Hall, attended by three hundred ranchers and C. D. Manning was chosen. When the result of the meeting had been announced and Ferguson of Holtville had handed in his resignation, McBride sprung his surprise.

"I have decided not to resign," he declared. "My friends have advised me against it."

Judge Banta tonight gave out the following statement for the committee.

"We condemn the action of Director McBride in refusing to resign in the interest of harmony but we will continue until Tuesday to try for the resignation of Director McBride. If he still refuses we unanimously pledge ourselves to work for his recall."

NATHAN G. SUTLIFF PASSES.

Nathan G. Sutliff, 83 years old, father of V. R. Sutliff, president of the Pasadena Furniture Company, No. 615 North Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena, died last night at 11 o'clock. Death was the result of old age. Mr. Sutliff came to Pasadena from his home in Michigan four years ago to spend his declining years with his son. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the chapel of Turner & Stevens Co., No. 95 Raymond avenue, Pasadena. The cremation will be private.

DEMOCRATS NEED MILLION AND HALF.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A fund of $1,500,000 will be required to conduct the Democratic national campaign, according to a statement made here tonight by Henry Morgenthau, treasurer of the National Campaign Committee.

CUP CONTEST FOR BORDER GUARDSMEN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Sept. 29.—A contest for a cup prize, to be participated in by all officers of the mounted detachments stationed here, was announced tonight by Adjt. L. Fiegenahan of the First New Jersey Cavalry. The competition will begin next Monday and close the night of October 10.

According to the rules governing the contest, each officer is to be given a destination to make on horseback, the way to which is unknown to him, at a distance from Douglas of not more than 100 miles.

The time consumed in making the dash and the condition of the mount upon return are the main factors to be considered by the judges.

WREATH FOR HUSBAND BRINGS MRS. HUERTA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Sept. 29.—Mrs. Emila Huerta, widow of the former President of Mexico, expects to leave here in a day or two for El Paso, where, on her husband's saint day, she will place a wreath on his grave.

Mrs. Huerta came here a few days ago from Havana, Cuba. After her El Paso mission is accomplished she will return to Havana.

Two widows of former Presidents of Mexico were in San Antonio today, Mrs. Francisco I. Madero, widow of the man whose revolution resulted in the overthrow of Diaz, having arrived here from Mexico City.

GEN. VON WANDEL HAS RESIGNED.

BERLIN, Sept. 29 (via London, 7:19 p.m.)—Gen. Von Wandel, deputy Minister of War, has resigned for reasons of health, says a German official statement issued today. Emperor William has accepted Von Wandel's resignation and has nominated him general of infantry, he being attached to the First Hanoverian Regiment.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 29.—A Red Cross naval corps is to be organized by the faculty of the medical department of Stanford University, permission having been voted today by the board of trustees. The corps will be composed of 120 doctors and nurses and will be called to Federal service in time of war. Only two other American universities, Harvard and Johns Hopkins, have such organizations.

THREATENING LETTER WRITERS LOCATED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—The authors of threatening letters and post cards sent prosecution witnesses at the recent Warren K. Billings trial, and also to participants in the preparedness parade of July 22, are practically all known, Dist.-Atty. C. M. Fickert told John W. Preston, United States District Attorney, here today.

No prosecution for misuse of mails will be undertaken by Preston, however, it is understood. He is said to have told Fickert the matter rested entirely with the county.

DEERING ELECTED STANFORD TRUSTEE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 29.—F. P. Deering, a San Francisco attorney, was elected today to succeed the late Horace Davis on the board of trustees of Stanford University, the trustees announced. LAWRENCE COWING WINS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP, BEATS HAYNE DECISIVELY

TAD JONES'S VARSITY TO MAKE FIRST APPEARANCE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A number of new varsity elevens will swing into action tomorrow, the second Saturday of the eastern gridiron season of 1916. Among the more important teams to engage in their initial contests are Princeton, Yale, Army, Navy, Colgate, University of Pennsylvania and Brown.

Principal interest will attach to the showing made by Pennsylvania, Yale and Princeton in their opening games, as two of these elevens will appear under the direction of new coaches. The Eli players will have their first opportunity to show what progress has been made under the direction of Tad Jones and the same is true of Pennsylvania where Bob Folwell now reigns supreme in the coach's position. "Speedy" Rush is no longer a novelty at Princeton, but the manner in which the Tiger coach brought along the Nassau team last season apparently makes the Tigers formidable to opponents this fall.

For the first time in many years Princeton will open her season away from home, playing Holy Cross at Worcester. The later eleven defeated the Connecti Aggies 7 to 0 last Saturday and shoulid be able to give Princeton strong opposition. Yale will face the Carnegie Institute team and the Pittsburgh players are expected to offer resistance enough to demonstrate what progress Yale has made under Coach Jones.

The University of Pennsylvania eleven will have West Virginia as an opponent at Franklin Field. Last season Pennsylvania was forced to play top speed football in order to defeat the Southern team, 7 to 0.

Both the Army and Navy elevens also will make their debut, meeting Lebanon Valley and Dickinson College combinations, respectively. Neither institution was played last year and their ability to hold the strong soldiers and sailors teams in check in problematical.

Harvard and Dartmouth play their second games tomorrow. Harvard will line up against Bates while Dartmouth will have the Boston college team as opponents. Cornell cancelled its first game some time ago and will not get into action until next week.

CENTRAL STATES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—The football season opens tomorrow in the Central States with three leading elevens in test games calculated to attract attention in various parts of the country.

Great attention perhaps will be devoted to the struggle between Notre Dame and Case Scientific school of Cleveland at the South Bend institution, because of the fact that Notre Dame has contests scheduled with Nebraska at Lincoln and with the Army at West Point.

Indiana will be first of the "big nine" elevens to get into action. The Hoosiers take on DePauw, an old local rival and their performance will be closely watched for evidence as to what has been wrought by "Jumbo" Stiehm, the coach who helped make Nebraska famous.

The Michigan Aggies, under a new coach also began their season with what should be little more than a good practice game against Olivet. The Aggies' new mentor is Frank Sommers of Pennsylvania, who gained fame as coach of the Colgate eleven that trimmed Yale last year.

IN MISSOURI.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Sept. 29.—The Missouri Valley football season will get under way tomorrow when some of the larger schools will meet in opening games the smaller institutions.

Kansas will meet the Emporia State Normals at Lawrence.

The Kansas Aggies, headed by two new coaches this year and with many veterans in the line-up will battle with the Baker University team at Baldwin in what probably will be a hard game.

ROCKY MOUNTAINS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FORT COLLINS (Colo.) Sept. 29.—The Colorado Agricultural College, champions last year, open the Rocky Mountain intercollegiate conference football season here tomorrow with the University of Wyoming. Other conference teams will play alumni and other freshmen teams.

DOWN SOUTH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) Sept. 29.—Most of the important football teams of the South will begin the season tomorrow. The feature contest promises to be that at Charlottesville between Virginia and Davidson College, a strong secondary institution. Vanderbilt will play Southern Presbyterian at Nashville.

EVELYN SEARS WINS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Sept. 29.—Miss Evelyn Sears of Boston, former national women's champion, today defeated Miss Alice Cunningham of this city in the final round of the annual women's singles tennis tournament, 6-1, 6-2. Miss Sears will meet Miss Molla Bjurstedt, last year's winner, in the challenge match tomorrow.

OCTOGENARIANS ON LONG AUTO TOUR.

H. E. Herman, No. 520 South Griffin avenue, has just treated his parents, both past eighty years of age, to an automobile trip from Los Angeles to Chicago and back. Mrs. H. E. Herman also was a member of the party, and all declare it was a delightful experience. A camping outfit brought the total load the Oakland touring car carried up to 1075 pounds, and before returning to Southern California it had traveled a distance of 6993 miles.

But here is the big item about the trip:

"Our repair bill amounted to 30 cents," said Mr. Herman. "And that was due to the loss of a plug for the steering gear drag arm. The car averaged nineteen miles to the gallon of gasoline."

The party routed the trip by way of the Santa Fe trail. The petrified forest, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and the ancient homes of the cliff dwellers, all were visited. The longest day's run was made in Missouri, 290 miles.

FOUR STRAIGHT FOR SERAPHS.

Koerner's Triple in Second Inning is a Beauty.

Bassler is Hit in Head by Wild Pitch.

Quinlan's Stab may Have been a Catch.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The close of a gummy day found the Angels perched on the substantial end of a 2 to 0 score. Beating Salt Lake one game may not be much of an achievement, but to take four straight is some undertaking, and likewise some enterprise.

The weather was muggy like that which is sometimes encountered at this season of the year, when the clouds seem undecided whether to rain or simply stick around in the sky and keep everybody guessing.

The air was so heavy that it seemed something must drop or bust wide open to relieve the pressure, but said something failed to do either of these things, and at last accounts the pressure was still pressing. The only thing that came anywhere near busting was Johnny Bassler's head. Johnny go beaned on the brow in the fourth, but his head did not bust, as expected, so there was no relief to be had there.

Because it was cloudy, Bassler was under the impression that he had been struck by lightning. He said that it felt like a bolt out of the blue, or one from the hardware store. H. W. Gregory, the pitcher, denies that he had a bolt up his sleeve, and eyewitnesses stand ready to testify that Johnny was not hit by anything harder than a baseball. His belief that there was a bolt mixed up in it was purely an optical delusion.

Gregory hit the Angels almost as hard as they hit him; landing four times to six for the Angels. Two of his were singles, and then he registered two more hits off Bassler and Koerner. Then, come to think about it, he also hit the grandstand. He scored this hit with the bases full in the fourth, and it let in the second Angel run. The other Los Angeles tally was chalked as early as the second when Koerner crowned the pill for a triple, and scored on a single by Schultz.

ALMOST BUT.

Salt Lake was always almost in the running, but not quite. They jolted J. Wampus Ryan eight times, but in every crisis J. Wampus drew on his reserve supply of saliva and figuratively spit in the batting eye of the visitors.

Ryan was present with a muscular finish, turning the Bees back after three unexpected singles had filled up the sacks in the ninth.

Not only did Gregory pitch a grade of ball calculated to win a great majority of games, but he appears to be in much better physical condition than when here last season. At that time he was heavily laden with malaria. For the past six months he has been busy shedding these germs around the Western League circuit and in that way got rid of them. Traces of the malaria which once inhabited him can be found in six cities and four States as follows, towit: Omaha, Neb.; Lincoln, Neb.; Des Moines, Iowa; Sioux City, Iowa; Wichita, Kan.; Topeka, Kan.; Denver, Colo., and St. Joseph, Mo. Had Gregory committed a crime during this time it would have been impossible for him to escape. The detectives could easily have traced him by the trail of malaria which he left in his wake.

The first and most important hit off Gregory was the triple with which Koerner kicked open the second. Buddy Ryan made a noble try for the pill, falling on his managerial face and ramming his managerial nose into the earth. Beef was held at third on McLarry's short fly to Ryan, who by this time had pulled his nose out of the ground and was holding it high in the air sniffing around for fly balls. With the Salt Lake infielders drawn close in like a bunch of crap shooters, and their ears pricked up in an attitude of expectancy, Schultz slapped a single squarely over second, and the worst fears of the infielders were realized. Beef scored. Bassler hit into a double play.

A DISPUTE.

The third was featured by bitter feelings served up with hot words. Davis led off with a Texas Leaguer in right center. Bobby Quinlan sprinted in with the speed of a motorcycle cop, and dismounting from his legs at the psychological moment, dove for the descending pill. He then skidded ten or twenty feet on his face, the pill firmly held in his sinewy hands. Whether he caught the ball or simply trapped it instantly became a timely subject of debate. Guthrie was uncertain, and called Finney into conference. Ed, who was closer, opined that the ball touched the ground first, and Stingaree Bill ruled accordingly, having full faith in Ed's ability, probity and judgment. Frankly, from the press coop, it looked as though Quinlan made the catch, but the birds up there had only a long-range view of the play. The bleacher birds, who were a bit closer, sided with Quinlan. They figured that a guy who spoils his face is entitled to a putout, to say the least.

They showed just how they felt about it by hooting. Owls and bleacher birds are the only kind that hoot. These hoots lessened the pressure somewhat, and in a way were a relief. The hoots stuck around in the heavy air all afternoon. Happily, the decision had no influence on the pastime, Davis never getting beyond second.

Two had been set down in the fourth when McLarry cracked a single to left. Schultz, always stout in a pinch, poled another to right, Polly taking third. Then came the head-breaking episode. Gregory might have made a wild pitch right there had not Bassler's bean been in the road. Johnny flopped, but the flop came too late. He came up feeling all over his head with both hands to see if there were any signs of a cave-in, or a blowout. He wasn't sure yet whether his head had been assailed from the outside, or he had simply suffered an internal explosion in the brain.

However, as there was no sound of escaping brains, he realized that the injury was not serious. Harry Wolter rushed out with a dipper of distilled water and poured this into Bassler's head through his mouth. That showed presence of mind. Anybody who was rattled might have tried to pour it in through his ears. Thus refreshed and cleansed Bassler went to first, and filled up the bases.

Determined not to run any risk of beaning Davis, Gregory played safe and made a wild pitch. This scored McLarry. Thus providentally saved from injury, Bobby fanned.

Singles by Ryan and Quinlan in the fourth, and the latter's steal, put runners on second and third with only one out. Hannah fouled to Bassler. With Ryan pitching to Orr, Guthrie took the ball which he was using and gave him another. Just to prove that one ball is as efficient as the other, he fanned Gregory.

The pressure became more pronounced in the ninth. After Ryan had flied out, Quinlan singled. Bayless, batting for Hannah, skied to Maggert. Orr and Downey then singled, in rotation, perching a runner on every base. Gregory, who had already made two hits, not counting heads and grand stands, hit nothing but a foul this time, and Schultz strangled it. The score:

BOWLING NOTES.

Segall and Mackenzie put one over on White and Schubert in the doubles tournament at the Majestic alleys by taking four games of the series. Segall's bowling was the feature. Mumma and Young defeated Berkowitz and Colf in a record-breaking game in which the winners established a new league record for team series, 1968, which is some wood for a class A and B bowler.

Young's work was exceptionally good, every game of his series being 200 or better. The story in figures:

Fast Double Play Breaks up New York Rally.

Extra Base Hits Score Al lof Boston's Runs.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Sept. 29.—Boston's defense turned back New York without a score today, while the league leaders hammered out three runs off Shawkey. Ruth for Boston held New York to five hits.

New York made a rally in the eighth inning, filling the bases with only one out, but a double play spoiled their chances for a tally.

In this inning Shawkey waited for a base on balls. Magee sent him around to third with a double. Bauman, batting for High, hit a hot grounder to Ruth and Shawkey was run down between third base and home, Magee making third on the play and Bauman second. Ruth then passed Peckinpaugh, filling the bases. Nunamaker, batting for Pipp, smashed a hot liner through the box. Ruth caught it, and, by a quick throw to Gardner, doubled Magee. A great throw by Duffy Lewis choked off one other New York attempt at a score in the fifth inning.

Boston's three runs came on a double, a single, a base on balls, an error, a triple and a sacrifice fly. Score:

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—Detroit bunched hits off Wellman in the fourth and eighth innings today and beat St. Louis in a fast game, 4 to 1. The locals outhit Detroit, but except in the eighth could not get hits when they meant runs.

In the eighth singles by Lavan and Paulette, who batted for Wellman, with a sacrifice fly by Rumler, hitting for Miller, gave St. Louis its only run. Detroit got two runs in the fourth on singles by Dyer and Cobb and a double by Veach. In the eighth Young and Spencer singled, but Miller let Spencer's get past him, Young scoring and Spencer taking third. Spencer scored on Wellman's wild pitch. Score:

GRAND CIRCUIT POSTPONED.

COLUMBUS (O.) Sept. 29.—The Grand Circuit races were postponed here this afternoon because of a wet track. Some of today's card will be run tomorrow, the last day of the meet.

Sweden has adopted the plan of having the competitors in its national championships represent their cities, instead of athletic clubs. Their ability will be tested when the stars from this country, Ted Meredith, Fred Murray, Robert Simpson and Jo Loomis, contest in meets at Christiania, Copenhagen and Stockholm, October 12, 14 and 21. The quartette of American athletes are so versatile that they make up an entire track and field team and their performances promise to surprise the Scandinavians.

REFUSES TO GIVE OUT WORLD SERIES NEWS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Because of the tightening up of the pennant race in the National League no official information on the world's series will be given out until next week, it was said at American League headquarters here today. The meeting of the National Commission, which was expected to take place the latter part of this week for the purpose of arranging the schedule for the big series, has been postponed until next week, when the members will assemble.

VERNON AGAIN EVENS SERIES.

KELLY GOES SKY HIGH AFTER RODGERS'S BOOT.

Mitchell Talks Himself Out of the Game—Quinn Finishes—Ray Bates Gets Two-bagger, Scoring Two—Rodgers Scores the Last Beaver with a Triple.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 29.—Vernon took a 7-to-5 game from Portland today after Capt. Rodgers's error on a swift grounder practically allowed two men to score in the seventh inning. Twirler Mitchell nearly suffered hydrophobia because Umpire Held called time just before he plastered a strike across the plate in the seventh inning, and in the argument that ensued Mitchell talked himself out of the game.

Ray Bates broke into the oratorical league in the mix-up, but had sense enough to quit and return to his position before losing any eating money.

As Callahan is not able to pitch, Jack Quinn was delegated to succeed Mitchell in the box, and he managed to weather the breakers of the last two and two-thirds innings.

Herbert Kelly started the pitching task for Portland and sailed along at the speed of a "Miss Minneapolis" for six full frames.

Then the Notre Dame southpaw exploded after Rodgers failed to give him the support he deserved.

One run scooted across and the bags were full to the brim before the fans were able to diagnose what was happening.

Kelly walked Mitchell. McGaffigan and Gleichmann singled successively, scoring one, and Kelly hit Risberg on the sleeve and filled the bases. McCredie immediately rushed Hagerman into the box score, but Hagerman could hardly be called an improvement.

Bates, first up, poked a two-bagger over first base, scoring two runners, and Griggs swung his big bat into a single through shortstop, scoring Risberg and Bates.

These five runs in the seventh inning gave Vernon a 7 to 2 lead and they were never headed.

Rodgers's triple against the right wall in the last of the seventh added one to Portland's total, and the Beavers registered two more in the eighth off Quinn on a walk, an error by McGaffigan and a hit by Williams.

Wilie belted in Portland's first brace of runs in the third after singles by Kelly and Evans. The score at this stage was bunched in a knot, for the Vernons had scored a couple in the second on a walk and doubles by Mattick and Mitchell.

Lyle Bigbee twirled the last two innings for the Mackmen and the former Oregon collegian got by swimmingly. The Hampats were unable to solve his speed for as much as a single bingle. Score:

COWING IS NEW GOLF CHAMPIO

Wins California Title Robert Hayne.

Northerner Blows Badly the Afternoon.

Short Shots of Southe Cleverly Turned.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPA

DEL MONTE (Cal.) Sept. Laurence Cowing of the Los An Country Club is California cham of the year 1916. Cowing today over Robin Hayne by the marg 5 to 4. Cowing outplayed Hayn practically all phases of the and deserved the gonfalon whic achieved at the end of the Hayne outdrove Cowing on pr cally all of the tees, but all o southerner's short-game shots timed to a nicety, and for this ticular reason he gained the Hayne did not have the shots bag for the final eighteen holes, this explains chiefly the issue.

When the players started the first tee in the morning Cowing appeared to be confiden the result. He drove a regular from the tees. Hayne, while show a smart ball from the tees, not up to the short game which showed in the practice rounds.

At the end of the morning ro Cowing found himself to be one This was the result of persisten fort. The southerner was a bit lous from the tees, but his seco shots and his putting were all could be asked. Quite contrary opinion that Hayne would win, the undercurrent of feeling Cowing would produce the shots der stress.

At the end of the first nine h of the morning round Hayne f himself one down to his oppone This same margin held when players arrived at the clubho green. At this juncture of the Hayne appeared to be confident.

In all of his play on the Del Mo course Cowing has played his rounds in the morning, while in post-luncheon session he has wor like a champion. Upon this theo large proportion of the gall worked, and the result was that business proved out.

There is usually a psycholo hole to every match. It prove with mathematical exactness. In day's final the fifth hole proved be the important hole of the mat Hayne and Cowing lay four, when Cowing holed a brilliant thi five foot putt, calculations of Hay wavered and the end of the day neared to be in sight to the gall Neither Cowing nor Hayne turne a particularly brilliant medal ca for their round of the holes play Indeed, the morning round was short of being ordinary. Hayne out in a very little short of ei strokes, while Cowing was not far ahead of him.

On the home green the pla did not threaten par, and it was ceded that the figures for the qual ing round would not be threaten

Summing up the whole round play, it must be stated that the golfer was declared the win though the margin of victory not finely drawn.

Back Again.

STRONG FOOTBALL SQUADS LINE UP FOR FIRST GAME.

AMERICAN football starts in Southern California today with a number of college and prep school games on the programme.

The most important of the local games will be the scrimmage between the U.S.C. varsity and the Los Angeles Athletic Club squad at Bovard field. Although this is not supposed to be a real game, it will give a fairly accurate line on the strength of the two teams and their chances in the big games which follow.

Occidental will also stage its initial scrimmage this forenoon when it meets the freshman in a regular battle on its own campus. The Oxy frosh have a good team this year, so it is expected that they will give Coach Stanton's varsity enough competition to show what they really can do.

Two important games will also be held in the North today, the University of California varsity will play the fast Olympic Club team at Berkeley while the Oregon Aggies will mix in a real battle with the strong Multnomah Athletic Club eleven. This battle is expected to be a real fight from whistle to whistle, as the Multnomah Club have a team that is considered about the best club aggregation in the country. This game will give the northern fans a chance to see what kind of a team Coach Pipal is going to put into the field this year. Tuffy Conn and Beverly Anderson will also ma their initial appearance in this test.

In the high school ranks the game will be between Manual Ar and San Diego High at San D From all that has been seen heard of the two teams this they seem to be pretty eve matched.

Another prep-game that is go to draw a lot of interest will be contest between Hollywood High Pomona High at Pomona. This is the first scrimmage in which eith team has taken part this season. picking the Pomona lads, Co Moody of Hollywood has stacked foothill gridiron candidates against about the best prep in Southern California. Pomona practically its whole team back f last year and everyone in that says that Pomona is going to be champion this year. Coach Evans also admits it, so there be something in their claim.

The South Pasadena team journey over to Manual Arts to the Toilers' second team and fig to clean up without much diffic The South Pasadena squad has greatly strengthened by the addit of several star players this sea and according to its coach, the is expected to be over 50 per better than last year's aggregatio

With all of these strong te lined up for their first contest the year, football fans of South California should be able to see game today.

Not caps, estimate five (5) average words to line, and eight (8) average words to the following. In this kind of advertising actual number of words set solid is counted, eight (8) words added for each unfilled line. The Times reserves the right to classify all advertisements under appropriate headings.

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in advertisements.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement for more than one time.

not the fault of the advertiser, which lessen the value of an advertisement, will be rectified only by republication, without extra charge, on presentation of receipt within five days after insertion. No allowance will be made where the error does not materially affect the purpose of the advertisement.

No adjustment will be made for advertising not affected by an error or errors which occur in other items in the same advertisement.

Advertisers should retain receipts given by The Times for payment of "liners," as no mistake can be rectified without them.

The Times will not accept phone or verbal orders to discontinue or charge "till forbid" advertisements.

Telephoned orders to discontinue advertising in The Times are numbered in the order of their receipt, and in each instance the number of the order is given to the advertiser, who should make a record thereof. In case of dispute no charge for advertising will be rebated unless the "stop order" number is presented to The Times by the advertiser.

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before Friday Saturday night. Other classified "Wants," "To Let," etc., received over counter or by telephone until 11 p.m. Saturday. Ads received after closing hours for each division will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify." Rate 1½ cents per word.

The Sunday circulation of The Times exceeds copies, and more "liners" are regularly printed in its columns than in the five other Los Angeles newspapers combined.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times," Main 8200. Home 10391, any hour of day or night, and secure prompt and careful attention.

The Times does not knowingly accept objectionable advertisements of any kind or character—medical, whiskey, turf, lottery, "get-rich-quick,"—and it uses every reasonable precaution to keep its advertising columns clean and wholesome. This is a guaranty of protection to its readers, as well as to its legitimate advertising patrons. To the end that all false and spurious advertising may be rigidly excluded from the columns of The Times, information that will aid in the maintenance of this policy is solicited, and will be welcomed from Times readers and advertisers. Communications on the subject will be accepted in confidence.

"BE QUICK TO KICK IF THINGS SEEM WRONG, BUT KICK TO US AND MAKE IT PLAIN."

INSTANT SERVICE FOR TIMES PATRONS. For the convenience of persons who may desire to reply to classified advertisements, printed in The Times, send communications to this newspaper and have "liners" and other advertisements inserted, locked letter boxes have been placed in many downtown buildings for the purpose indicated.

Collections will be made from these boxes every hour.

Each piece of advertising copy must contain the name and address of the advertiser, number of insertions and heading under which it is desired that the announcement be printed.

BELNORD COURT.

1715-1721 Wilcox ave., just north Hollywood blvd.

The last word in outdoor apartments.

The apartments at BELNORD COURT were especially designed to meet the requirements of small families (preferably man and wife, though there are two full-size beds in separate rooms,) to whom the regular apartment-house does not appeal, but do not wish the care of a house and lot. IN BELNORD COURT we furnish the happy medium.

We have provided for sunshine and fresh air, for flowers and lawn and trees, and "outdoors" generally, together with an ideal house, complete in its every appointment, containing all of the conveniences of the up-to-date residence, and eliminating all of the objectionable features of the regular apartment-house—yet relieving the tenant of all the cares attendant on a home, even to inside cleaning, daily removal of kitchen refuse, etc.

BELNORD COURT is located in the very heart of "beautiful Hollywood." It is but a step to fast electric cars, which afford excellent service all over Southern California, close to churches, stores, bank, public library, garages—all the conveniences of the city, together with all the pleasures of the suburb.

BELNORD COURT is not an ordinary "bungalow court." It is "a chalet court," in that its houses each have a second-floor bedroom, equipped with (not a built-in bed) a regular "beadstead bed." The second floor also has a fine dressing-room, with extra lavatory and other conveniences, and a veranda. It would be useless to try to give you a detailed idea of these homelike houses. They must be seen. As statd above, they are the last word in this class of construction.

We offer an apartment-house, furnished to the last detail, ready for housekeeping, with service, for $50 and up a month, with discount for secured annual lease; unfurnished, $40 and up.

Our authorized representative is on the property week days and Sundays. He will be glad to show you about, whether you consider renting or not. BELNORD COURT is beautiful and well worth seeing.

HARRY CHANDLER,
Assistant General Manager, The Times.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of September, 1916.
[Seal] T. L. CHAPIN,
Notary Public in and for the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

The Times completely overwhelms and submerges every other newspaper in Los Angeles in the volume of classified and display advertising printed every month in the year. This is due to the undeniable fact that The Times gets its advertising patrons quicker and better results than any other local medium.

WOMEN ACTIVE FOR HUGHES.

Fair Republican Voters will Strive for Members.

District Attorney Recount is Nearing an End.

Grand Jury Fails to Locate Election Frauds.

When prominent Republican men of Los Angeles declared a few days ago that they would secure 25,000 members for the Hughes-for-President Club they were not counting especially upon the women electors. It developed yesterday, however, at a meeting of the Women's Republican League that the fair sex will contribute largely to the membership, the enthusiasm of the women giving decided impetus to the campaign.

Mrs. Roderick W. Richardson, the very efficient president of the league, spoke heartily in favor of the plan and all of the members of the organization promised to work faithfully. Each was given a number of signature blanks and they promised to secure in the neighborhood of 5000 women members.

Emerson R. Lewis of Joliet, Ill., a representative of the national organization of Hughes Men's clubs, and John T. McBean, secretary of the local organization, addressed the women.

BY LEAPS AND BOUNDS.

"It was originally intended," said Mr. Lewis, "to organize these Hughes clubs in forty-six of the larger American cities. The movement, however, has become so popular that it is developing by leaps and bounds, and I am in receipt of advices from New York conveying the information that during the present week these clubs have been launched in eighty cities.

"I am much pleased with the way business men of California are taking hold of the campaign. At San Francisco we have an excellent meeting attended by many of the leading business men representing all factions of the political party. The San Franciscans expect to hold a banquet in the near future, at which covers will be laid for 1000 business leaders of that city. I find that the Los Angeles club is showing wonderful activity and that the names are coming in rapidly."

One of the many interesting signature blanks returned to headquarters yesterday contained a number of prominent names. Among those who signed were: Mayor Woodman, Councilmen Conwell, Brain, Roberts, Langdon and Wright, Chairman Frank P. Doherty of the Republican County Central Committee, four Superior Judges, and J. S. Meyers, A. P. Johnson, J. F. Sartori, S. F. Zombro, Motley H. Flint and Capt. H. Z. Osborne.

Recount is Undecided.

Judge Monroe yesterday afternoon completed the tabulation of results from more than 1000 precints in the county, in connection with the contests filed by candidates for District Attorney. With about 200 precincts yet to be tabulated, Judge Monroe adjourned court until Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Whether Thomas Lee Woolwine, the incumbent, received enough votes to assure his election is still undetermined. Friends of W. T. Helms, who are watching the tabulation, declared that he had made a gain and that Mr. Woolwine's total was decreased. This is denied in the Woolwine camp. Mr. Woolwine said he is not worrying over the result. "If it shows that I did not get a majority of the votes cast I will enter the final fight with determination to win," he said.

Jury Probe is Futile.

The grand jury yesterday morning made a complete investigation to determine what had become of the twenty-three missing ballots in precint No. 237. After all of the election board officials, Thomas McAleer, Register of Voters, and others had been interrogated, Deputy District Attorney Doran declared the mystery was unsolved. The election board officials said they had counted the ballots and declared the tally sheets were correct. There was no evidence to show that any crooked work had been done and the probe was dropped.

Frank Files Petition.

Fred Frank, the Regular Republican, who has announced his candidacy as an independent against Harry Lyons in the Sixty-fourth District, yesterday filed his nominating petition. He had no trouble in securing enough signatures and has been promised the support of all of the leading Republican organizations in his district. He will make the fight on party lines. Lyons deserted the Regulars after promising to be with them at the State convention.

Indorsements for Hinshaw.

W. E. Hinshaw, Supervisor of the Fourth District, who is a candidate for re-election, has been unanimously indorsed by the Southwest Federation of Improvement Associations. Mr. Hinshaw made good during his incumbency, according to the several associations, and they want him to be retained in the county's most important body.

Patton Home Today.

George S. Patton, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, who has been making a tour of northern counties, will arrive home today. Yesterday he spoke at Ventura and Oxnard. He will rest here a few days before resuming his campaign.

END LITIGATION.

Judge Trippet Stipulates a Dismissal of the Tobacco Duty Case.

The long drawn out contention between the government and the St. Elmo Cigar Company, on a question of duty levied upon a shipment of Cuban leaf tobacco, the property of Benjamin S. Jarrett, Charles B. Weber and Allen Rossiter, doing business as the St. Elmo Cigar Company, has been settled in the United States District Court by the entry by Judge Trippet, yesterday, of a stipulation for the dismissal of the proceedings involving seventy-one bales of Cuban leaf tobacco, upon the payment by the St. Elmo Cigar Company of the duty amounting to $6820.52.

This will end the litigation that for more than two years went through the customs channels here, in New York and Washington.

STUDY CONDITIONS OF FOREIGN TRADE.

UNITED STATES MUST INTEREST ITS CUSTOMERS.

J. F. Lucey, Manufacturer, Says Present Business Campaign will Show Success is to be Attained in World Markets by the Right Methods.

"If the United States is to capture and hold foreign business the merchants and manufacturers of this country must first do three things," said Capt. J. F. Lucey, president of the Lucey Manufacturing Corporation, last night at the meeting called by the foreign trade bureau of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Arrangements for the extension of credit must be made, only high-class representative Americans must be sent as salesmen and a careful study of the needs and peculiarities of the people with whom business is done must be the foundation on which success will depend."

The first requirement is now being afforded by the National City Bank of New York, and the success attending the export business efforts of the Standard Oil Company, the United States Steel Corporation and many other large American concerns that have invaded the foreign field and that are yearly increasing their business through the application of these methods.

Capt. Lucey traced the history of his own company and cited for the benefit of his hearers many of the methods employed in overcoming the difficulties that foreign business building entails.

At the conclusion of his remarks a general discussion followed, in which many business men of this city, whose houses are now engaged in campaigns for foreign business, told of their experiences and of the ways and means employed to develop this very profitable field of commerce, which one of the speakers referred to as the "sweetest business that comes to their house."

The problem of providing ships for the carrying of the goods sold was also discussed and many suggestions were offered as to the best way to overcome the present difficulty confronting the Los Angeles shipper who aspires to foreign markets.

Alfred O. Clark, formerly of Co. A, Sixty-fifth Illinois Infantry (a nonmember) native of Illinois, died at Sawtelle, Cal., September 25, aged 72. Remains sent here for burial.

Santa Monica.

BULLDOG HAS BATTLE WITH TWO LARGE EAGLES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, Sept. 29.—Two eagles, one a bald head, held their own early this morning in a fierce battle with three hunters and a valuable Boston bull terrier in the Malibu hills.

The dog, which belongs to "Doc" Kingsbury of Ocean Park, was suddenly gripped by one of the eagles and was carried about twenty feet in the air before a shot fired by E. M. Williams, one of the party, brought the big bird to the ground. The eagle again rose, however, and continued the fight.

Mr. Kingsbury, Mr. Williams and Harry Wright, a Santa Monica officer, fought off the bird from the small dog, which, though frightened, put up fight. Then the mate of the bird joined the fray and the three men had a hard time putting the birds to flight. The dog was brought back to Santa Monica and taken to a dog and cat hospital in Pasadena. The fight with the eagles changed the plans of the hunters, who were on their way to Mr. Williams's ranch in the Malibu hills.

Miss Concepcion Abila, who was injured in an attack Sunday at Playa del Rey, for which Albert Machado, 19 years old, member of the well-known Palms family, will have to stand trial, was reported today as being in a serious condition. The young man has been released on $10,000 bail.

A fire dive of 125 feet will be made at Hollenbeck Park tomorrow evening by Harold Niswonger. In the afternoon George Nooyan will make a sensational slide of 1000 feet on a fire cable, and Z. W. Robinson and Clay Colley will give exhibitions in fancy and high-diving contests.

Fraternity Have Outing.

The annual meeting and jinks of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter of the Delta Chi Fraternity will be held in Santa Monica Canyon this afternoon. Autos will leave Sixth and Olive streets at 1 o'clock p.m. and will return in time for dinner in the city. A programme of sports, including the roasting of fresh rabbits and the assaulting of other refreshments, has been prepared.

Reduce the Rates.

The Pacific Electric rates between Los Angeles and Mount Lowe, it was announced yesterday, will be reduced during October to $1.50 round trip. From Pasadena to the mountain the rate will be $1.25 round trip. In the past the lowest rates have been $2.00 for the round trip. In addition to this reduction of fare, it is announced that special features and rates will be provided at Alpine Tavern, where a hostess has been installed for the benefit of visitors.

They're Not at Home.

For the next three days the "Not At Home" sign will be displayed over the business establishments of "Mayor" John F. Powers and the members of his Rowansburg Cabinet, rulers of the mythical city of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, for these ten festive young men are off on their annual outing to Catalina Island. They departed today aboard William E. Bush's fast gasoline cruiser "Edna," the "sea voyage" being a prelude to the jinks they will enjoy at Avalon and elsewhere on the island.

PIONEER PASSES.

Funeral services for Andrew A. Gibson, well-known mining man formerly of Salt Lake City and Denver, were conducted at Inglewood last Tuesday. Mr. Gibson passed away at No. 24 Clover avenue, Venice, last Sunday. He was 73 years of age. He was one of the first men to cross from Pennsylvania to Salt Lake City in a prairie schooner. He leaves the widow, Mrs. Lillian Gibson.

THE WEATHER.
[Official Report.]

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Sept. 29.—[Reported by Ford A. Carpenter, Meteorologist.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 29.95; at 5 p.m., 29.93. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 65 deg. and 73 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 68 per cent.; 5 p.m., 59 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., southwest, velocity 4 miles; 5 p.m., southwest, velocity 6 miles. Highest temperature, 83 deg.; lowest, 63 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.—The central area of high pressure moved rapidly toward the Gulf of Mexico, leaving a record of heavy to killing frosts east of the Rocky Mountains to Lake Michigan and from the Canadian boundary to Oklahoma. The eastern depression resulted in heavy rain in Tennessee, scattering showers in a few of the Southern States, and in Pennsylvania and New York. It is cooler in Iowa, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Missouri and Pennsylvania. It is warmer in Montana and Arizona. The southwestern area of low pressure remains stationary over the valley of the Colorado River, and in conjunction with the field of high pressure to the eastward, is causing cloudiness throughout Southern California.

LOCAL FORECAST.

For Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair Saturday; southwesterly winds.
For Southern California: Fair Saturday.

To Committee.

NO DECISION ON IRRIGATION RATES.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION CONSIDERS MODIFICATION.

Beet Growers Urge Material Reduction, Pointing Out that the Farmers had Invested Huge Sums for Temporary Ditches and Flumes.

Modification of the irrigation rates for the past season in a portion of the San Fernando Valley, where aqueduct water was used in large quantities by the beet growers, was given consideration by the Board of Public Service Commissioners yesterday, but no decision was reached. The subject was finally referred to the Extension Committee, in conjunction with Chief Engineer Mulholland and Auditor Anderson.

A representative of the beet growers appeared to urge that the rate previously set—$3.50 per acre for each irrigation—be materially reduced. He pointed out that the farmers themselves had invested more than $100,000 in temporary ditches and flumes, so as to use the aqueduct water, and that there would be very little salvage from this, and that they should be given special consideration because of this situation. He asked that the rate be cut in two.

Mr. Mulholland gave facts and figures regarding the use of the water for the first time on these lands, showing there was a loss of 40 per cent. from the place where it was turned into the ranchers' distributing system to the place of use, because of the earth ditches and loose ground. He stated that in fixing the $3.50 rate this loss had been divided between the ranchers and the city, but he admitted the ranchers are entitled to still further consideration, because of the loss they will sustain in the temporary system installed, and which will become useless as soon as the permanent distributing system is completed.

TO OPEN THEATER.

All is in Readiness at Del Mar for Pageant of Music and Dance.

The wooded hills of Del Mar, overlooking the Pacific, will be brilliant with music, drama and dancing tonight, for all is in readiness for the staging there, for the first time in the United States, of open-air grand opera.

The big new ampitheater, just completed by the citizens of Del Mar, will be christened with the dramatic operatic masque and pageant of interpretative dancing, "The Spirit of Love," staged under the direction of Mrs. Lillian Burkhart Goldsmith.

LANS FOR BIG HEALTH PLANT.

entists Prepare to Erect Hospital-College.

ilding Group is to Grace Boyle Heights Site.

anning an expenditure that will d $250,000, the Seventh Day Ad- tists have taken initial steps to- d building a large hospital, sana- ium, nurses' home, dormitories chapel on Boyle Heights. The rch purchased an entire city k and will occupy the whole perty. The buildings will be of cottage type and will embrace best of modern construction. The t purchased is bounded by le, Bailey, New Jersey and Michi- avenues.

t was intended to begin construc- on the buildings next Monday, several important changes sug- ed at a recent general confer- e meeting will delay work about onth.

he hospital and sanatorium will an auxiliary to the medical col- e at Loma Linda. It will mean centralization of the students' rk. At present the students are ed to study at several points, from the college classrooms to County Hospital, or to one of several sanatoriums controlled by church. With completion of the ns now under consideration, the dents will have a dormitory on college grounds in Boyle Heights d will be able to devote more time their studies and actual practice.

COMPREHENSIVE PLANS.

he hospital and sanatorium will located in one main building and h will be the central point for the er cottages. There will be a ses' home, two dormitories, a apel, a library and a free dispens- y. Recreation grounds for the con- lescent and for the physician, stu- ts and nurses will be maintained modern lines. The hospital will tain all that is best in surgery, llation and comfort.

t is planned to start with room r 150 patients, but the plans call construction that will permit of dily enlarging the space if needed. There are at present 2600 students the Seventh Day Adventist col- es in Southern California. Many these students are preparing for foreign missionary field, while ers are taking a straight medical rse. However, even the students the missionary classes take the ical training, so that practically all may be classed as medical students.

LARGE GROWTH.

Seventh Day Adventists take great pride in the growth of their institutions in California. In this section of the State the expansion has been quite gratifying. Five years ago the membership totaled a scant 1800 adults. Today it is in excess of 5000 and the denomination owns thirteen church properties in and near Los Angeles. In addition to the strictly church properties, the church has many flourishing institutions that embrace a wide field of endeavor. They are the medical college and sanatorium at Loma Linda, sanatoriums at Paradise Valley, Glendale and St. Helena, an academy and preparatory school at San Fernando, the Union Pacific College, the Pacific Press Publishing Company at Mountain View, and a free dispensary at First street and Santa Fe avenue, in this city.

The citizens of Boyle Heights are through their civic organizations preparing to assist the church in the new venture, as the district which will be benefited by the buildings is rapidly growing. The proposed improvements include the elimination of grade crossings, widening and improving the intersection of Macy, Anderson and Mission streets, improving and paving Brooklyn avenue and the erection of a number of substantial residential and business houses.

To Prove.

TAKE SHORB BACK.

San Francisco Society Man to Face Prosecution for Embezzlement. He Claims Innocence and Wife Believes, but Police Say Guilty.

Norbert N. Shorb, San Francisco society favorite, who was arrested Thursday on a charge of embezzlement, was taken to San Francisco yesterday by Detective Sergeant Kracke, to face prosecution. Detective Kracke left the northern city immediately after Shorb's arrest, to take him back.

The policeman reports he has sufficient evidence to convict Shorb of the crime with which he is accused. Shorb said the filing of the complaint was due to an error, and that he could easily adjust matters when he returned north. He took his wife with him. She emphatically declared her belief in his innocence.

MOTORIST JAILED.

Charged with Having Stolen the Car He was Driving.

A man giving the name of L. Bradley was placed in the County Jail yesterday morning, charged with having stolen the automobile in which he was driving. He was arrested at Vernon by Marshal Harris. The machine belongs, according to reports, to William Haines of Stanford avenue. Bradley could give no satisfactory account of how he came to be in possession of the automobile.

SAY UNION OIL IS IN MERGER.

Reports of Deal with Doheny Combine Crystallize.

Company Officers Decline to Discuss Negotiations.

Sharp Advance of Stock Upon Exchange a Feature.

That a deal is being negotiated in this city whereby the Union Oil Company may shortly be brought into the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company is the tenor of a report which has agitated financial circles here during the past several weeks. The Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company is the big E. L. Doheny corporation, organized about a year ago for the purpose of including the Doheny companies in Mexico and this country under one general organization, and also to make provision for the absorption of outside concerns.

A report was in circulation yesterday that the deal had been closed. Mr. Doheny could not be reached last night, and W. L. Stewart, president of the Union Oil Company, declined to discuss any phase of the deal at this time. Other officials of the company, while also indicating their knowledge of the existence of negotiations, declined to discuss them. In one case, the advance in the price of Union Oil stock, which has lately occurred, was referred solely to the flourishing state of the company's business.

At the time the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company was organized it was planned to make the Union Oil Company, the Independent Producers Agency companies, and other concerns, a part of the consolidation, but this scheme was opposed by Andrew Weir, the large British stockholder in the Union. During his recent visit to this city, however, it is reported, Mr. Weir assumed a somewhat different attitude on the subject of the deal.

Union Oil stock has made a surprising advance on the local exchange. The stock yesterday crossed $98. This advance started from around $80 as long ago as a month, but the most surprising gain has been made in the past week or ten days.

Mr. Doheny has admittedly been in the market for oil properties, and has made a number of purchases of lesser order in the past few months. These have, however, been sufficient to aggregate over $1,000,000.

Nothing could be done in the general absorption of the Union Oil Company, it is said, without the consent of the stockholders, although it might be possible for Mr. Doheny to take over the control in the $35,000,000 oil corporation, from the larger interests.

The Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company has a capitalization of $150,000,000, of which $25,000,000 is preferred and $125,000,000 common stock. The original deals absorbed about $30,000,000 of the common and $10,000,000 of the preferred stock in the corporation, and the companies included were the Mexican Petroleum, Buena Fe, Petroleum Transport and Caloric. Mr. Doheny is backed in his projects by a strong syndicate of New York bankers.

MAY RELEASE BELTRANS

They Deny Charge of Mann White Slave Act Violation Made by Idaho Authorities, Who Say They Took a Girl Across Nevada Line.

F. A. Beltran and wife, who, with Jose Espinosa, are charged with having transported Miss Beatrice Young from Burley, Idaho, to Las Vegas, Nev., in violation of the Mann White Slave Act, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Hammack yesterday.

At the conclusion of the evidence given by Beltran and wife, the commissioner made an order releasing Mrs. Beltran from custody, and the understanding was that unless the Idaho authorities furnished something more tangible than the fact that the Beltrans had been indicted, that Beltran would be released today at noon.

The evidence of the Beltrans was impressive, being a strong denial of the charge. Mrs. Beltran is a sufferer from heart disease and the kind-hearted commissioner agreed to take her home and allow her to remain in his house until the case against her husband was disposed of. Beltran is a worker in the Idaho beet fields, and Espinosa, who, with Miss Young, was taken from the train just out of Burley, is a sheep shearer.

JUDGE IS LONE MALE IN COURT.

All Other Officers in Woman's Tribunal are Feminine Gender.

Police Judge White is the only male creature connected with the woman's court at present. The prosecuting attorney, bailiff, and probation officers are all women.

The prosecuting attorney is Miss Margaret Gardener, recently assigned by City Prosecutor Williams to handle all cases in the woman's court. The probation officer is Mrs. J. A. Barton, recently appointed to the work, and the policewoman is Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt, recently appointed from the civil service list to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Mrs. Anna Hamm.

Mrs. Hamm was seriously injured by a drunken woman prisoner who kicked her in the abdomen with results that may make Mrs. Hamm a permanent invalid. Her condition was so serious the examining doctors recommended she be permanently retired from active service. She will receive a pension of half her regular pay. Mrs. Hamm bore a reputation for unusual efficiency in handling women, and came to her injury by attempting to treat the intoxicated prisoner with kindness.

DENY SAUL PETITION.

State Supreme Court Refuses to Grant Writ of Habeas Corpus, Now Up to Father to Bring Girl Back from Britain or Suffer Penalty.

The State Supreme Court has denied the petition for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of John E. Saul, who was found guilty of contempt of court by Superior Judge Houser, and ordered committed to the County Jail for violating an order of the court in taking from the jurisdiction of the court, his daughter, Dinah Saul, whose custody had been committed to the mother.

Following Judge Houser's action, an effort was made before Superior Judge Sidney Reeve, to have Saul released by virtue of a writ of habeas corpus, and this was denied. Relief was also denied Saul on an appeal to the District Court of Appeal. It will now be up to Saul to purge himself of contempt by producing the daughter, whom, it is alleged, he has sent out of the country to keep her away from the mother.

The Sauls had a divorce action, and a decree was refused to either party. The District Court of Appeal held that even in that case the court has authority to dispose of the custody of the children.

HERE IS "MYSTERY."

Attorney for Defense Declares a Woman will Appear to Tell the Truth about Killing of Felix Urquidez—State Says It's Ancient Artifice.

The time-worn and musty old "mystery woman" usually developed by a letter, crept forth yesterday into the Vasquez case. An attorney sprung the ancient lady under the name of "Margarita" and showed the newspaper men a note stating that at the time of the trial in the Superior Court, she would positively appear and tell all about who shot Felix Urquidez, who was killed, according to allegations of the State, by Thomas Vasquez.

At the preliminary hearing of the charges against the defendant last week, he was positively identified by a young boy as the man last seen with Urquidez. The two men quarreled over Helen Oliera. The injection of a woman, who claims she wanted to marry Urquidez, is not given great credence by the State.

LIBEL PROCEEDINGS.

In United States District Judge Cushman's court yesterday Harry A. Archibald was appointed commissioner to marshal the liens against the gasoline launch Lark, libeled by the Marine Mechanical Works. A number of creditors have intervened and the liabilities of the owners are considerable. Later on an order for the sale of the boat will be made.

WOMEN URGE HOME FOR DEFECTIVE CHILDREN.

IN AN effort to secure for Southern California a home for the care and training of feeble-minded children, the tentative draught of a bill to be presented to the next Legislature at Sacramento was adopted yesterday by the committee of the Federated Women's Clubs of the Southern District of California.

In addition to the members of the committee, representatives from a number of organizations interested in child welfare work were present in the chambers of Judge Reeve of the Juvenile Court, who, with Miss Orfa Shontz, drew the proposed measure. Some of those present were Dr. Louise Clark of Riverside, chairman of the club committee; Mrs. E. K. Foster, Mrs. Hester Griffith, Mrs. O. P. Clark, Rev. Father Brady, Fred Nellis, superintendent of the Reform School at Whittier; Dr. Orbison of the Psychopathic Society, Mrs. Harry Trowbridge, Dr. Patterson of Vineland and others.

The plan as presented yesterday calls for the establishment of a school laid out along lines of a miniature town, and will require an appropriation of approximately $300,000. The committee of the Federated Clubs, which looks after legislative matters, will act on the tentative bill on October 19, following its discussion by the northern district committee, which is headed by Mrs. Vinnie C. Hicks of Oakland.

Patriotic Lure Prompts Trip East.

Baron and Baroness Emil von Kleydorf and son, Ernest,

Who expect to leave within a day or two for New York City, where the Baron hopes to obtain passage to Germany to rejoin his old regiment. Failing this, he will fill an engagement with the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company.

After Happy Year.

GERMAN BARON HOPES TO REJOIN THE COLORS.

AFTER a year spent peacefully in Beverly Hills, a year in direct contrast to the first of the war when they were on the other side of the world, Baron and Baroness Emil von Kleydorf and their three children will leave early in the week for New York. Baron Von Kleydorf, who is a great singer, as well as an officer of the German army, goes to sing a series of baritone roles for the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company during the coming season. For twelve years before the outbreak of the war he was leading baritone for the Berlin Grand Opera Company, though his first stage experience was in this country when he sang Amphortis in the Savage production of "Parsifal."

It is not by his own choice that Baron Von Kleydorf is not at the front today, as he was early in the war. During those first strenuous weeks when the German army was fighting its way Paris-ward Baron Von Kleydorf was severely wounded, and not being in good general health, it was necessary for him to be honorably retired from service. The Baroness was in Paris with her children when war was declared, and could not return to their Berlin home, so came to America, the home of her girlhood, for Baroness Von Kleydorf was Miss Paula Busch of Chicago, a daughter of Ansel Busch. Though Baron Von Kleydorf did not know his family was in this country he too came here after his severe illness, and it was several months before husband and wife discovered each other on the same neutral soil.

Now that he is thoroughly recovered, the German army officer chafes at being away from his regiment, but finds it impossible to return to the Fatherland. He wired for passage on the Bremen, and was refused, but is in no way discouraged for he feels that when he is in New York he may be able to secure some transportation across if his country continues to invent means of transportation.

Eight Injured.

VICTIM OF TRAIN WRECK HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

MAX BORCH, victim of the Kingman (Ariz.) wreck on the Santa Fe, was seriously injured again yesterday in an automobile accident while being taken back to the Santa Fe station to resume work by his doctor, Adolph Tyroler. The accident involved eight persons, one of whom may die.

Most seriously injured was Mrs. Clara Kinsman, 53 years old, wife of a Santa Fe Pullman conductor, living in San Diego. Her spine was injured and she received internal injuries which may prove fatal. Surgeons in the Receiving Hospital were able to do little for her.

Dr. Tyroler was driving a large touring car with Borch as passenger, north in Alameda street, when he ran into a taxicab driven by E. E. Wickstrom, No. 5918 Towne avenue, returning from the Santa Fe depot. Dr. Tyroler's car, according to the measurements reported to the police, skidded forty-five feet before striking the taxicab, indicating it was being driven at a speed above the average.

The diagram of the accident in the Police Station showed the taxicab had reached nearly the center of the street when the collision occurred.

The injured were Mrs. B. L. Vaughn, 27, San Diego, cuts on head and shoulders.

B. L. Vaughn, her husband, slightly injured.

Richard Vaughn, their child, 2½ years old, cuts and abrasions.

Mrs. E. E. Rathbun, Needles, Ariz., head cut and body bruised.

All the injured were taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment.

Injured at the same time was Miss Karen Hansen, who was run over by an automobile at Ninth and Figueroa streets while trying to cross the streets. The police learned the automobile which struck her down was driven by a woman. The number of the machine is in the possession of the police, and if the driver does not report the accident today a warrant for her arrest will be preferred. Miss Hansen was severely injured.

WANT PUBLIC LANDS.

People in all Parts of the Union Flood Local Land Office with Inquiries about Tract to be Open to Entry Soon. It's Just Desert.

Register Roche and Receiver Mitchell of the local Land Office are flooded with inquiries in regard to the opportunity to get government land under the executive order recently issued, throwing open to settlement and entry 95,000 acres lying for the most part northeast of Banning, and all of it in the desert country. These letters come from all sections of the Union, where the only information to be had is the fact that on October 25, at 9 o'clock a.m., this land will be opened to settlement, and on November 22, at the same hour, opened to entry.

The tract is six miles wide and twenty miles long, recently detached from the boundaries of the Angeles National Reserve, and so far as the surveys of the government indicate is useless for agricultural purposes. It is dry and arid, with no apparent possible chance to secure water on the sections that are open for settlement and entry. All of the land where there is a recognized possible opportunity to get water, even for domestic purposes, has been taken up long ago. There is no timber in sight, and the entire area consists of mountains of sand, dry washes and other desert formations.

ONE TOO MANY WIVES.

Arrest Chauffeur on Bigamy Charge Preferred by Girl He Married Before Obtaining a Final Decree from First Unhappy Mate.

Milton A. Johnson, a chauffeur, was arrested yesterday afternoon at the corner of Sixth and Main streets on a charge of bigamy, and taken to the County Jail to await the arrival of an officer from Orange county, where the complaint had been sworn and the warrant issued.

Johnson originally married Miss Alma Bledsoe of Los Angeles. On September 15, 1915, he secured an interlocutory decree of divorce. While passing a few weeks at Seal Beach he met and fell in love with Miss Christine Neilson, a San Francisco girl who was visiting friends at that place.

A few days of courtship were followed by a marriage on the last day of September, last year. This second marriage was also unhappy and Johnson declared that as soon as he discovered he had committed bigamy by remarrying before having obtained his final decree he left his second wife and has not seen her for more than half a year.

According to his attorney, Frank Dominguez, it was Miss Neilson who filed the charges against the young man. The latter was taken to Santa Ana last night and will be arraigned there today.

CUT CHINATOWN SQUAD.

Bribe Rumor Led to Quick Action by Acting Chief Butler, Who Made a Complete Change to Offset Pernicious Accusations.

Chinatown's ancient and often-walked ghost, police protection, stalked again yesterday on the glib tongues of a number who pretended the Chinese were preparing to pay $6000 monthly for protection to gambling games. To set the rumor finally at rest, and at the request of the policemen assigned to that district, Acting Chief Butler made a complete change in the squad assigned to that district.

Sergeant G. S. McClary, formerly of the East side, has been detailed to take charge of the Chinatown squad. His day assistants will be Patrolmen T. P. Toomey, Peyton and Groom, and his night assistants, Patrolmen Katzenberger, Hodges and Whaples.

Sergeant Willard Smith is relieved of his assignment in Chinatown, and transferred to East side to replace McClary. The patrolmen transferred by the change are: Deland, Dodd, Spinner, Mailheu, Wallace and Farrell.

LAWYER FIGHTS HIS ACCUSERS.

His Legal Artillery Opposes Disbarment Move.

Expects to Counter with Big Libel Action Today.

Bar Association of Orange County Against Him.

In defense of his right to practice law in this State, which is questioned by the Orange County Bar Associaton, T. Alonzo Wells, formerly of Huntington Beach, but now a resident of Carson City, Nev., yesterday unlimbered his heavy artillery, and through W. E. Ferguson and M. C. Atchison, local attorneys, wheeled into action and bombarded the local clerk of the State Supreme Court with petitions, notices of motions, etc.

The first salxo presages a battle that is expected to attract much attention, not only because of the legal aspects of the affair, but because of the prominence of the parties involved. Part of the matter has already been through the Appellate Court at Sacramento, and the remainder of it is expected to go into the local Federal District Court this morning in the form of a libel suit for $120,000.

The affair dates back to a day in 1899 when Mr. Wells, charged with a statutory offense, retained E. E. Keech of Santa Ana to defend him in the Superior Court of Orange county. After two trials before juries, each of which resulted in a disagreement, the case was dismissed.

BECOMES AN ATTORNEY.

Several years later Mr. Wells moved to Nevada, and October 4, 1915, was admitted to the bar in that State. A short time thereafter he applied for admission to the bar in California, and October 20, last, his petition was granted by the Court of Appeal of the Third California District at Sacramento.

About the middle of last December, while practicing law in Carson City, Mr. Wells was served with a subpoena to appear before the Court of Appeal at Sacramento to show cause why the order admititng him to the bar in California should not be set aside. A petition requesting such action had been presented to the court by members of the Orange County Bar Association, of which E. E. Keech is now president.

After a legal battle that was in WELCOMING ITS NEW MINISTER.

Church of the Messiah Plans a Week of Events.

Rev. Howard D. French Takes Important Work Here.

What's Going on in Religious Fields Hereabouts.

Rev. Howard D. French has been called to the pastorate of the Church of the Messiah, the Congregational church located at Washington street and Van Ness avenue. This pastorate was left vacant by the resignation of Rev. Stanley Ross Fisher, who went to the Congregational Church at Fall River, Mass.

The Church of the Messiah is one of the newer Congregational churches of Los Angeles, having been founded in 1907. Its location is an important one, being in a rapidly-developing section of the city. It numbers among its members adherents of many denominations, and it ministers to a wide section. The church has a beautiful edifice, a fine choir, and the many-sided ministry of Mr. Fisher commended it to the most favorable consideration of residents in that vicinity.

The church is planning as a welcome to its new pastor a "church week" to be held from October 8 to 15, inclusive. It will begin with a rally service for the Bible school on the morning of October 8, and will close with a twilight communion service on the afternoon of the 15th ult. A fellowship service will be held Monday evening, with addresses from representative Congregationalists of the city. There will be a church reception on the following Tuesday, a "home-coming" meeting of the members of the congregation on Wednesday, and gatherings of various interests of the church on the remaining nights of the week.

Mr. French will preach tomorrow in the Church of the Messiah on the subject of "The Mind of Christ," and in the evening on "A Strange Call." Mr. French was born and reared in Chicago, is a graduate of Amherst College and Yale Divinity School, and has held both Congregational and Presbyterian pastorates in the East. His last charge was in Jacksonville, Ill.

FOR WORKERS.
NEW TRAINING SCHOOL.

Unique is an enterprise promoted by the Christian Missionary Society of Southern California. It has organized a training school for religious workers which will continue for thirty weeks, and offer eleven courses of study. The sessions of the school will be held at the First Christian Church every Tuesday evening, under the direction of Edgar Lloyd Smith.

The courses of study are divided into Biblical, departmental, historical and professional. Under the first section "The Life of Christ" will be taught by Rev. Russell F. Thrapp, A. M.; "Heroes of Israel," by Rev. W. S. Crockett, B. L.; "Bible Geography," by L. G. Parker, A. M. Under the departmental section junior methods will be taught by Mrs. Leonore Harper; adult methods, by Rev. George C. Ritchey, A. B.; extension department, by J. Ellsworth Coombs, A. M. The instructors in the historical section are Rev. C. F. Hutslar, A. M., and Mrs. G. M. Anderson; in the professional section "Story Telling" will be presented by Mrs. Julia N. Cunningham, "Church Polity" by Rev. F. M. Rogers, A. M., and "Social Service" by Rev. F. G. Tyrrell, D. D., LL.D, and Rev. L. M. Timmons, A. B.

The school is open to all who desire instruction. The first period will be from 7:30 to 8:15, and second period from 8:15 to 9. The general public is invited to take advantage of the instruction offered. The enrollment fee will be 50 cents per term, and each student will supply his own books.

SPECIAL MUSIC
AT THE PRO-CATHEDRAL.

Dean MacCormack will preach in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral tomorrow morning, discussing Matthew Arnold's picture of "The Ideal of the Spirit." The choir will sing "Hark, Hark, My Soul," by Shelley. In the evening Dean MacCormack's subject will be "The Dog with a Can on His Head." Ernest Douglas will resume his Sunday-evening organ recitals, the programme beginning at 7:15 o'clock. The programme will consist of the Reubke sonata in C minor, known as "The Ninety-fourth Psalm," two Rheinberger "monologues" and the finale from Mr. Douglas's "E Minor Suite for Organ." The Reubke sonata is one of the greatest additions to modern organ works, though unfortunately but seldom heard. Music lovers of Los Angeles are cordially invited to attend these recitals, which are rapidly becoming an institution in the vicinity.

BIBLE INSTITUTE.
DEAN EVANS TO SPEAK.

At the Church of the Open Door, Bible Institute Auditorium, there will be three notable sermons tomorrow. Dr. William Evans, associate dean, will preach in the morning on "The Christian and His Family—Marriage, Divorce," and in the evening on "A Fool There Was." At 3 o'clock in the afternoon Dr. F. W. Farr will preach on "Christian Ambition." This service is the official opening of the Bible Institute. The reconvening of students for the fall term again makes possible the great chorus choir which characterized the services last year. It will be directed by Prof. J. B. Trowbridge.

RALLY DAY.
TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

At Temple Auditorium tomorrow the services will revolve around the rally day. At 9:30 a.m., the Bible school in Berean Hall; at 11:00 a.m., church membership rally. Dr. Brougher preaches on the subject, "Little Investors and Big Business." Ralph Laughlin, tenor, will sing a recitative and aria, "In Native Worth," from Haydn's "Creation," and the big chorus choir will sing an arrangement of Braga's "Angel Serenade," with soprano obligato by Miss Helen Newcomb. Ray Hastings will play an organ recital of numbers from the works of Felix Mendelssohn, including the "Funeral March" and "Spring Songs." The officers of the church, including deacons and trustees, will occupy seats on the platform, and at the close the Lord's Supper will be observed.

At 7:30 p.m. will be held a popular evangelistic rally. Dr. Brougher's subject will be "The Weaker Sex—Are Women Weaker Than Men?" There will be a special musical programme. Dr. A. R. M. Gordon of the Los Angeles Scottish Pipe Band will give selections on the bagpipe.

Rev. Howard D. French,
New pastor for the Church of the Messiah (Congregational,) for whom the church is planning a week of welcoming events.

Alice Lohr McDaniel, contralto, will be the soloist, and there will be a number by the Temple Quartette. The vested choir will sing the whole of the "Gloria in Excelsis" from Gounod's Mass. Ray Hastings will play as an organ prelude, by request, Sullivan's "Lost Chord."

NEW CHURCH COMPLETED.
TO BE DEDICATED TODAY.

The handsome new church building of the Western-avenue Church of Christ, at Western avenue and Thirtieth street, will be dedicated at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. There will be addresses by Rev. J. N. Smith, pastor and other clergymen and a musical programme. The building is handsome in design and modern in appointment. It has been especially arranged to take care of the Sunday-school, which is exceptionally large in proportion to the size of the congregation.

"RALLY WEEK."
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

At the First Congregational Church "rally week" will be observed in all departments of the church life, beginning at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning with a Bible school rally, a significant and spectacular feature of which will be the building of a large lighthouse in which every member of the Bible school will participate. The First Congregational Orchestra of fifty pieces, under the leadership of Mr. William H. Mead, will make its initial appearance of the winter season.

At the church service at 11 o'clock the newly organized chorus choir, G. Haydn Jones, director, will render exceptional music, including the anthem, "Unfold, Ye Portals" by Gounod, and a soprano solo by Miss Grace James. The morning sermon will be given by the pastor, Dr. William Horace Day, whose flock will give him a warm welcome after his summer sojourn in the high Sierras. He will preach on the subject, "Yokes."

At 4:30 p.m. the twilight communion and reception of members will take place. At 6:30 p.m. the Christian Endeavor Society will meet. There will be no evening service at 7:45.

Next Wednesday evening at 6 p.m. will be given the opening cafeteria dinner of the year. On Tuesday the Neighborhood Circles will meet with the following hostesses: Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Kidder, Mrs. Durant, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Barr, Mrs. Cavanagh, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. Burd and Mrs. George. The young people of the church will hold a rally conference on Tuesday night, for discussion of plans for the winter's work.

GOSPEL MEETINGS.
BELVEDERE PRESBYTERIAN.

A two weeks' series of gospel meetings will begin tomorrow in the Belvedere Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn and Hollenbeck avenues. Dr. Speer, superintendent of the extension work of the Los Angeles Presbytery, will speak at the morning service. The evening service will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. P. Sternberg. During these meetings the pastor will be assisted by Messrs. Walker, Johnson and associates. Meetings will be held every evening except Saturdays, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

EVANGELISTIC.
NAZARENE MEETINGS.

The First Church of the Nazarene, Sixth and Wall streets, noted for its evangelistic spirit and the many conversions in its meetings, is planning a series of special revival meetings to begin tomorrow and to continue until October 22, and possibly longer. Rev. C. W. Ruth, for eighteen months assistant pastor of this church, under the late Dr. P. F. Bresee, will be the evangelist. He has been working in the evangelistic field since leaving Los Angeles, and last year traveled 30,000 miles and labored in sixteen States, witnessing the conversion of thousands of people. He is a man of nation-wide reputation as an evangelist, is brilliant as a pulpiteer, logical and deeply spiritual, and effective in his persuasions.

The revival services will be held nightly at 7:30 o'clock, except Saturdays. Mr. Ruth will preach or give a Bible reading on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 2:30 o'clock.

SACRED CONCERT.
WEST ADAMS METHODIST.

Clyde Collinson, former organist of the First Methodist Church, will give a thirty-minute prelude tomorrow evening in the West Adams Methodist Episcopal Church, Adams and La Salle streets. He has just returned from a year's musical studies in New York. "A Communion or a Congregation—Which?" will be the subject of the sermon in this church tomorrow morning by Rev. W. L. Y. Davis.

TO DISCUSS STRIKES.
REYNOLD BLIGHT'S TALKS.

Reynold E. Blight will speak before the Church of the People tomorrow morning in Blanchard Hall on the subject, "What Fools These Mortals Be." In a prelude he will discuss the ethics of the sympathetic strike. The musical programme will be in charge of Walter Hastings Olney, baritone, and Mrs. W. H. Tanner, pianist.

More than 100 members of the Church of the People will attend the lecture of Sir Rabindranath Tagore next week. It is the custom of this church to arrange special parties to attend worth-while lectures, musical affairs and plays, and at times these parties have numbered several hundred people. The members believe that it is a legitimate part of church work to encourage attendance upon high-class plays and other events.

This church will have its autumn dinner next Friday evening at Christopher's. The speakers will be A. J. Wallace, Mrs. Caspar Whitney, who has recently returned from the battle fields of Europe, and Rev. Ray I. Carter, pastor of the Hollywood Congregational Church.

FOR PASTORS.
MEETING ON MONDAY.

The Congregational Ministers' Union will meet at 10:30 o'clock on Monday forenoon in the parish house of the First Congregational Church, South Hope street, near Ninth street. "Making California Dry" will be the subject of A. J. Wallace, and Nathan Newby will speak on the subject, "Shall Dancing be Permitted in Hotels and Cafes Where Liquor is Sold?" The public is invited to attend this meeting.

MINISTERS TO MEET.
AN ALL-DAY SESSION.

The Southern California Ministers' Association of the Christian Church will have an all-day meeting on Monday in the First Christian Church. The session will convene at 10:30 o'clock and will continue during the afternoon. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

THEOSOPHY.
ITS AIMS AND PURPOSES.

"Theosophy, Its Aims and Purposes," will be the subject of a lecture by C. F. Holland tomorrow night at the headquarters of the Los Angeles lodge, No. 406 Blanchard Building. The speaker will dwell on the reasons for the present widespread interest in theosophic doctrines and will also put forth the practical purpose of theosophic teachings. This will be the opening address of a series of lectures to be given every Sunday evening during the fall and winter. On Monday there will open daily classes in various theosophical subjects, ranging from beginners' classes to those for students of higher metaphysics, also short noonday talks at 12:30. All of these activities are free to the public and all are welcome.

WOMAN DIVER STRIKES BOTTOM.

SPRAINS LIGAMENTS OF BACK IN HER PLUNGE.

Miss Estelle Walcamp is Taken to the Hospital for Treatment and it is Believed that She is Seriously Injured as the Result of Her Headlong Dive into Ocean.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDONDO BEACH, Sept. 29.—Miss Estelle Walcamp of this city sprained the ligaments in her back in such a way that she was taken to a Los Angeles hospital this afternoon.

Miss Walcamp was diving from the new pier in this city and did not gauge her distance. She dived this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock when the tide was very low. The dive was from a concrete pillar thirty feet from the surface of the water. As soon as she hit the water it was seen by the onlookers that something was wrong.

She said her hands and shoulders dug into the mud at the bottom of the ocean bed as soon as she dived. Her back was so badly sprained that she was taken to the hospital. She is twenty years old and one of the best women divers on the coast. She was rescued by Henry Dike, a lifeguard.

TWO YOUNGSTERS GO TO CIRCUS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 29.—Being inmates of the county detention home did not prevent Willis and Lynden Runnels, aged respectively 9 and 11, from seeing the circus unload though they didn't get to see all of the big show. The two youngsters, who are charged with robbing a motorcycle shop with great perseverance, made a square hole in the cement floor of their room and then dug their way to liberty. When Probation Officer Blair was notified of their escape he remembered the lure of the circus and hiked to the grounds, where he found the two.

By Wife He Sued.

POMONA'S FORMER CITY ATTORNEY IS DIVORCED.

Mrs. Daisy Loucks,

Who was granted a decree of divorce from Robert G. Loucks, former City Attorney of Pomona, yesterday.

THE Loucks divorce suit is now a record of the court. It marks the final separation of a young couple prominent socially in Pomona when Robert G. Loucks was City Attorney. Mr. Loucks sought a decree on the ground of extreme cruelty, reciting many sensational incidents in the domestic life. Judge Wood, however, held that he did not prove his case, and granted the decree to Mrs. Daisy Loucks on the ground of desertion.

Aside from denying she had been cruel to her husband, Mrs. Loucks declared he had stayed away from home five and six nights a week. Being prominent in a lodge, Mr. Loucks said, his duties took him out. One night when he did not return for dinner Mrs. Loucks reproved him, and she said he left the house.

The court awarded Mrs. Loucks $40 a month for the support of their son Robert, 7 years old; gave her his custody with permission to the father to see the boy, and made a division of the community property. Mr. Loucks gave Mrs. Loucks the home place on Arlington street, valued at $5000. He read a detailed list of his collection of literature, including an encyclopedia set.

"I have one I will sell you cheap," jocularly remarked the court.

"Then there is a collection of books on poetry," continued Mr. Loucks.

"Possibly some book agent stung you," interpolated the court. "However, what belonged to you before marriage you can have, and what Mrs. Loucks had before she was married goes to her."

BANQUET ENGINEERS.

Delegates Return From National Convention at Minneapolis.

About 150 members of the National Association of Stationary Engineers, Los Angeles Chapter, tendered a banquet to the returned delegates to the recent National convention last night at the Alexandria. Benjamin F. Pearson and Councilman John Topham were the principal speakers following the dinner.

Mr. Topham spoke on the happenings at the convention at Minneapolis, Mr. Pearson discussed the evolution and revolution of engineering in the Twentieth century. He outlined the evolution in industry, commerce, science and manufacture and the consequent revolution in our daily life, and stated that the revolutionary era has just begun.

Mr. Pearson, who is superintendent of the Southern California Edison Company, also predicts that in a few years we will be using solar energy to generate electrical energy.

BRUSH WITH THIEVES.

Deputy Sheriffs Find Two Burglars Fleeing with Loot in a Motor Car; Fight Running Pistol Battle in Fog, with no Casualties.

A pistol battle between deputy sheriffs and two thieves who looted a Lawndale store early yesterday morning, aroused residents along the Redondo Beach boulevard. The robbers broke into the store of Hutchinson & Newman and when seen at work by a passerby, were busy loading an automobile with valuables. Deputy Sheriffs Sweezy, Cleveland and Hotz were sent to the place and arrived just as the men were leaving. They refused to halt when called upon to do so and the officers opened fire, which was returned. In the haze of the morning the faster car of the thieves escaped.

SUBTERFUGE CHARGE

Councilman Conwell yesterday checked the progress of the ordinance to remodel the Efficiency Commission. He refused to agree to the suspension of the rules and the matter went over for a week. He said if the ordinance were offered in good faith as a means of increasing the usefulness of the department, the Efficienty Commission would cordially support it.

"But the ordinance is clearly a subterfuge," he asserted. "It is simply an attempt to accomplish in an indirect method what members of this Council have heretofore failed to accomplish by direct methods."

Councilman Topham took exception to the remark that the ordinance is a subterfuge.

CONSOLIDATION ELECTION OFF?

Mayor Fears "Bug" in Office Welding Amendment.

Special Balloting Plans may be Abandoned Now.

May Reopen Problem of Cafe Dancing Initiative.

There is a probability that the charter amendment election called for October 24 will not be held, it developed yesterday. If this course is decided on an effort will be made to obtain postponement of the voting on the initiative ordinance allowing dancing in hotels and cafes, thus saving the city between $30,000 and $35,000.

The attention of Mayor Woodman was drawn yesterday to the fact that the proposed amendment which would permit the consolidation of the offices of Assessor and Tax Collector in the city and county has a rider which would allow the transfer to the county "of any other municipal functions of the city" other than legislative functions. This can only be done by ordinance approved by the electors but the Mayor considers it dangerous and he is in favor of calling off the election next month.

DISLIKES WORDING.

"I do not think we should hold an election now," he said. "I think this amendment on consolidation is dangerous, the way it is worded. I am thoroughly in favor of city and county consolidation but this does not look good."

Mayor Woodman was emphatic in saying that while he is strong for city and county consolidation he is firmly opposed to county and city consolidation, which is decidedly different. "It makes the tail of the elephant wag the elephant," is the way he put it. "I never will surrender city control to the county."

The sweeping nature of the amendment was called to Mayor Woodman's attention by Lorin A. Handley, president of the Board of Public Works, after a conference with City Treasurer Powell and City Tax and License Collector Conrad. They say the amendment is part of a campaign for the absorption of the city by the county.

DENY IT'S "BUY."

City officials spoke of the amendment as "a bug" but President Betkouski of the Council stated it is not a joker and at the City Attorney's office it was said that the present charter contains practically the same provision. The amendment was included in the freeholders' charter, which was voted down by the people June 6, last.

Attorney Kent K. Parrot, who represented the committee of citizens which prepared the initiative ordinance to allow regulated dancing in hotels and cafes, said it will be entirely satisfactory to the committee if the Council does not call the election but temporarily suspends the ban on cafe dancing, pending the submission of the ordinance to the voters at the next general municipal election.

PAYS DAMAGES.

Edison Company Compromises Damage Case by Stipulation.

The $50,000 damage suit of H. L. Schutte, administrator of the estate of Cornelius Valkhof, against the Southern California Edison Company was compromised yesterday by stipulation. The amount agreed upon is said to be $2000.

Mr. Valkhof was killed when a heavily-charged electric wire fell across a chicken pen in the rear of his home, No. 1634 Grover street, March 28, 1915. The current was communicated to Mr. Valkhof when he grasped the chicken fence to feed the chickens.

The company charged that he was guilty of contributory negligence. The suit was in behalf of Mr. Valkhof's young son, who is in Holland.

HELD ON CHECK CHARGE.

G. A. Morrissey was bound over to the Superior Court yesterday by Justice Forbes on the charge of having passed a check for $10 when he had insufficient funds in the bank. The allegations are made by a representative of the Off & Vaughn Drug Company. The defendant was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

JURIST DEPARTS.

United States District Judge Cushman, who has been holding court in this city the past month, left for home last night. His term begins at Tacoma, Wash., next Monday.

Lawyer Fights.

the Court of Appeal from January 10, last, until May 1, Mr. Wells succeeded in having the proceedings dismissed. A few weeks later the Orange County Bar Association filed another petition in the Supreme Court to have the proceedings of the Court of Appeal reviewed by the higher tribunal. The matter is scheduled to come before the Supreme Court at its session here, October 17.

MANY LEGAL SHOTS.

It is in connection with the approaching hearing that Mr. Wells unlimbered his artillery yesterday.

First, he filed a notice of motion to have the case dismissed on the ground that the decision of the Court of Appeal is conclusive and final.

His next shot was a notice of motion to have the petition stricken from the files on the ground that a review of the proceedings of the Court of Appeal in a matter of admission to the bar is illegal and not authorized under the statutes.

Then he drew a few dozen more legal-looking documents from his portfolio and carefully selected and deposited with the sweating clerk a notice of motion and affidavit to have the name of E. E. Keech stricken from the Orange County Bar Association's petition and to prevent Mr. Keech from offering testimony, on the ground of the confidential relations existing during the trial in 1899.

From the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court Mr. Wells hastened to the Federal court with a voluminous complaint, which alleges that the Orange County Bar Association, E. E. Keech, R. Y. Williams, J. C. Burke, S. M. Reinhaus, L. A. West and several members of the Doe, Roe, Red and Green families, and the Doe-Roe corporation, have damaged his reputation as a lawyer to the extent of $120,000 by sending alleged libelous matter through the mails to judges in Nevada and California. Unfortunately for Mr. Wells, he was too late to file his complaint in the Federal court, but the papers have been placed in the hands of M. C. Atchison, to be filed as soon as the clerk's office is opened this morning.

SPECIFIC CHARGES.

In the complaint Mr. Wells alleges that the defendants did "maliciously, wickedly, corruptly and falsely conspire, connive, abet, encourage and advise" the sending of the alleged libelous matter for the "sole purpose to vex, annoy, worry, discredit and harass" him; to bring him into public scandal and disgrace; to destroy his practice as a lawyer; to oppress and impoverish him, and to injure his professional character.

Embodied in the complaint are letters which Mr. Wells alleges were sent out by the defendants. These letters allege that Mr. Wells is "not a man of business integrity, and that he has been guilty of serious irregularities and improprieties" in his practice as a lawyer; that he secured admission to the bar of Nevada by concealment; that the order authorizing him to practice before the bar in California was induced by fraud, and that "the moral character of Mr. Wells is such that, had it been known to the court at the time of his admission, the application would surely have been denied."

"UTTERLY UNFIT."

Another letter embodied in the complaint, and which Mr. Wells alleges was written over the signature of E. E. Keech and addressed to F. H. Norcross, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Nevada, states that Mr. Wells's "conduct in organizing a social club at Huntington Beach, for the purpose of defeating the prohibitory ordinance in force there, and in advising witnesses against his clients that it was best to forget, as nothing could be done with them if they did not remember, was such convincing evidence of his utter lack of moral standard and appreciation of his duties as a citizen, as convinced the judge, the attorneys on both sides of the case, and everyone who understood the facts, that he was utterly unfit to be trusted with the powers and privileges incident to the practice of law."

The letter closes with an offer to furnish such evidence as the committee of the Orange County Bar Association can, and as may be desired, in the event of disbarment proceedings being instituted in Nevada.

FORGETS BIRTHDATES.

Mother Becomes Angry when Lawyer Questions Her Memory—Family in Court Attempt Violence on Man Accused of Mistreating Girl.

The burning of the family Bible several years ago made it very hard for Mrs. Michael McCarthy to remember the exact birth dates of her eight children. She became incensed at the attorney for Lorraine Hawthorne, accused of a statutory offense against her daughter Grace, when the former questioned her knowledge of the age of various members of her brood. Justice Forbes held that a mother instinctively knows the number of years between the birth of children and their respective ages, and refused to consider dismissal of the charge on the ground that the girl had arrived at the age of consent.

Mrs. McCarthy told of chasing Hawthorne away from her home at the point of a gun on several occasions, but this did not deter him from returning. The girl he is accused of having mistreated was in the courtroom with her baby, an infant only a few months old. Hawthorne is a chauffeur for Dr. Morton, U.S.A. (retired,) who resides at Montecito. He was held to answer to the Superior Court on bond of $2000.

Only the interference of court officers prevented members of the McCarthy family from doing physical violence to the defendant and his attorney when they left the courtroom.

SUIT INDECISIVE.

It was incorrectly stated that Curtis C. Collier obtained judgment against the Farmers' Grain and Milling Company in the former's suit involving blackeye beans sent to the milling company to be cleaned and resacked. Judge York's decision was that neither party takes anything by this action. In this suit the milling company asked for the cost of storing the beans, which were not called for as soon as the work was done. Mr. Collier tendered the cost of cleaning and resacking. Suit was filed and the legal contest turned on the right of the milling company to demand storage charges. It was contended that it could collect only for the work on the beans, as the articles of incorporation said nothing about charging for storage.

Former Huntington Beach lawyer, who is plaintiff in a series of actions against the Orange County Bar Association.

LOSES IDENTITY.

After Murdered Mexican had been Cleaned up Witness Wonders.

When Jose Somero had been cleaned up for the inquest over his body no one could recognize him, and Deputy District Attorney Powell had a hard time to discover an individual that would help establish the "corpus delicti" in order to hold "Bill" Smith, colored, on a charge of murder. Eventually George Robinson, the colored man who had found Somero before he died, concluded it was the same man. "He looked mighty different," said Robinson to Justice Brown.

The witness remembered sufficient bruise marks about the face of the dead man to establish the identity to the satisfaction of the court. Somero had been visiting Smith's sweetheart, Eva Taylor, when the latter found him there, and the ensuing quarrel between the negro and the Mexican resulted fatally for the latter. Smith was bound over to the Superior Court without bail.

SECOND ARREST.

A. C. Nagel was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriffs Fox and Nolan, in his rooms at the Thornton apartments on South Olive street, charged with issuing fictitious checks. Nagel is a hardware dealer and was arrested last week on a similar charge. He was then released on his own recognizance by Justice Brown. Yesterday he was lodged in the County Jail awaiting his arraignment on the new allegations.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(At Home:) A total of 1,750,000 shares changed hands on the New York Stock Exchange, completing four weeks of full sessions in which the daily turnover has reached or exceeded this great figure. In the dealings yesterday an enormous proportion of industrials was dealt in. No such volume of trading has been known on the exchange since the years which marked the many huge industrial combinations and mergers. Bonds participated in the boom, and there was an increased demand for the international war issues, which changed hands at the best quotations in weeks.

(Abroad:) The prospectus of the new 6 per cent. exchequer bonds, to be sold at par and redeemable in 1920, was issued in London.

MILITARY COPS.

The announcement by the new Chief of Police that the police force is to be subjected to army discipline sounds promising.

Army discipline means, among other things, enforced courtesy. Rough talk and ill-bred methods of dealing with the public are among the seven deadly sins of army life. The average policeman could be hugely improved by the addition of a thick coating of etiquette.

Among other improvements it would do no harm if, when the cops marched to their posts, they really marched instead of slouched.

BANISH THE HIGHWAYMEN!

The outrage of the Adamson law, which Gompers, aided by President Wilson, drove Congress into passing, is that it selects a favored class of 400,000 railroad train hands who already are paid more money for less work than the same number of hand laborers anywhere in the world, and bestows upon them about $100,000,000 per annum at the expense of forty times their number of farmers and workers in the factories and at the forges and furnaces of the land.

The American people will be less than loyal to their own manhood if, on account of the Adamson bill alone, they do not vote out of power Mr. Wilson and the Congressmen who yielded to the Wilson-Gompers dictation.

THROWING OFF THE MASK.

Should President Wilson be re-elected in November, it is predicted that we shall witness the pressing of the most radical and socialistic measures ever proposed by an American President. Well, you can't tell.

Some time ago, before going to the White House, Mr. Wilson gave evidence of being a rather stiff-necked conservative who was offended by the restlessness of the working classes. During the last four years he seems to have swallowed Mr. Gompers whole; smiled tenderly upon the I.W.W. thug who attempted to assassinate the Governor of Utah. Which side is he really on, anyhow? Or does he know himself?

LIKE ALICE IN WONDERLAND.

You can't stump the Judge-Advocate-General of the army. As the punishments inflicted upon recreant soldiers are different in time of war from peace-time sentences, a perplexed army officer wrote to the legal department and wanted to know whether war-time sentences or peace-time sentences are now in order.

The Jurge-Advocate-General replied that, while the United States and Mexico are not in a state of war, still it is "time of war" in the United States. Which is only one of the comic-opera phases of this contest. The Carranza army, which only lately attacked and killed our soldiers at Carrizal, has now asked our help, through one of its generals, in the event that Villa attacks across the border from Presidio.

FOR THE POOR MAN.

An eastern writer has described California as a Paradise for the rich, but no place for the poor man. The statement is absurdly sweeping and indefinite. One fact alone covers the whole field as to who should come to the Pacific Coast and who should stay away. For real men and real women there is no place on earth like California.

Of course there are two kinds of poor man, the man poor in spirit and ability and the man not blessed at birth with much of this world's goods. And the last may be richer than his apparently more fortunate neighbor, born with a silver spoon in his mouth. Inherited money alone makes no one rich nor does the lack of it mean poverty.

As to California, all the chances offered in other States for those with energy, honesty and a capacity for work are to be found in the vast western commonwealth—and many opportunities besides peculiar to the Pacific Coast. We have not as yet the same manufacturing industries as are to be found in the urban centers of Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York and the New England States. But we have natural advantages in abundance of raw material, both mineral and agricultural, from which such industries are built, second to none; and the fact that manufacturing here is still in its infancy proves that California is essentially a place for the right kind of "poor" man, the one who comes here to make money—just as welcome out West as the rich who come here to spend it.

FALSEHOODS FOR FODDER.

How it was that the State of Missouri happened to elect James A. Reed to the United States Senate is incomprehensible, for Missouri bears for her motto two words that are a key which unlocks the door of the Temple of Truth. They are an Ithuriel spear whose touch sends Error howling to the depths. They are the words "Show me." Yet among the many wild and ignorant statements made on the floor of Congress during the "consideration" of the Adamson law the blue ribbon should be awarded to Senator Reed. He said that by actual mathematics it could be demonstrated that an engineer holding the throttle on a locomotive on a fast passenger train had to read and record in his own brain six signals every second. Signals are passed at stations. A train running sixty miles an hour traverses eighty-eight feet a second. Are there stations every fifteen feet on any railroad anywhere?

Senator Reed declared that eight hours is enough for that kind of labor and therefore he would support the eight-hour law. The actual fact is—as stated in the Railway Age-Gazette—that the engineers on the Twentieth Century are changed seven times in twenty-four hours between Chicago and New York; that not one of them runs for more than four hours a trip, and that each of them receives considerably more than a day's pay for each trip of three or four hours that he makes on the Century. Five hours is the basis for a day's pay for all passenger engineers on the eastern roads, and no passenger ever rides behind an engineer who works as many as eight hours a day.

Either Senator Reed listened with artless credulity to the romancing of a labor-union delegate or else he is himself a romancer who was not excelled by Mendez Pinto or Munchausen or Ananias. Shakespeare says that "liars go to burning hell," and a later English author asserts that Tom Pepper was kicked out of hell for lying. When Senator Reed leaves this world of sin and sorrow either he will make his home in a climate too sultry to be salubrious or else he will be ejected therefrom by the hoof of His Satanic Majesty.

The American Railway Employees' Journal, in its September number, states that 225 railway presidents receive average salaries of $75,000 per annum; that 225 general managers and 225 traffic managers receive average salaries of $50,000 per annum, and 225 general passenger agents and 225 general freight agents receive average salaries of $40,000 per annum. It makes the salaries "good-will" gifts, and expenses of these officers and those of their assistants, added to those of attorneys, amount to $113,577,000 per annum.

The Railway Age-Gazette corrects these figures on the authority of data furnished by the Interstate Commerce Commission and shows that all the general officers named by the Railway Employees' Journal and, in addition, the vice-presidents, general counsel and heads of the engineering and mechanical departments on all the railroads in the United States are 5740 in number, and their total annual compensation is $21,338,995 instead of $113,577,000 as stated by the Railway Employees' Journal.

The Railway Age-Gazette further says:—

> "A great many people like to answer almost any kind of an argument pertaining to railroad affairs with some poppycock about high salaries or watered stock, and they usually water the salaries even more than they claim the financiers have watered the stock. Many more waste time that might be more profitably devoted to getting their own salaries raised in figuring out how many automobiles they would buy if Mr. Rockefeller would only divide his reputed $1,000,000,000 among 100,000,000 people. The editor of the Employees' Journal reminds the public 'that the above salaries all come out of your pockets;' three-fourths of them do not come out of anybody's pocket, but out of hot air. For his benefit let us refer to statement No. 24 of the Interstate Commerce Commission's Statistics of Railways for 1914, which shows that the total compensation for the year of all railroad officers, both general and other, including some that are less than the wages of some of their organized subordinates, amounted to just $45,586,150. This is less than the amount which Congress has just handed to the train employees to persuade them to kindly refrain from striking. This article in the American Railway Employees' Journal illustrates the monstrous and vicious lies on which railway employees are constantly fed by a large part of the journals published for their especial edification, and indicates one of the principal reasons why there is so much discontent and disloyalty among certain classes of employees."

ARIZONA SENATORSHIP.

Strong assurances come from Arizona that Judge Joseph H. Kibbey will be elected this fall to the Senatorial seat now occupied by that oratorical prodigy, Henry Fountain Ashurst. May it come to pass! Ashurst has been quoted as remarking that Arizona is as safely Democratic as Alabama. He has been advancing his candidacy before the Arizonans by the mails, saving a few thousand dollars by the use of the franking privilege, a small matter that has been called to his notice on the Senate floor. It is understood that his opponent (and Ashurst as well) is limited by law to expenditure at the primary election of not more than $1000. This sum would just about suffice for the mailing of a postal card to each of Arizona's registered voters, but hardly would include the cost of the printing. Ashurst sent each a six-page letter in a nice government envelope, all paid for by the dear people. However, this is only an incident. The main matter before the voters of Arizona is the fact that now they are being given an opportunity to be represented in the Senate by one of their best and brainiest men.

Judge Kibbey is recognized as the foremost legal expert on irrigation in the West, possibly in the entire nation. It was he who first announced the now-accepted doctrine that a water right attaches to a plat of land, from which it cannot be separated without loss of priority privileges. He settled all irrigation disputes within the Salt River Valley, where litigation once was continual. He drew up the plan for water users' associations that was adopted by the Interior Department for all reclamation projects and served as attorney for the Phoenix and Yuma projects. He did good service to the Arizonans, too, as Governor in the later Territorial days, when, defying a Democratic and hostile majority in the Legislature, he forced legislation that raised the taxable valuation of the Territory many millions of dollars and whipped the tax-dodgers into proper support of the government.

THE EVASIONS OF WILSON.

It is difficult to answer the speech made by President Wilson to the bulls and bears of Baltimore for the reason given by the old farmer—who was a member of the Wisconsin Legislature—for not replying to an attack made upon him by a fellow-member. "It strains a man terribly," said he, "to kick at nothing."

Mr. Wilson's speech can be characterized as Hamlet characterized that of Polonius, "Words, words, words." It was destitute of new ideas or of forcible presentation of old ideas. He began his harangue by assuring his hearers that they knew their own business—that of boosting and depressing the price of wheat—better than he did; but when it came to a knowledge of the laws of political economy in their relation to the prices of agricultural products, neither Adam Smith nor Edward Atkinson nor David A. Wells was to be compared with the orator of the day.

He said: "We have only begun in this country the process by which the full product of our agricultural acreage is to be obtained. The agricultural acreage of this country ought to produce twice what it is now producing, and under the stimulation and instruction"—which he would impart—"the agricultural production of the country would be doubled in twenty years, whereas there is no likelihood that the population of this country will be doubled within the same time."

These prophecies of the President were evidently evolved from his inner consciousness rather than from the census returns, which show that between 1800 and 1850—a period of fifty years—the population of the United States increased five times; between 1850 and 1880—a period of thirty years—it a little more than doubled; between 1880 and 1900 it increased only 50 per cent., and between 1900 and 1910 less than 30 per cent.

Between 1850 and 1880 the production of wheat increased 500 per cent.; between 1880 and 1900 it increased only 4 per cent., and between 1900 and 1914 it increased over 70 per cent. Evidently increase of population and increase of wheat production have nothing to do with each other.

The President would have endeared himself to the farmers—who are a little shy of him just now on account of his tariff which placed competing Canadian farm products on the free list, and his increase of railway train hand wages, which increase they must pay in increased freight rates on farm products—if he had disclosed the process, of which he indicated he had knowledge, by which "the agricultural acreage of this country can be made to produce twice what it is now producing."

The President passed, in his speech, from an increase of wheat production to a dissertation on the importance of capturing foreign markets for our productions by enabling American bankers to loan foreign merchants the money with which to buy our products. This may have been interesting to the bulls and bears of Baltimore as an abstract proposition, but with the existing political campaign it was "like the flowers that bloom in the spring, it had nothing to do with the case, tra la."

Upon the living issues before the voters of this country the President said little or nothing, because probably he had nothing to say. He did not explain why he deemed it best to advise American citizens to keep out of Mexico and not to keep out of the cabins of English passenger steamers, or why he deemed it the correct caper to alternately embargo and disembargo the exportation to Mexico of arms and munitions, or why he suffered England to continue censorship of our mails and robbery of their contents without following the example of Sweden and retorting by seizure of British mails?

Concerning the latest and one of the greatest issues of the day, as to whether Federal legislation shall be the result of unintimidated consideration or of labor-union dictation, Mr. Wilson was silent as the grave. How could he be other than silent? Could he defend his course in forcing the Adamson law through Congress by saying that Sam Gompers required it, and that he required the help of Sam Gompers for his campaign?

Concerning the tariff Mr. Wilson said: "We were talking theories and managing policies without a sufficient knowledge of the facts upon which we were acting." Honest confession is said to be good for the soul, and the statement of the President that he did not know what he was doing when he forced the Underwood tariff through Congress might help what Watts's hymn calls his, "sin-sick soul" hereafter, unless the statement is not true. Is it true? Well, it is to be taken with several bushels of salt.

The tariff has been under discussion before the American people at every national election for sixty years, and for an expresident of Princeton to say that he advocated a tariff for revenue only, and was elected upon a platform that favored it, and then, with all the power of the pie counter, forced Congress to enact it and yet acted "without a sufficient knowledge of the facts upon which he was acting" is either an economization of the truth or else a statement that should remit him who utters it to the seclusion of private life. President Wilson told his audience that he "hoped he could find for the tariff commission men who will see the facts and state them, no matter whose opinion those facts contradict." He will have to find them, then, among Republicans, for the kind of Democrats that Wilson would select for members of a tariff commission would not be in the least likely to "state the facts." The President professed to be making a nonpartisan speech and to be advocating a nonpartisan tariff commission; but he did not have enough nonpartisanship in his system to state the fact that the Republicans created a nonpartisan tariff board and the Democrats knocked it in the head. Any nonpartisan tariff inquiry conducted by a Wilsonian administration would be just about as free from partisanship as the President's talk.

The Formidable Tom.

[New York Times: A writer, traveling on foot through the southern mountains studying the people for literary purposes, came upon a man of whom he sought information as to the location of a certain cabin where he had been advised to put up for the night.

"You-all goin' there?" asked the man. "Well, Tom's a fust-class man, take him jest right, but he's mighty queer."

"What do you mean?"

"It's like this: Tom'll be settin' outside most likely, an' he'll see you-all comin'; he'll take a good look at you-all, an' ef you-all don't suit him he may set the dawg on yu. Ef he don't and you gits to talkin' with him, and say anything he don't like he may throw you down an' tramp on you-all. But ef you-all's too careful in your talk, on the other hand, he's liable to git suspicious an' take you-all for a spy an' use his gun fust, an' listen to explanations, afterward. But it ain't no use tryin' to git by without stopping. Ef you-all was to try that, it would be all up, for he'd think you-all was proud an' haughty. Ef you-all wants to come outer the mountain whole, don't go past Tom's cabin without stopping, whatever you do."

The salary of the members of the Shipping Board will only be $7500 instead of $10,000 as originally proposed. But isn't that enough for a deserving Democrat.

HITS AND MISSES BY OTHER PAPERS.

The Ward Is Full.

[Syracuse Post-Standard:] The Sick Man of Europe, while sicker than ever, has a gloomy satisfaction in noting how sick all his royal brethren are.

Might Be Embarrassing.

[Boston Transcript:] The trouble about Mr. Wilson becoming the peace-maker in Europe is that the war isn't likely to end before he does.

Progress in Mexico.

[St. Paul Pioneer Press:] Who says Mexico is not progressing? After producing revolutionists, Constitutionalists, Conventionists, Huertistas, Carranzistas, Villistas and Zapatistas, it now springs "Legalistas."

Cannot Be Blamed.

[Baltimore American:] The foreign diplomats in Washington are alarmed at the United States' steps for retaliation. They must have thought our forbearance and good nature would stand any strain they chose to put upon them.

Broadened by the War.

[St. Paul Pioneer Press:] The war has helped the standards of manhood in several nations, more particularly England and Russia. Thousands of poor English laborers and Russian peasants, who before the war literally never had enough to eat and occupied a plane hardly above that of the beast of burden, have been well fed in the army and made physically fit. Their mental horizons have been broadened and they have been made for the first time to feel themselves men. These men will not be content to resume their former level. They will demand higher standards of living and inevitably get them.

Moreover, the narrow spirit of nationalism, one of the contributing causes of the war, forever has been removed by the mingling of millions of men of different nationalities in the theaters of war. English, French, Russian and Serbian have fought together and all proved themselves men.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

BURROS.

The burros lazily infest the mountain regions of the West. You see them on the dizzy trails, with drooping ears and switching tails; and as they climb the rocky steep, they all seem walking in their sleep. The world has many mournful things, that walk on legs or fly on wings; the moping owl seems so depressed it gives you fantods in your breast; the cross-eyed jackal sits and howls more dismally than all the owls. The circus clown has won renown as being utterly cast down. But if you'd see the soul of woe, pack up your thermos flasks and go out to some rugged western place, and look a burro in the face. There you will find, beneath those ears, the sorrow of a million years. I wondered why he looked so sad, when, in a Colorado grad, I first beheld him packing round a dame who weighed 200 pound. But soon I knew; whe'er he wends, a gale of merriment ascends, and dreary jokes assail his ears and fill his patient eyes with tears. No beast can be a standing jest, and find in life much joy or zest.

WALT MASON.

Germany Needs Oil.

[Wall Street Journal:] Rumania's joining of the Entente shuts off a large source of petroleum supplies which Germany and Austria-Hungary have had since the opening of the European war. This is likely to prove a hardship to the Teuton forces because of the enormous war demand for gasoline and lubricating oil. As a matter of fact, the war is being fought just as essentially on gasoline as it is with powder. The record of the warfare to date shows that railroads serving the battle lines are easily put out of commission by artillery and bomb fire, and that supplying the lines then of necessity has to be by motor trucks. Reports show that enormous volumes of gasoline are being consumed, in one week of the Somme fighting the British using up more than 1,000,000 gallons of gasoline.

The Russian offensive against Austria also threatens destruction of the Galician oil fields. Outside of Galicia and Rumania, Germany is not known to have any large source of petroleum, although she has small fields in Alsace and Hanover.

The extent to which the Central Powers have relied on Rumanian oil supplies is shown by the fact that they took more than 95 per cent. of the exports of petroleum products from Rumania last year. This feature has been especially disappointing to the English, who, for the most part, developed the Rumanian fields. The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is the other large interest in Rumania.

In 1915 Germany, Austria and Bulgaria took 413,000 metric tons out of a total of 429,000 tons exported by Rumania. The record of 1916 shows a continuance of heavy shipments to the Central Powers. The figures for May, the latest available, show total exports of 54,790 tons, against 33,368 tons in May, 1915, an increase of 21,423 tons. Out of total exports of 27,042 tons of lubricating oils, Germany received 26,480 tons, Austria 316 and Bulgaria 221. The other 25 tons went to Turkey. Of total kerosene shipments of 23,615 tons, Germany got 18,983 tons, Austria 269, Bulgaria 532 and Turkey 1576. Germany and Bulgaria took all the Rumanian shipments of residuals.

Preparedness in Texas.

[Houston Post:] The end of the war is coming—some day. The farm loan bank is coming—some day. And settlers are going to pour into Texas in numbers greater than we have ever known—some day. That some day is going to arrive before we are ready for it unless we prepare now.

SWEDEN AND THE WAR.

[CONTRIBUTED TO THE TIMES.]

BY GILBERT MURRAY,

Regus Professor at Oxford University.

THERE is something generally sympathetic to Anglo-Saxons about all Scandinavians. We like the tall athletic figures, the manly and serious faces, the gentleness in normal intercourse touched by a suggestion of the possibility of terrific violence on occasion, the reasonableness with a background of mysticism. Something of this sort is common to all the Scandinavian nations, but their differences are almost as marked as their resemblances.

Sweden especially stands apart from the other two, Norway and Denmark. Her language seems older and more clear-cut, less worn-down at the edges. Her fine courtesy is more old-fashioned. Her beautiful literature broods more upon its memories and has more recently escaped from classicism. In spite of her increasing industrial prosperity the past has more hold upon her. The wars of the seventeenth century seem closer to one there than Napoleon's wars do in France. The noble families, the soldiers, the upper classes generally, cannot yet shake off the influence of those days of proud poverty and intoxicating glory. Charles XII, to say nothing of Gustavus Adolphus or of Bernadotte, is a dangerous possession to a nation of only six million inhabitants. The portraits of the Great Adventurer seem to pursue one from town to town; the delicate face with its sinister half-smile, and a look in the eyes which suggests something like madness almost as much as his history does. It is a curious and a significant coincidence that two learned men in different parts of Sweden assured me that the best modern historians were beginning to hold that the ordinary estimate of Charles XII was quite wrong; his political wisdom was really as great as his generalship.

The past and the East: those are the two influences which may, from our point of view, mislead Sweden. While Norway looks geographically to the west, to the open seas, to Great Britain and America, Sweden looks for most of her external ideas across the shut Baltic, to nothing but Finland and Russia and Germany. And there is no doubt which civilization she places first. The Finns tell her what they think of the Russian government. Everyone who crosses the sea brings back accounts of the dirt and slackness and corruption of the Russian rule and the cleanliness and efficiency of the German. A war between Russia and Germany seems to a sympathetic Swede like a war between all that is backward and stagnant on one side, and all that is strong and enlightened on the other. And if any "new facts" come to shake his faith, there are always the Finns, with their unforgotten wrongs, to confirm it again, and there is the incessant German propaganda.

It is marvelous propaganda. It would be a mistake to think of it as all lies and treachery, or to imagine that one could get such results from ordinary paid agents. Of course there are conscious inventions in abundance, like the official accounts of the damage done in London by the Zeppelins; there are conscious forgeries, like the famous John Burns speech; deliberate and careful lies, like the false quotation from Sir E. Grey, given with date and inverted commas by the greatest German authorities, that "our gain from the war would be even greater if we joined in than if we stayed out." But underneath all the lying there is a burning enthusiasm. The enthusiasm no doubt borders on insanity; it sometimes betrays its own ambitions, it sometimes contradicts itself, it often offends its hearers by its undisguised self-worship. But I think that both by its extreme thoroughness and by the contagious effect of strong faith the German propaganda is a tremendous force.

In Sweden it had a general start of twenty years or more in time of peace, and a special start of three weeks at the beginning of the war, when all communication with England was cut off and for a long time Swedish newspapers got all their news from German sources. Probably Sweden is the only country in the world where humane and highly educated men think the sinking of the Lusitania a legitimate piece of policy, and the violation of Belgium a necessary act of self-defense. I even found a minister of religion, a pleasant and well-informed man, who considered that the proper way to have avoided the war was for Russia to have laid down her arms and asked the Kaiser, as a disinterested and high-minded person, to arbitrate; and that even now the same method was still open to the allies, and the same disinterested arbitrator still willing to act!

This sort of argument did not shake me much. Nor yet did the questions of a sad Finnish lady, who wanted to know why we blew Indian rajahs from guns for not volunteering, and why Lord Kitchener was so cruel to the fellaheen. Presumably she was quoting a German leaflet. Perhaps the quaintest argument that I met with anywhere was Prof. Liszt's final defense of the invasion of Belgium: the invasion was perfectly legal, because it has been discovered that there was a treaty of 1810 by which German troops were to assist in garrisoning the fortresses of Liege and Namur.

Unwelcome Statistics.

[Cleveland Plain Dealer:] Five hundred churches in Kansas have closed on account of lack of attendance. It is not likely that this item will be included in the Kansas statistics constantly quoted by the Prohibitionists.

Other States Need It Too.

[Chicago Herald:] One of the principal tax reforms Illinois needs is the removal of the tax on the time and patience of the voter resulting from too many elections and too long tickets.

PASADENA, Sept. 29.—The re-membrances of relatives and friends ar at hand, and congratulatory ssages from various parts of Cali-rnia, made a happy day yesterday r Judge J. H. Pryor, native son d pioneer journalist of the Golden ate, on the occasion of his sixty-h birthday anniversary. The day's ys ended with a dinner party at lovely home, No. 227 Oaklawn enue, one of the show places of sadena, and a theater party in e evening.

Judge Pryor is a character. His tire life has been intermingled th the progress of California; for was born in a log cabin with a rt floor, near Stockton, in 1851. He s not only the honor of being the stborn in his own family, but made s initial appearance the same year at the State was admitted into the sterhood forming the constellation the Union — a distinction owned few and an honor to the judge, he says with a twinkle in his eye. He belongs to the old school of itors, who wrote as they shot, aim- at the bullseye and letting the hips fall where they may." He tered a printing office to work the y after Lincoln was shot, and that s in San Francisco, on the old Alta alifornian. Here he learned the de. He "pulled galleys," carried ssages and listened to the vigor- s language of the foreman, so at he became in time a real jour-yman. It was not long before he s owner of a newspaper, and the ar 1871 found him running a daily San Jose, during the days of the ranco-Prussian War. Later on he blished newspapers in Shasta and arin counties and in Red Bluff, San afael, Sausalito, Pasadena and oth- points. Incidentally he has ac-ired a fortune — a rare circum-ance in the country field, which lls the story of the judge's ability, nothing more.

"In those early days I had to er a great many stage robberies, ngings, duels and similar events," dge Pryor said yesterday. "As a porter I had the unusual experi-ce of capturing a stage robber and ving him on my hands all day ithout knowing what to do with m. It happened in Shasta county.

"The robber was a desperate-look- g individual. I kept my gun point- at him all day and did not take y eyes off him. I was convinced at he was eager for an opportunity catch me off my guard and spring me. It certainly was a great re- ef when I was able to turn him er to the authorities.

"Three months ago I went back Anderson and visited the same ore. To my surprise the original oprietor was still there, his hair aving grown snow-white in the in-rval. We recalled the incident and told me something I didn't know. e said that as I was leaving the ore with the robber the bad man yly dropped a purse of money hich he had taken from the stage-ach passengers. Young men around e store picked up the purse and ept the money without saying any-ing to me or the Sheriff."

Ten years ago Judge Pryor came Pasadena purposing to retire om active business, but he soon scovered that he was not happy way from the odor of ink and he ught a half-interest in the Pasa-na News, later selling his holdings hen he and his family started to urope for extensive travel. LAWYER BUILDING MOUNTAIN HOME.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BANNING, Sept. 29.—Oscar Lawler, former United States District Attorney of Los Angeles, is having a unique log house built on land recently acquired by him along the picturesque Banning-Idyllwild road a few miles south of this city. It is located in the Cleveland National Forest, and in the big timber belt. Some of the biggest logs of the forest are being used in construction and wide verandas are conspicuous in the architecture. The house overlooks beautiful Dark Canyon, home of deer and lions, where solitude reigns supreme. From the porch of his new log palace the Los Angeles lawyer will be privileged to cast his fly into the mad waters of the brook and haul in the festive trout at will.

PENSIONS RUN INTO A LARGE AMOUNT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SOLDIERS' HOME, Sept. 29.—The sum of $129,480.40 was disbursed in cash to veteran pensioners yesterday, for the quarter ending September 4; today there is being forwarded to pension members, now on furlough, checks totaling $61,078.10; amount still to be received from the Pension Bureau in Washington is $12,594.41, making a total for this quarter of $203,152.91.

The number going on furlough was not as great as the previous, due, of course, to the near approach of the rainy season.

There were but eighty-nine furloughs, granted to date, and thirty-six discharges recorded. The exodus on the occasion of the June quarterly pension payment totaled 224.

Ronald Moore, chief pension clerk, was, on pension day, made the happy father of an eight-pound boy. Ronald is not quite sure whether he will be named after the coming Republican President, or after the father of our country, but anyhow he's "going to start right in," he says, "grooming him for a future President."

The coming Saturday, much to the regret of every veteran in camp, will witness the last baseball game of the season.

PART OF DESERT BEING RECLAIMED.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BANNING, Sept. 29.—One of the largest local development projects is being undertaken about fifteen miles northwest of this city by the Morongo Development Company of Pasadena and Banning. In order to divert the Big Morongo River for irrigation a hill is being tunneled through. Several hundred acres of land will be irrigated. Power will be generated by the stream.

Pomona.

WEINSTOCK FAILS TO WIN CITRUS GROWERS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

POMONA, Sept. 29.—Harris Weinstock's recent trip, as State market organizer, into the citrus belt, proved to be a failure. He talked at Riverside, at Pomona, Santa Ana and several other places. He met the orange, lemon and walnut growers. He preached the doctrine of co-operation, organization, distribution and all that, but the orange producers could not see it his way. They told him so plainly, and he admits his defeat.

The eight hundred citrus growers who constitute the seven co-operative packing and marketing associations in the San Antonio Fruit Exchange have unanimously declared their opposition. At their annual meetings during the past few days all of the associations adopted the following resolution, which is a duplicate of that which was forwarded to Mr. Weinstock today by P. J. Dreher who is general manager of the San Antonio Fruit Exchange:

"At the annual meeting of the stockholders of this association the following resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote:

"Whereas this association, together with other associations affiliated with it in the San Antonio Fruit Exchange, has by its acts throughout the twenty-four years of its existence fully demonstrated its hearty belief in and adherence to the principles of co-operation, and its readiness at all times to forward such principles, now be it

"Resolved that whenever the members of this association are satisfied that the real interests of co-operative marketing can be forwarded by joining the State bureau they will gladly lend their support to said bureau, and further be it,

"Resolved that they are now fully convinced that under present conditions the action of the San Antonio Fruit Exchange and the California Fruit Growers' Exchange in declining to affiliate with the bureau was wise and right, and such action is hereby approved."

This communication was signed by S. H. Rupert, who is secretary of the Indian Hill Citrus Association and is in sense identical with the resolution adopted by the growers at the other packing houses. The associations which have adopted it are the Walnut Fruit Growers, LaVerne Orange Growers, Pomona Fruit Growers, El Camino Citrus, College Heights Orange, Claremont Citrus and Indian Hill Citrus associations.

SLY TRICK OF JAP FISHERMEN.

They Sell Their Tuna to a Boat on High Seas.

Regardless of the Fact They Contracted Otherwise.

Application Now in Courts for Injunction.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Sept. 28.—The decision of Judge Wellborn in Superior Court next Tuesday upon the application of seven tuna packers for an injunction to prevent Halfhill Tuna Company of Long Beach from buying fish from Japanese fishermen under contract to deliver the same fish to another concern may have an important bearing upon the tuna industry in the future.

Whether the white canners or the Japanese shall dominate the packing industry is a question that is deeply agitating the men in the cannery business. Ever since the industry started the canneries have depended principally upon Japanese fishermen. So keen did the competition for fish become that the canneries were compelled to finance the fishermen and advance them funds to build bigger and better boats.

A year ago this led to the organization of a central association, known as the Tuna Exchange, for the purpose of buying the fish and apportioning the catches among the canneries. The plan resulted in considerable dissatisfaction and was abandoned after one season.

This season each cannery has received fish upon individual contracts. The season has been a poor one, and, with the exception of three weeks in August, there has at no time this year been sufficient fish to run the canneries to full capacity.

The Halfhill cannery was not a member of the Tuna Exchange and did not adopt the methods of the other canneries to any great extent in financing the Japanese. Instead, it is alleged, the Halfhill company built a big tender boat and went out on the high seas and bought fish at an advanced price from the Japanese who were under contract to deliver all their fish to other companies.

It also developed that the Japanese canneries were getting plenty of fish when those owned by white men who had furnished the money to build most of the boats were getting few fish. There is a State law that an alien shall not own a fishing boat, but this law has never been enforced. If the white canners can find no other means of preventing violation of their contracts they now threaten to invoke the aid of this law.

BEEFSTEAK DINNER FOR SECRETARIES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Sept. 29.—Most of the secretaries of the chambers of commerce of Southern California will be here tomorrow as the guests of R. O. Bonnell, secretary, and the local Chamber of Commerce. The meeting will be held at Glen Martin, in Mill Creek Canyon, on the new road to Big Bear Valley.

Among the speakers will be Secretary E. D. Egilbert of the California Development Board; S. Glenn Andrus of Sacramento, president of the State association; A. S. Dudley of Los Angeles, and Ernest Morrow of Riverside. Mr. Egilbert will speak on "State Displays."

Local business men will take the visitors to Glen Martin in their machines. A beefsteak dinner will be served and the meeting held in the afternoon.

CATCHES FOUR-POUND TROUT AT BIG BEAR.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BIG BEAR VALLEY, Sept. 29.—Gail Gowland, the young son of Herbert Gowland of Redlands, is a chip off the old block, for he proved his right to the title of sportsman when he came in from the lake here with the largest catch made for several weeks. The boy caught the limit and the prize beauty of his creel was a four-and-a-quarter-pound trout, one of the finest caught for a week.

His father is one of the real Izaak Waltons of the south and has hung up several trout records himself. It is hard to say whether he or his son is proudest of the catch made by young Gowland. The boy gets the entire credit for his basket as he had no help with any of his strikes.

Fishing is much better than it has been. Fred Gowland, P. N. Norton and Harvey Phillips were out on the lake with Gail Gowland and they all caught some beauties. The cold weather has made the trout bite better according to old timers.

FINED WOMAN FACE KICKER.

Santa Ana Women Get in Fight and Husband Interferes in the Fray.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Sept. 29.—W. W. Reed today paid a fine of $20 for kicking Mrs. Emma Gay in the face.

He said Mrs. Gay was choking his wife to death, and he had first spoken gently and kindly to Mrs. Gay, urging her to desist from choking Mrs. Reed, and when those kind words failed, Reed kicked. He sprained his foot.

Mrs. Reed said that it was she who did the kicking. "I was not present when Mrs. Reed kicked me in the face," said Mrs. Gay sarcastically. "It was her husband who kicked me."

Long Beach.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

"Spotless Town" Advocates Oppose the Idea of Making for the City a Commercial Harbor, and Favor Pleasure Resort Free from Cinders.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Sept. 29.—A struggle between those who believe in factories and those who declare that the city's greatest asset is its beach and its residence section, unbesmirched by smoke, is on.

The fight will end on October 11, when the vote for bonds in the sum of $350,000 to improve the harbor will be counted.

The first gun in the campaign of the opponents of the harbor bonds was really fired at the flood control mass meeting. Members of the newly-organized Property Owners' League declare that an unsullied beach and a clean West Long Beach is essential to their peace and happiness. It was stated that this league is secretly laying plans to defeat the harbor bonds, which means the acquisition of more industries, and more outside money.

The "spotless town" advocates declare that they do not want the class of citizens attracted by a factory town; that they want the air, the streets and the beach chaste and immaculate, free from cinders which lodge in the eye or smoke which gums up the clothes on the line in the back yard.

The liberal element, and the great majority of business men, however, are body and soul for the bonds, and will work for them tooth and nail. They point out that Long Beach's growth depends upon its harbor, and the expansion of its industries. The harbor is now filled up with silt, and almost useless. The bonds must either be sanctioned, or the harbor will go into decay, they declare.

A project for spending a half-million dollars for a horseshoe pier is also to be voted upon, but not one person in a dozen believes it will carry. In fact, the boosters for the harbor bonds fear that the pier bonds will carry the harbor project down into oblivion.

SYNDICATE PLANS PLANT FOR SHIPS.

FIFTEEN MILLION DOLLARS TO BE INVESTED.

Inspection of the Tank Steamer Brea Causes the Rumor to Float in Shipping Circles of the Port. Belief Expressed Opportunity Now Exists for Big Profit.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Sept. 29.—That a syndicate of millionaires who made their money in Southern California oil are planning to invest about $15,000,000 in a modern shipbuilding plant at the harbor, is the rumor in shipping circles, following the inspection of the new tanker La Brea, which sailed for South America with a cargo of crude oil.

The tank steamer, inspected by a group of oil men, was recently built by the Union Oil Company, but according to rumor, the new syndicate is not confined to the stockholders interested in one company. Shipyards along the coast have contracts for vessels that will keep them busy at least three years and the demand for new ships made the need of new yards urgent.

It is known that one of the leading oil men of Los Angeles made an extensive study of conditions of this coast a few months ago with a view of establishing a plant here. His decision in the matter hinged, it is said, on the question of getting steel cheaply enough to meet the competition of eastern yards. This problem is now said to have been solved although details have not yet been made public.

EARL M'MURRAY WHO CAN HE BE?

Mystery Surrounds Finding of Body in Canyon.

Letters from Prominent Men in England.

Believed to Have been Member of Elks' Lodge.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

OWENSMOUTH, Sept. 29.—Who was Earl McMurray?

What motive led him to seek the seclusion of a lonely canyon in the foothills three miles west of Owensmouth about the tenth of September? What caused his death?

These questions are being asked by all who hear of the mysterious demise of the man whose badly decomposed body was discovered by a range rider. The Coroner's office was notified by telephone, but so far as known no investigation of the case was made. A Van Nuys undertaking company was requested to prepare the body for removal to the city, but owing to its condition this was found impracticable.

Accordingly, the Coroner's office on Monday authoried the undertaker to bury the body on the spot, which was done. A blanket was wrapped about the body, and then it was rolled into a five-foot hole. It is said that in about thirty days it will be possible to exhume the remains and examine same for clews as to the cause of the mysterious death.

From letters found in a suit case belonging to the deceased, it is learned that Mr. McMurray was well known in London and several letters of recommendation from prominent Englishmen were found among his effects, but nothing to indicate the nature of his mission to this country. Beside the body were found several empty whisky bottles, and it is surmised that alcoholism was the cause of his death. On the other hand, the letters of recommendation state that the writers knew him as a sober, industrious man.

Several letters were found from members of the Elks order in Bakersfield, indicating that he had spent some time at that place. Local Elks say that steps will be taken to investigate the case as soon as possible.

CONVERT GETS OFF EASY.

Santa Ana Man Convicted on Criminal Libel Charge Given Freedom.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Sept. 29.—This afternoon Judge Thomas ordered sentence withheld for one year in the case of Cyrus L. Adams, convicted a week ago on a charge of criminal libel in that he passed out handbills at Orange charging J. W. Morrison, Ralph Fuller and K. E. Watson of that place with selling their votes in a State Senatorial convention eight years ago for $100 apiece.

Adams declared today that he did not know he was committing a crime, but that he thought he was doing right in trying to prevent the election of K. E. Watson as a City Trustee of Orange. He said he had no other object in circulating the handbills.

Adams declared that three and a half years ago he was converted, gave up the life of a drunkard and is now engaged frequently in speaking in churches. A plea for leniency was made on the ground that Adams did not know he was committing a crime.

GOES TO JAIL FOR SELLING LIQUOR.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BARSTOW, Sept. 29.—E. R. Waite, who has been in business here for several years, and who was convicted this week in the Superior Court for illegally selling whisky and sentenced to ninety days in the County Jail, and to pay a fine of $300, left this morning for San Bernardino to begin his sentence.

This is the second conviction under the new county ordinance, which imposes a jail sentence, Fred Isch of Victorville being now in the County Jail. There is a case pending against C. W. Bruce of Barstow for the same complaint.

Rheumatism Due to Bad Blood. S.S.S. Your Remedy

Thousands have been made well. People in the poorest health, suffering from Rheumatism, with whom pain was constant. Who believed that their vitality was sapped beyond repair. It was proven to them that the cause of their trouble was the blood; that Uric Acid, the most faithful ally of Rheumatism, had gripped them. The poison in the blood had sapped its strength. The weakened blood had allowed poison and impurities to accumulate, and all energy was gone. They felt "poorly" were listless, pain was ever present, with poor digestion and dyspepsia. They tried S.S.S.—nature's blood tonic. They gave up drugs. This compound of nature's remedies of roots and herbs did what drugs failed to do. It literally washed the blood free from poison, and with the flow of pure blood came back health, strength, vigor and happiness. Get S.S.S. from your druggist. Insist upon S.S.S. A Joy
A Boy

One who has a strong body, a clear mind, and, above all, a clean heart; one who is courteous to old age and respectful to father and mother; one who has kept his soul sweet.

Parents, to get such results as these is the greatest work in the world—and these are some of the things which my school is emphasizing. The highest recognitions from the Government and from Universities have been secured in less than six years' time, but I have not yet reached my own ideal. But I am working earnestly and enthusiastically to make it such a school to which you can gladly entrust your boy, as many loyal patrons have been doing.

TO STOP HEAVY TEAR ON ROADS

Delegates of Seven Counties Plan for State Law.

Committee Chosen to Take up Freight Truck Problem.

Uniform Standard for Weight of Load is Sought.

The increasing number of freight and passenger-carrying motor vehicles on Southern California highways and the tendency to overload them, to the detriment of the costly concrete roads, may be dealt with in a new State law. The preservation of these highways, constructed at great expense under the workings of a general law applicable to all the counties of the State, was discussed by the Supervisors of seven southern counties and representatives from civic bodies, at a meeting held in the extra sessions courtroom on the second floor of the Courthouse yesterday morning.

Supervisor Hinshaw presided, with Karl Carlton, a Supervisor of Riverside county, secretary. County Counsel Hill was present in the capacity of legal adviser, and, while the meeting was called to discuss the weight of loads to be carried by motor trucks and other freight-carrying motor vehicles, it branched off to the jitney-bus question.

A man from Ontario wanted to know why property owners should be subject to heavy expense for constructing highways bordering their lands when jitney busses, carrying great loads, tear along at great speed, endangering the lives of automobilists, and are not taxed for road improvement.

LAW VIOLATED.

The jitney bus has both its opponents and its adherents. The end sought by the delegates is to regulate the weight of loads and the speed of the trucks. In this county the ordinance provides that the weight shall not be greater than 800 pounds to the inch of tire width. This provision is violated, it was contended, and instances were quoted to that effect.

It was thought the best way of getting at the problem was to appoint a committee, comprised of a supervisor from each of the seven southern counties, which committee should have the benefit of the advice of the county engineers and representatives from civic bodies. The committee will consider the problem from the viewpoint not only of those caring for the highways, but of those who use them for business purposes. The big concerns employing trucks promise their co-operation.

THE COMMITTEE.

Chairman Hinshaw named the following members of the committee, which will meet at the call of the chair:

W. J. Kincaid, San Bernardino; C. D. Hamilton, Riverside; William Shoemaker, Orange; T. S. Clark, Ventura; M. Westfall, San Diego; J. J. Carr, Imperial; R. W. Pridham, Los Angeles; Robert Brain and John Topham, Los Angeles City Councilmen; Truston Clark, Pomona, Street Superintendent; F. C. Bell, Chamber of Commerce, Ontario; A. E. Brock, president of the Board of Trustees, Redlands; W. V. Darling, Riverside, Street Superintendent; George McFee, Santa Ana, Councilman.

Some of the delegates at the meeting yesterday will attend the convention of municipal leagues at Visalia next month and press this question of a uniform law covering truck loads. Councilman Brain invited the delegates to attend the meeting of the Council and truckmen, called at the City Hall next Tuesday.

Among the business concerns and clubs represented yesterday are: Motor Transportation Company, W. W. Colwell; Motor Truck Club of California, C. S. Howard; Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce, P. H. Ducker; Southern California Edison Company, Goodrich Rubber Company and Bloomington Chamber of Commerce.

"Clean."

FEW COUNTERFEITS.

Special Treasury Department Agent Takes Exception to Published Statements to Effect This Vicinity is "Flooded" with Bad Coins.

Exception was taken yesterday by Special Agent Hazen of the Treasury Department to published statements to the effect that Los Angeles and its environs are "flooded" with counterfeit $5 coins. Mr. Hazen declares, on the contrary, that this section of California has never been so "clean" of counterfeit money of all kinds. There is a considerable record of recent convictions of counterfeiters, and in part as a result of this cleaning up, it is believed but two or three bad coins have been turned in at Mr. Hazen's office during the past month—an almost unprecedented record.

FOR MAIL THEFT.

Decorator Arrested by Inspectors, Charged With Stealing Package.

Harry Hall, an exterior and interior decorator, living at No. 1740 Magnolia avenue, was taken into custody at Coulter's store yesterday, where a sub-station of the local postoffice is located, by Postoffice Inspector Webster, charged with intercepting a parcel post package. According to information, Hall picked up the package from the counter where it had been deposited for mailing.

The package contained a small consignment of plants, sent by L. Breslin, No. 656 Stanford avenue, to Mrs. Fred Homan, Cold Springs, Ind. The "catch" was practically worthless to any person besides the consignee

FLIGHT TO DEATH.

Ill Insane Patient Escapes in Night-Clothes—Effects Feared.

Jose Orosco may in his desire for freedom be the unknowing cause of his own death. A tuberculosis patient at the new State Hospital for the Insane at Norwalk, Orosco, early yesterday morning managed to slip out of his room and get away, clad only in his nightshirt. When his disappearance was discovered, a group of attendants searched the surrounding country but failed to locate him. Fear is expressed that his exposure may lead to his early death.

Lingerie—Truly Surprising Values

Philippine Hand Embroidered Undermuslins

Because we want you all to know about these exquisitely hand-embroidered and neatly hand-sewn garments we have made a little special sale. They equal the French product in every way, but as there is no duty and the Philippine maidens ask modest returns for their handiwork, we are able to put them into your hands for very much less than the cost of the French made lingerie. Then when we reduce these already low prices for this special sale, you can see the advantage of coming down town early this morning.

Coulter Dry Goods Co.
ESTABLISHED 1878

Prof. J. B. Trowbridge,

New director of music at the Los Angeles Bible Institute, who will also become choirmaster for the great chorus of the Church of the Open Door.

Rapid Growth.

WILL NEARLY DOUBLE STUDENT BODY.

NOTABLE PROGRESS FOR THE BIBLE INSTITUTE.

Strong Addition to the Faculty is Prof. J. B. Trowbridge, Who will Also Become Choirmaster for the Church of the Open Door, Worshiping in Great Auditorium.

Registration of students for the fall term of the Bible Institute began on Wedensday, the attendance on the opening day being far the largest in the history of the institute. The indications are that the hopes of Supt. Horton for 1916-17 will be realized in an enrollment almost double that of last year.

Dr. R. A. Torrey continues as dean and Dr. William Evans as associate dean. The complete faculty and the work of each in connection with the school is as follows: R. A. Torrey, Bible doctrine, book studies, textual and literary criticism, personal work, evangelism; William Evans, Bible synthesis, Bible analysis, homiletics, Bible teachers' training class, public speaking; John H. Hunter, chapter summary, Biblical introduction, Sunday-school methods, missions, church history, Christian evidences; Thomas C. Horton, practical methods of work, pastoral theology, work for young men; H. J. Baldwin, Biblical introduction, practical methods; Mrs. Frances C. Allison, practical methods of Christian work for women; John B. Trowbridge, notation harmony, voice culture, conducting, music teachers' training class; Charles H. Marsh, piano, pipe organ, harmony, composition; F. J. Purcell, lecturer on medical knowledge necessary for a missionary. Other instructors not members of the faculty are: Mrs. Charles H. Marsh, accompanist, soloist, voice culture; Mrs. H. J. Baldwin, piano, voice, Sunday-school methods; Miss M. C. Lincoln, violin.

Prof. Trowbridge, the new director of music, is a graduate of Cornell University, Cornell Conservatory of Music, and the American Conservatory of Music, and has studied under the country's best vocal teachers. In addition to his work as a member of the faculty of the Bible Institute, he becomes choirmaster for the Church of the Open Door, of which Dr. R. A. Torrey is pastor. He comes from fourteen years' connection with the Moody Bible Institute, and eight years at McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, as teacher of singing.

Mrs. Frances C. Allison, the new superintendent of women, graduated from the Moody Bible Institute in 1902, and for eight years subsequently served the same institution as superintendent of all women's practical work. She was also in evangelistic work as Bible teacher and women's worker with Dr. Milford Lyon; filled the same position with Rev. Bob Jones, and recently has been acting as pastor's assistant in Denver. Dr. F. J. Purcell, who becomes lecturer on desirable medical equipment of missionaries, is a physician and was for many years a medical missionary in the foreign field.

Splendid.

DISPENSARY FOR SCHOOLS OPENS.

DENTAL DEPARTMENT WILL BE READY TOMORROW.

Remainder of Institution will Receive Patients in a Week—It is Equipped with Furniture Made by Boys and is Complete in its Needs.

The $45,000 public school dispensary, funds for which were donated by the late O. T. Johnson, and which is located at No. 936 Yale street, will be partially opened tomorrow morning. Four sections of the dental department will be ready for patients in the morning, the remainder of the institution will not be ready for patients until a week from tomorrow.

The building is being equipped with furniture made by boys of the sloyd departments of the city schools. The institution will care for all children whose parents are unable to secure the proper medical assistance for them. There will be an osteopathic department, an operating room, an extensive dental department, reception hall, eye, ear, nose and throat department, a gymnasium for boys and one for girls, and numerous other features. Glasses will be fitted to children's eyes and provided free of charge in cases where the parents are unable to pay for the work. The institution is under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth McManus, special chairman, appointed by the Parent Teachers' Federation, and Dr. I. R. Bancroft, director of the school health department. The building will have to depend upon public subscription for its complete equipment.

INDUSTRIAL ISSUES ARE IN ENORMOUS DEMAND.

Dealings on New York Exchange Round Out Fourth Successive Week of Five Full Sessions Each in Which Transactions Reach or Exceed One Million Shares, a Record Without Precedent in Many Years.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Dealings on the Stock Exchange today rounded out the fourth successive week of five full sessions each and one week-end of two-hour session in which transactions reached or exceeded one million shares. This is a record without precedent since the years which marked the many industrial combinations and mergers, including that of the United States Steel Corporation.

Today's turnover of 1,750,000 shares was not only the largest with one exception for the current movement, but was even more noteworthy for the enormous proportion of industrials dealt in, that group as a whole completely eclipsing the rails, coppers and other issues in which speculation recently was most active.

United States Steel led throughout, rising to 120⅝, a new record on sales of about 380,000 shares. Other iron and steel shares, conspicuous for their strength and activity, included Republic Iron and Steel at the new record of 83⅝.

Gains of 1 to nearly 5 points were scored by Colorado Fuel, American Car, Crucible, Lackawanna and Sloss-Sheffield steels, Cast Iron Pipe, Railway Steel Springs, Pressed Steel Car, New York Air Brake and American and Baldwin Locomotives. Even the most obscure issues of this group awakened from their long lethargy, sharing more moderately in the upward movement. Profit-taking reduced some extreme gains by 1 to 2 points at the close.

Rails were backward, but displayed a strong undertone, particularly Union Pacific and the Coalers, Lehigh Valley, for example, recovering its quarterly dividend twice over at an advance of 2⅝ points.

Many war and semi-war issues benefitted by the rise in industrials, together with petroleums and sugars.

Bonds were active and strong, with an increased demand for the international war issues, which changed hands at best quotations for some weeks. Total sales were, par value, $5,466,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

UNION FEATURES ON LOCAL EXCHANGE.

OIL LEADER GAINS A FULL POINT.

Belief Widespread that Doheny is Going to Take Over Company. Ivanhoe Leads Trading in Oatman List — Big Jim Firm. Adams Higher.

Union Oil was the chief sensation at yesterday's session of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange when the security jumped to 98.50 at one stage of the meeting. The belief seems to be widespread in local financial circles that E. L. Doheny is going to take over Union and add it to the assets of the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company. Early in the proceedings Friday orders for Union began to pour in and in the morning alone a total of 294 shares changed hands at prices ranging from 96.37½ to 98.50. Taking into consideration off board sales approximately 440 shares were sold during the day. It looks at present as if Union was sure to sell at par within another week. Associated was not as strong as the previous day and dropped off a full point when closing transactions were recorded at 68.50. The mining shares were very active and the market for the Oatmans showed some improvement in values with an increased demand as compared to Thursday. Ivanhoe was the leader of this group and under the power of a heavy buying demand a total of 35,700 shares were sold at prices ranging from 11½ to 12¾. Tom Reed was a little easier, but the market for that stock was practically a professional one, as the insiders do not want to see anything in the way of a bull movement start in Tom Reed. Big Jim was firm and the stock continued to be a favorite on the New York curb but was not exceptionally active here. Lucky Boy sold informally at 16 and a large quantity of Gilt Edge was transferred. Adams continued to bring better quotations when 2500 shares sold at 13½. Development work on the property of that company has now reached a point where an ore strike of magnitude may be expected almost any old time. Carter and Oatman Queen were about the only weak mines yesterday, the latter in particular being off color at 8. Industrials were dull with the public showing little interest in that class of securities.

SEPTEMBER WHEAT AT NEW HIGH MARK.

HEAVY PROFIT TAKING SUCCEEDS BULL MOVEMENT.

Continued Drought in Argentine Flurries the Shorts and Prominent Speculators Who Have been Conspicuous on the Buying Side are the Chief Sellers.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—After wheat in some cases today had touched the highest prices this season, heavy profit-taking by holders led to a decided setback. The chief bullish influence continued to be the lack of rain in Argentina. Closing prices here, however, were weak, ⅝ to 1 net lower, with December at 1.54⅛ and May at 1.53⅝. Corn finished ⅜ off to ⅛ up, oats at ⅛ decline to ⅛ advance, and provisions unchanged to 25 down.

Throughout most of the session wheat showed unmistakable strength. Indeed, until the last thirty minutes of trading quotations were well above yesterday's finish. The continued drought in Argentina had flurried the shorts, especially in regard to the September delivery.

Prominent speculators who for some time have been conspicuous on the buying side of wheat were the chief sellers after the September option had ascended to 1.57⅝, a new high record for 1916. Aside from the liberal profit-taking by holders, there seemed to be no development to account for the late weakness. In the end, however, the selling attained such volume that almost in a literal sense the pit seemed to be full of wheat.

Corn largely paralleled the action of wheat. Unfavorable crop news from Argentina was virtually offset by heavy selling on the part of the owners here. Oats merely reflected on a small scale the course of other cereals. Trading was not especially active at any time.

Provisions averaged lower with hogs. Lard was relatively steady on account of buying ascribed to packers.

Dun's Review.

EVERYBODY IS WORKING AND GETTING MORE PAY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Dun's review tomorrow will say:

"Restraining influences hamper but do not check progress, current reports adding to the accumulated evidence of prosperity in industry, trade and transportation. Holiday observances have had the usual effect of temporarily limiting business in some branches and labor conditions still restrict manufacturing operations; yet bank clearings at most leading centers, as well as at the smaller cities, mount upward steadily and other statistical barometers also make remarkably gratifying exhibits.

"The high and rising prices constitute a source of complaint and cause some hesitancy in forward commitments, but the purchasing power is sustained by the full employment of workers at advanced wages and signs of contraction in consumption are the exception.

"It is noteworthy that demands are broadening in practically every direction, following the partial let-up in midsummer, and retail distribution, under the stimulus of recent cool weather, has developed in a way that foreshadows a record movement during fall and winter.

"Weekly bank clearings, $4,879,397,486."

ARIZONA RAY COPPER 26c

I consider it has greater possibilities than Jerome Verde and should be to the great Ray Consolidated what United Verde Extension is to United Verde. I was one of the organizers of Jerome Verde and sold over a million shares of that stock at from 10c to $1 per share, and sold thousands of shares of United Verde Extension at from 50c to $1 per share, now $40 per share. I predict $1 a share for Arizona Ray. Buy it today and tomorrow at 26c. Telegraph your orders, stating number of shares wanted, and follow with remittance by mail. I will forfeit $100 if you visit the property and do not find it as represented.

Business Page: Citrus Fruits, Butter and Eggs—Current Trade—Local Produce Market

COMMERCIAL.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The first cranberries of the 1916 season arrived in Los Angeles yesterday when one of the local dealers received a shipment of five boxes from Allendale, Or. Eastern cranberries are sure to arrive within the next ten days and thus it will be only a question of another month when this city should have a plentiful supply of the holiday berries.

Onions continue to bring exceptionally strong values and the "corner" in that commodity seems to be pretty well defined now. The following facts from San Francisco seem to bear out this view: The onion market here continues to hold up in remarkable style under very heavy receipts and there is more than a suspicion on the part of the knowing ones that at least two dealers are engaging in a big gamble. All of the available storage space at Stockton and at least one of the largest houses in San Francisco has been reserved since July for a total capacity of 150,000 sacks. The average cost of the stock already put away is around $1.25 a hundred pounds. These have been purchased at prices ranging from 85 cents to a $1.65 on the wharf here. The latter price was probably paid for no other reason than to get them away from some small buyer who wanted to put away a few onions on his own account. In fact, at the present time one or two speculators are buying practically all the unsold onions daily on arrival at top figures to sustain their own market. The smaller speculators of former seasons were waiting for the onion market to get down around 75 cents before buying for storage, but as soon as the market hit $1 the big guns swooped down on it and took all offerings with the result that there are no small holdings in storage."

Butter extras declined a cent a pound yesterday morning at the session of the Produce Exchange, making the present quotation for that commodity 32 cents per pound. Eggs were inactive but give indications of going higher within a few days. In San Francisco eggs sold for 40 cents a dozen, 1 cent under the local market. According to Secretary Stanley, the receipts consisted of 170 cases of eggs, 38,200 pounds of butter, 11,500 pounds of cheese, 540 sacks of potatoes, 53 sacks of beans, 22 sacks of sweet potatoes, 6639 boxes of apples and 511 boxes of pears.

Serious.

SAYS HE'S TOO MUCH MARRIED.

Wife Sues for Annulment on Bigamy Grounds.

Alleges Spouse has Two More Better Halves.

And Left when Her Money was not Forthcoming.

A penchant for matrimony is alleged to be the besetting sin of one W. H. Burgess, alias Henry W. Hall and Ed H. Hall, as set forth on a complaint filed yesterday by Mrs. Josie A. Bolin, a widow of Fort Worth, Tex. She asks that her marriage to Ed H. Hall, which took place in this city last March 28, be annuled. Constable Coleman of Santa Ana yesterday sought to serve a summons on Hall.

The complaint charges that Hall has three wives living at this time and that he has not taken the trouble to divorce any of them. The first wife, Mrs. Anna Burgess, whom he is alleged to have married under the name of W. H. Burgess and whom, it is said, he lived twen- [illegible] is declared to be still alive [illegible]ding at Hutchison, Kan. He [illegible] have deserted her six years [illegible] Henry H. Hall, to have [illegible] Effie Murray of St. Paul, [illegible] Santa Ana, September 15. [illegible] Hall, or Burgess, told his last two [illegible]ouses, it is set forth, that he was [illegible] traveling salesman, had plenty of money and was marrying only for companionship. He is alleged to have maneuvered to meet his last matrimonial victim in a park at Long Beach and to have assured her that while he knew she was wealthy, he did not want her money and did not wish to discuss her financial affairs.

He soon deserted her, however, she charges, when he found she was not disposed to give him money. Mrs. Bolin says she received a telegram purporting to come from him at Oakland, and asking that she come to him at once. Mrs. Bolin made the trip only to find, she declares, that the address given was false and that Hall was still in Los Angeles.

She at once became suspicious, and after some searching, it is declared, learned of the marriage to Effie Murray. She got in touch with Mrs. Murray and the two women are now friends.

The facts have been presented to the District Attorney.

Mrs. Bolin is the owner of a 400-acre cotton plantation in Texas.

OPIUM SMUGGLERS MUST SERVE TERMS.

LAST TWO OF QUINTETTE ARE SENTENCED HERE.

Action Marks Cleaning Out of Nest of Crooked Pacific Mail Employees—One Offender Shown Leniency Because of Strong Recommendations from Friends.

John C. Winkler and Thomas J. Wilson, the last of the Pacific Mail steamer employees caught in the net of the law for handling smoking opium, were before United States District Judge Cushman yesterday for sentence. They had been found guilty of having fifty five-tael cans of the narcotic in their possession.

The original quintette was Wilson, Winkler, Taylor, Winters and Libbey, and with the conviction of the first two named, the entire close corporation has either been convicted or has pleaded guilty to smuggling. Winkler has served four months in the City Jail in Honolulu for smuggling, but this is the first time Wilson has been apprehended, although the government has set a dozen traps to catch him.

Wilson, a native of Australia, is an automobile driver in San Francisco, and from the time he was 15 years of age until he was 26 he followed the sea. When arrested he was studying at the Taylor Nautical School, San Francisco, with the intention of taking an examination for mate on a Pacific Mail liner.

Judge Cushman gave Winkler eighteen months in the Federal prison at McNeil's Island, and Wilson escaped with two months in the County Jail, largely because he presented a number of strong recommendations from San Francisco friends.

CLOSES DEFENSE.

Conspiracy Case Against Alfalfa-Dairying Company to Jury.

The proceedings in the case against Fred L. Foster and J. B. Mayer, charged with conspiracy in connection with the promotion of the Alfalfa Farming and Dairying Company was confined, before Judge Trippet and a jury yesterday, to the closing of the defense and the argument of the issues to the jury, to be concluded this morning.

The jury will not be charged by Judge Trippet until Tuesday morning. At that time it will be necessary for Asst. Dist.-Atty. Robert O'Connor to appear in behalf of the government, for the resignation of Asst. Dist.-Atty M. C. Gallaher, who conducted the prosecution, will take effect today.

DRESS QUIETLY.

So Judge Advises, When He Grants Divorce to Wife.

Mrs. Nellie Fackler, who relied on her own judgment as to clothes and resented her husband's complaint that she dressed too well, was advised by Judge Wood, after he granted her a decree of divorce from Wesley Fackler, yesterday, to dress quietly, if the next husband suggested it. The clothing question was not the only issue in her divorce suit. She declared her husband slapped her, and the court agreed a wife does not have to submit to being slapped.

Then there was another reason which could hardly be classed as cruelty.

"My husband wanted me to sit around and hug him all the time," Mrs. Fackler testified.

FAMILY STRUGGLE FOR BIG PROPERTY.

MAN AND WIFE PRESSING RIVAL OWNERSHIP CLAIMS.

He Says She Paid Him Handsomely to Marry Her—She Counters with Alleged History of Check to Make Him Feel "Rich for a Day."

"He asked me to make him feel rich just for one day," testified Mrs. Jennie A. Darling of South Pasadena yesterday. She was made defendant in a suit involving property valued at $200,000, by her husband, George K. Darling, and the issue was on trial before Judge Shenk yesterday.

"He said he wanted to see how it felt to carry around $10,000, so as a part of the joke I made out a check for $10,000 and gave it to him. He said he would return the check the next day," she declared.

At that time Mr. Darling was courting the wealthy Mrs. York, but the same evening he went to her home and gave her his personal check for $8000 and a note for $2000.

This explanation by Mrs. Darling was in refutation of the testimony of Mr. Darling that Mrs. York had given him $10,000 to marry her. He said, "I did not think I could afford to do it for any less."

After the marriage, Mrs. Darling said, she took over his piano business and paid off debts aggregating $3000. But, she said, he continued to get money from her and spend it in business deals, without any accounting, for nine years.

Mrs. Darling concluded her testimony on her answer and today the case will probably proceed on her cross-complaint. Mr. Darling asks the court to declare property at Eighth and Los Angeles streets, 320 acres in Imperial Valley and the home place in Primrose avenue, South Pasadena, all told of a value of $104,000, as community property. Mrs. Darling claims it as her separate property.

She asks in her cross-complaint that seventeen pieces standing in Mr. Darling's name be declared community property.

THREE YEARS FOR SKYLIGHT BURGLAR.

Charles Ambrose, the skylight burglar who got stuck in one of these contrivances while trying to escape from the store of W. C. Hennelly on West Sixth street, about two months ago, was sentenced to three years in San Quentin yesterday by Judge Willis. Patrolman Button discovered Ambrose in the store and when the officer tried to force his way into the place the burglar attempted to get through the aperture in the roof. He was too large to wiggle through before the officer caught his feet and dragged him back.

WILL APPEAL "BLIND PIG" CASE.

John Ahrens, pioneer Pomona ranchman, recently convicted of operating a "blind pig," gave notice of appeal to the Superior Court yesterday. He was taken before Justice Barnes of Pomona last week and fined $500, with the alternative of serving 500 days in jail.

This is not the first conviction of Ahern. A year ago last July his mountain ranch, about eight miles from the college community, was raided, some liquor was secured and his guilt was later established. He paid a fine of $300 at that time rather than serve that many days on the chain gang.

When captured by officers of the District Attorney's office, assisted also by Constable Slanker of Pomona, two weeks ago, he had just arrived at his house with six dozen bottles of beer in his wagon. This was confiscated. Ahern insisted he had purchased it for his personal use.

FAINTS IN COURT WHEN ACCUSING HUSBAND.

Mrs. Edith Chapman was so overcome by the fact that she had to appear in the court yesterday morning to tell of the failure of her husband to provide for his family that she collapsed and had to be sent to the Receiving Hospital.

Wilson S. Chapman, who is alleged to have deserted his family, did not appear before Judge Craig as he had been ordered to do, with the result that a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. He was formerly manager of the Santa Barbara branch of the Pacific Telephone Company, and, with his wife, was known in the social circles of that city.

Mrs. Chapman endeavored to support herself and three small children by teaching school and also by sewing, but could not make enough to cover her needs, and so appealed to the local court to force assistance from her spouse. The latter was working here at the time she made the complaint, but could not be located yesterday.

BIGAMY CHARGE. TRIAL DATE IS SET.

Carl Due Vey will have an opportunity of telling a jury just why he happens to be accused of having two wives at the same time. Judge Willis yesterday morning set his trial for November 14. The young man pleaded not guilty. The complaint charges that he first married Miss Ella Spaulding in July of this year, and a month later took Miss Elizabeth Tate as his bride.

NO PROSECUTION ON BIGAMY CHARGE.

A charge of bigamy will not be made against S. W. Lawson, motion-picture director, who sued for annulment of his marriage to a second wife on the ground that the former marriage was binding, as the final decree had not been entered. Judge Wilbur held that a man ought to know whether he is married before he contracts another matrimonial alliance. He referred the matter to the District Attorney for investigation, but as the first Mrs. Lawson could not be located a complaint against Lawson was not issued.

Mrs. Lawson contested the annulment suit by a cross-complaint asking separate maintenance. The hearing, continued before Judge Wilbur, yesterday was closed with attorneys on both sides submitting briefs covering the legal questions involved.

INS AND OUTS ABOUT THE COURTS.

BLAMES BREMEN. Richard Spikerman, German army officer whose ship never arrived, was arraigned yesterday before Judge Willis on a charge of passing a bad check for $25. He entered a plea of not guilty and his trial was set for November 13. Spikerman at the time of his preliminary hearing explained to the court that he had expected a draft for $25,000 from Germany and this had never arrived, owing to the failure of the submersible Bremen to reach this country.

LOSES TWICE. The retrial of the $20,000 damage suit of Mrs. Angie Marchman against the Los Angeles Railway Corporation for the death of her son, George Gilbreath, 16, at Twelfth and Santee streets, December 15, 1913, resulted in Judge Myers's court yesterday in judgment for the railroad. In the former action the railroad won, and, on appeal, the case was sent back to be retried. When the accident happened the boy was riding on a motorcycle which collided with the car. The company set up contributory negligence.

TO COLLECT JUDGMENT. Earl Fredenall, who says he has a judgment against M. M. Woodruff, a contractor, who constructed a municipal bath-house at Ganesha Park, Pomona, filed suit yesterday against T. R. Trotter, City Clerk, for a writ of mandate, compelling him to draw a warrant on the funds of the city for the amount due on the judgment. The alleged judgment was obtained at San Jose February 26, 1913, and there is now due Mr. Fredenall $100.05. He asks $50 damages. It is alleged the city owes Mr. Woodruff $773 on the construction of the bath-house.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT MEETS FAILURE.

NEW JITNEY BUS ORDINANCE KEPT IN ABEYANCE.

Councilwoman Refuses to Reconsider While Section Giving Wide Power to Board of Public Utilities Remains—Wright Would Keep 'Em off Broadway.

Failure met an attempt yesterday to obtain reconsideration of the new ordinance placing jitney busses, taxicabs and all other public vehicles under the control of the Board of Public Utilities instead of the Police Commission.

Councilwoman Lindsey said she would not vote for the ordinance while it contained the section placing in the power of the board the authority of deciding whether the public convenience and necessity would be served by the operation of any vehicle.

Councilman Wright said he believed the ordinance well worth a trial. "Jitney busses, as now conducted, are a nuisance," he remarked. He said if he had the power he would regulate them so they would not be a nuisance, and he would not let them run on Broadway and some other streets.

President Betkouski said there is no doubt the running of the busses should be regulated in the interest of the public. We thought, however, they should take out the "convenience-and-necessity" section.

Councilman Wheeler said any possible hostile action by the Board of Public Utilities was negatived by the section which enacted that all rules, regulations, orders or acts of the board may be reconsidered by the Council.

As Councilwoman Lindsay maintained her attitude and refused to agree to reconsideration no action could be taken, and the ordinance will come up for passage next Monday. At that time it may be amended by the addition of a section to the effect that nothing in it shall be construed to mean that the Board of Public Utilities has any authority to deny full and sufficient service of motor busses on any street.

IS INDORSED. REGIMENT SUPPORTED.

The Council yesterday adopted a resolution indorsing the Second Regiment, Coast Artillery, U.S.A., Reserves. The members believe the organization of this regiment is for the advantage of the community and should have the enthusiastic support of the people.

The Council pledges its moral support and calls upon all patriotic citizens to assist in every way possible.

ASKS FOR OPINION ON PLUMBERS' BONDS.

The City Council yesterday decided to ask the City Attorney for an opinion as to whether Councilman John Topham, in writing a number of plumbers' bonds, has violated the charter. Mayor Woodman also has asked the attorney for an opinion.

Councilman Wright made the motion to obtain a ruling. He gave it as his own opinion that Councilman Topham has not exceeded his legal rights, but it is desirable to settle the controversy.

Councilman Topham was among those who voted to ask for the opinion. He said afterward he wrote the bonds in the regular course of business and felt he had every right to do so. He stated he has written only forty this year, the others being written by other firms.

City Hall Notes.

An ordinance was adopted by the Council yesterday dedicating to the State a portion of city land at Hyperion for the coast boulevard.

The City Engineer was instructed to condemn a triangular piece of land bounded by Boylston street, Beaudry avenue, Fifth and Sixth streets, necessary for the widening of Fifth street and also to obtain an easement from the Normal School property for permission to open the street through Normal Hill.

WRIGHT GIVES BOND.

John J. Wright, awaiting a hearing on an order of removal from this city to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, on a Mann white slave charge, gave bond in $500 yesterday for his appearance for further examination next Thursday. The case was originally set for this afternoon.

DEATH NOTE IS QUEER PUZZLE.

Black-hand Suspect Taken in Custody, Released.

After Threatened Woman Pays Him Money.

New Clews may Cause Arrest of Prominent Italian.

After a day of confinement in the Sheriff's office, while officers investigated charges of extortion brought against him, D. Cuicci was yesterday evening released on the order of Sheriff Cline. It was impossible to unravel the tangled skein of evidence presented by numerous individuals.

Cuicci was arrested early in the morning at the instigation of Mrs. Mary B. Rubio of Bell Station, who had received a letter demanding $275.85 and threatening death unless this amount was given to "Pasqualli" before many hours. This amount is the same as that asked for by the fruit man, whose wagon was smashed in a collision with Mrs. Rubio's automobile about two months ago.

Yesterday she went to the Sixth-street market, where Cuicci is in business, and presented him with a post-dated check for $190 and a number of bills of small denomination, all marked, and he accepted and receipted for the amount. Deputy Sheriffs Anderson and Modie, who were aware of what was going on, stepped in immediately after the transaction and took the fruit merchant into custody.

Confronted with the threatening letter, he absolutely denied authorship or knowledge of it. Deputy Sheriffs Fox and Nolan were detailed on the case and worked all day. They found that the note to Mrs. Rubio had apparently been written by the same person who penned a "blackhand" letter found pinned to the door of H. M. McClain's house at Vernon about ten months ago. In that note Mr. McClain was accused of complaining to the police of the actions of certain Italians in the neighborhood and threatened with death if he should talk again.

Constable Harris of Vernon, who investigated the matter, was called into conference yesterday and stated the two notes were so similar they were probably written by the same person. Shortly after the threat against Mr. McClain, an attempt to burn his house was made while he slept, but this was frustrated. Certain clews were uncovered yesterday after these revelations, which may lead to the arrest of an Italian well known in the local colony.

However, the officers still have Cuicci under surveillance.
